A New City Directory

The new City Directory which has just been issued reflects great credit on the compilers, Messrs. Geo. H. Andrews and E. A. Smith, and furnishes to the public, and particularly to the business and professional sections a long felt need.

The Directory contains the names of about 13,000 persons residing or engaged within the city limits and in the nearby suburbs. There are approximately 4,600 more names in this issue than appeared in the last Directory published.

In the first section of the book the streets are arranged in alphabetical order and the second section contains the names of citizens with their occupations, etc. Considerable space is given to advertisements, and the Advertiser's Index in the front pages makes it a valuable book of reference for outport business firms.

Money Sent on a Wild Goose Chase

In connection with appeals that are being made in Canada for funds to save the children of Germany from starvation, Saturday Night makes the following comments:

Without imputing any evil motives one may be sufficiently curious to ask who is the head and front of this movement, now so general in Canada, to collect funds for German children. We still remember a former movement that had to do with the collecting of funds for the starving Russians, and that in between some were a party of "graters" who in the excitement forgot the starving Russians to the point where they lined their own pockets. As we recall one secretary of a Russian fund that was functioning in England took a rake off of something like £30,000 as his share of the swag, and as we remember he did not get in jail either as it was alleged he had earned this sum through his personal endeavors.

In respect to the alleged starving condition of these German children there is some ground for suspicion that the German people can take care of all their needy if they will. From all quarters travellers are writing of the manner in which German citizens by the hundreds and thousands are throwing their money about. This is taking place at all the resorts and all the capitals of Europe, and from the evidence at hand it would appear that they are spending far more money than even the rich Americans at these various places.

In this connection it is interesting to note what Professor C. T. Currelly, curator of the Royal Ontario Museum, had to say on this subject, he having just returned to Canada from a trip abroad where he was in connection with adding to the treasures of the museum of which he has charge. In an interview he said: "Of late Germans have been simply ferocious buyers of objects of art, of rare and expensive books in particular, as if they wanted to own everything in the art world in a short time. One big dealer in very expensive books, books selling at up to $10,000 a piece, told me that the issuing of a thousand catalogues in England would possibly produce ten buyers. The bulk of the stuff would be bought by Germans." If charity begins at home, as the old saw tells us it does, surely we can find sufficient numbers of needy people right here in Canada, without pressing our dollars and our quarters into service in such a questionable venture in far off Germany.

A plea on behalf of the children is one which seldom fails on deaf ears, and for this reason it is well to make certain of the claims put forward and the method of disposal of such funds before the philanthropically disposed part with their money.

The reports of extravagant spending on the part of the German public have been so frequently brought back by visitors, that it is quite reasonable to believe that they are not without foundation. It must also be remembered that so far as Germany's domestic affairs were concerned they were not affected by the war to any extent. In France and Belgium, the country was devastated, whereas Germany's agricultural lands remained intact. It has even been said that by cool calculation the Germans have ascertained that by limiting the distribution of milk and using it in the manufacture of butter, its value from a commercial standpoint is considerably enhanced. If such is the case, and unless it can be clearly shown that relief is necessary, we would be well advised to study our own needs first, for they are great and pressing, particularly with regard to the children.

Last Night's Rehearsal

At the C.L.B. Armoury last night there was a rehearsal by the members of the four city bands. In all there were about sixty instruments and the rehearsal was very successful. Marches, Hymns and National Airs were played in preparation for the War Memorial ceremonies. There will be another practice on Thursday night when the Brigades will again have a joint parade in preparation for the visit of Earl Haig.

Ordinations at All Halls

At All Halls, on Trinity Sunday, three Newfoundland young men were ordained to the Priesthood of the Roman Catholic Church. They are Father Ronald Murphy, son of the late Joseph Murphy, formerly Hotel proprietor of Whitbourne, and Mrs. Agnes Murphy, of Prescott St., and a nephew of the late Dr. Scully. Father James Miller, of Placentia, and Father George Bartlett, St. John's. These young men studied philosophy at St. Augustine's Seminary, at Toronto, passed most successfully, and then proceeded to All Halls, for their final course in Theology. All have prepared for the Priesthood for the Archdiocese of St. John's and will be home and assigned to work in the different parishes during the months of July or August.

Arrived by Prospero

The following passengers arrived last evening by S.S. Prospero:—Messrs. Moore, Crawford, Jones, Milfin, Martin, Dawe, Quirk, Percory, Fraser, Downer, Easton, Downey, Housell and two children, Jenkins, Alcock, James; Mrs. Hiscoc, Davies, Wilkinson; Mesdames Dawe and child, Moore and two children, Wilkinson and three children, Davies and child, Hardy and four children, Walsh, Simms, Davey, and two children, Easton and three children, Downey, Jenkins, James, Misses Major, Downey, Dawe, Davis, Bishop, Moore, Milfin, Ladrew, Ford, Dawe, Reid, Peters, Gillard, Walsh and 15 in steerage.

