Canada and the U.S.A. have already realized that "Dad's been left out"--His birthday's been overlooked, --- Christmas expenses have been high--"Dad doesn't mind," so--he goes without.

Therefore --- they've adopted a "Father's Day." A day when everybody remembers "Dad." When even the very poorest try to get him a gift---however small.

Kearney has made a "Father's Day" for Newfoundland, Sept. 9th. Aren't there lots of things "Dad" needs, or would like?