Beldere Garden Party

It is the province of all garden party promoters to continually plan new means of attracting patrons to their entertainments, but we believe the plan must be awarded to the organizer of the Mystery Bower which will be in evidence to-morrow afternoon at the Beldere Garden Party. "Come and See" tickets will be sold on the grounds for ten cents each, and the Bower of Mystery is denoted by a "Come and See" flag. Miss Kathleen Keegan and her talented oriental aides will act as hostess, and no person will be admitted more than once. We understand that none under sixteen or over sixty can buy a ticket, but further information was impossible to obtain and our readers must possess their souls in patience until to-morrow afternoon. We have also been informed that the "Anglers" at Mrs. O'Keefe's Fish Pond have a chance of something unusual, and from what we can learn all the rods will be in constant demand. We are at liberty to say that of the 2047 "fish" in the pond over four hundred are of an unknown species and cannot be duplicated in Newfoundland.

The crowning finish will be Mrs. Harry Peddigan's big dance in the Recreation Hall with the C.C.C. Orchestra in attendance where, we understand, the four management have a special and attractive programme to offer.

PEPYS BEHIND THE SCENES.

June 16th.—This morning it rained so hard, though it was fair last night, that it waked me betimes. So to the office, and on the way, meeting Mr. Ayre, to the meeting of the Importers' Association with him. Mr. P. Knowling in the chair, but no Secretary being present. I am made to act, and in but another instance of honors being thrust upon me so that soon, it will surprise me not at all if the Prime Minister do resign in my favour. Indeed, if I did believe my wife, I should by now have attained honours higher even than those which did come to the great Samuel. The meeting considers a letter of Col. Nangle, asking for the Wednesday of Halg Week to be a whole holiday instead of a half day, and this request acceded to. Reading to-day in the journal, which another Pepys do write for the "City News" sheet of Manchester. But Lord this fellow is too wise to be compared with me. Albeit he do maintain the literary standard, which the great Samuel did set that his descendants might follow. By despatches out of England R. MacDonald mightily angry with the Mexicans, and gives them a warning to forbear from harming the British Agent. Indeed, it do seem how the Mexicans, now that they have no revolutions for their amusement, will resort to even so dangerous a game as tweaking the lion's tail for their entertainment.

Dr. Grenfell Given Leave of Absence

Owing to his health not being good Dr. Grenfell will not resume his activities on Labrador this year. Arrangements have been made by the International Board, which looks after the various Grenfell Hospitals, to give the Doctor a year's leave of absence. If his health improves he and Mrs. Grenfell may put in part of the time in foreign travel, but in any case he will not return to St. Anthony until June of next year, when it is hoped the Doctor's health may be completely restored.

NOTICE—The gentlemen of St. Patrick's Institute are requested to meet in the Old Convent School immediately after Last Mass, next Sunday, to arrange a programme for the Garden Party of July 16th.—J. J. MURPHY, Secretary.—June 17, 1924.

Personal

His Excellency the Governor left by Sunday's express to pay an unofficial visit to the Humber and Dorset Brook. He is accompanied by Major Montcrieff, A.D.C., and by Miss Allard and Miss Stowell. Mr. A. W. Shano, the obliging official of the Post Office at North Sydney, is at present in Halifax receiving electrical treatment. He is staying with his brother who is Staff-Sergeant with the medical corps. Mr. Shano's health has greatly improved, and it will only be a matter of time when he will be restored to a complete recovery.

REPLIES TO HIS WELL WISHERS.

Editor Evening Telegram. Dear Sir.—I would deem it a very great favour if you would permit me brief space in the columns of your esteemed Evening Telegram to express my sincerest gratitude to my many friends from all over the country for those innumerable congratulatory messages and letters received. Realizing the utter impossibility of personally replying to them all, I would ask those well wishers to kindly accept this brief appreciation as coming right from the heart of LEWIS LITTLE, Bonavista.

OUR PRESCRIPTION DEPT. There is no profession or occupation, excepting that perhaps of a doctor, where knowledge, skill and experience count for more than they do in that of the compounding Pharmacist. Therefore we wish to keep before you the fact our Prescription Department is exceptionally well appointed for this kind of work and under no circumstances is an inexperienced person allowed to put up a Prescription. We keep only the purest of drugs and the most exacting care is exercised dispensing.

Cadets as They Should Be

Editor Evening Telegram. Dear Sir.—Will you allow me a little space in your paper? I was in the Cadets a few years ago when they had school companies. Why not have them now and keep it up to the old mark? It is a shame to see it going down like it is. Every one in this town knows the C.C.C. were always on top at everything, and they are yet, only the Corps. Yours truly, CADET.

TO-DAY'S MESSAGES.

PREMIER MACDONALD FURNISHES INFORMATION RE CUMMINS CASE.

LONDON, June 17. Premier Ramsay MacDonald in the House of Commons this afternoon reviewed the case of Cummins, British Charge d'Affaires in Mexico whose expulsion had been ordered by the Mexican Government. This was in reply to a question by Arthur M. Samuel who asked whether the Mexican Government had attempted to expel Cummins, whether Cummins had refused to leave and shut himself up in the British Legation, and whether the British Government regarded the action of the Mexican Government as a breach of International Courtesy and if so what step the Government proposed to take. Premier MacDonald said that for some time there had been friction between the Mexican Government and Cummins and the British Government had been unable to agree that the complaints made against Cummins by the Mexican Authorities were justified. On May 13 last the Premier said he was informed if Cummins was not withdrawn from Mexico he would be expelled on June 1. The Premier said he had been desirous of regulating Great Britain's relations with Mexico for some time, and had decided that Sir Thomas Hooley who had previously done good work in that country should go immediately on a special mission and report to him. The plan was Mr. MacDonald explained, that upon the arrival of Sir Thomas in Mexico Cummins was to leave. This information it was stated was sent officially to the Mexican Government, and Premier MacDonald said he had trusted that matters would be allowed to rest there. The Premier declared that the Mexican Government, however, had not only declined to withdraw the notice of expulsion against Cummins but was apparently according to reports in the press proceeding to carry it out. He said the British Government regarded the action of the Mexican Government as a great breach of International Courtesy, but he was still waiting for further information as to the result of communications made to the Government of Mexico. Asked what were the charges made against Cummins and the reasons given for his expulsion, Premier MacDonald said that the allegations were briefly that Cummins had made a rude communication to the Mexican Government.

LIVELY TIME ANTICIPATED IN DEBATE ON IMPERIAL CONFERENCE RESOLUTIONS.

LONDON, June 17. Notwithstanding the Government reverse in an unimportant division to-night the members of the House were in a listless frame of mind and are apparently saving up their energies for the full debate on the Imperial Conference Resolution on Tuesday and Wednesday. The Opposition is looking forward to the contest with particular keenness and have put down many actions covering all phases of the question, but in order to simplify the business it is expected that divisions will not be taken until Wednesday night, and only on three or four representative resolutions.

LODS AMENDMENTS TO BILL REJECTED.

LONDON, June 17. The House of Commons last night after debating the Government Bill for prevention of eviction of tenants who do not pay rent because of unemployment, rejected all amendments proposed by the House of Lords. The Government was aided by the Liberal votes and the Bill thus restored to its original condition will go back to the Lords which may either permit amendments or accept the decision of the Commons.

WORLD'S LARGEST SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

GLASGOW June 17. One hundred and fifty Canadians arrived here on the Marloch yesterday from Montreal for the opening Wednesday of the World's Sunday School Convention. The convention, which is the largest of its kind ever held in Great Britain under the patronage of the Duke of York. More than 3000, representing 25 different countries, will attend.

BRITAINS SEMI-ANNUAL PAYMENT OF INTEREST.

NEW YORK, June 17. Payments of semi-annual interest on the British debt totalling slightly less than $60,000,000 was made to the United States Treasury yesterday by J. P. Morgan and Co. acting as financial agents for the British Government. The check for the major portion of the amount was drawn by the Morgan Firm to Federal Reserve Bank and Treasury Account and the remainder of the payment was met by treasury certificates. No Liberty Bonds were included.

SUCCESSFUL TRYOUT OF HELICOPTER.

ALDRSHOT ENGLAND, June 17. The helicopter built by Louis Brennan, the English inventor for the air ministry had a successful tryout yesterday. The plane hovered at a height from ten to fifteen feet above the ground for several minutes according to unofficial reports. Elaborate precautions were taken by officials of the ministry to keep the trial secret.

60 COUNTRIES ATTEND BOLSHAKOV CONGRESS.

MOSCOW, June 17. Sixty countries, including Canada and Great Britain are represented in the fifth congress of the third International which opens in the Grand Opera here to-day. This year's convention of the organization founded by Lenin and Stalin, and other Bolsheviks in 1919, when communism was scarcely more than experiment has brought a thousand representatives from every inhabited part of the world.

Youthful Offenders Imprisoned

Two juvenile offenders named Walsh and Smith were assigned before Judge Morris this morning charged with an attempted series of larcenies and burglaries which constitute a record in local police circles. The daring thieves have been under close surveillance of the detectives for sometime past, but last night about the hour of 11.30 the youths were caught red-handed by Sgt. Long and Constables Russell and Morgan, in the act of forcing an entrance in the store of Messrs. Nicholls and Inkpen. Before they had a chance to get through a window which had already been broken, the officers made good their capture and brought them to the lockup. Upon being searched at the police station, it was found that they had in their possession, several sharp instruments, skeleton keys, and four corking irons, a burglar's full equipment. Upon being placed on trial they were charged with the following offences:—(1) Mark Chaplin, (2) Ellis & Co., (3) Nicholls and Inkpen, (4) larceny of four corking irons valued at $2.50 the property of some person known, (5) larceny of the sum of $25.00 in cash, tobacco, and cigarettes from the store of Bishop & Sons, (6) larceny of bunch of keys and twenty cents in cash property of F. Banakhin, (7) making a fire in the store of the Franklin Agencies with intent to destroy the building, (8) attempting to steal from the store of R. O. Rendell.

Both lads confessed their guilt to all of the above charges, and after receiving a sound lecture from Judge Morris they were each sentenced to six months imprisonment, besides five lashes on going in and five additional lashes upon coming out. Smith, a lad of 13 years, has appeared before court on five different occasions and convicted on similar offences, while Walsh, aged 16 years, appeared twice before.
