OFFICE:.....MACDONNELL STREET
TUESDAY EVENING, OCT. 6, 1898.

Town Council.

The Council met on Monday night. Present, the Mayor in the chair, Dr. Derod, Messrs. Heffernan, Day, Sayers, Howard, Buckland, Chadwick, Melvin, McCarty, Mays, Mitchell, Messie and Harvey.

The Clerk read a communication from the office of the Toronto Telegraph respecting a Gazetteer of the Province which the proprietors are about to publish, and for which they solicited the subscription and patronage of the Council.

Mr. Chadwick read a petition from John Neeve relative to some lots which had been leased to the town in order to procure gravel therefrom.

Mr. Chadwick presented the report of the Finance Committee. They had received a cheque from Sheriff Macdonald, Goderich, for $150.08.

Mr. Harvey presented the report of the Fire & Water Committee, which recommended that six members be added to the Fire Company viz, W. McKee, W. McCandless, Wm. Doyle, Alex. Bruce, Duncan Milne, and John Peniston.

Mr. Melvin thought the Council should have something more from the Committee than there was in the report. The Hook & Ladder Company had not been communicated with.

On motion of Dr. Derod, seconded by Mr. Buckland the Council went into Committee of the Whole on the report, Mr. Chadwick in the chair.

Moved by Mr. Mitchell, seconded by Dr. Herod that a by-law be introduced for stopping up Elora and Fergus streets, and selling them to D. Guthrie, and that it be now read a first and second time.

Mr. Chadwick wanted to know from the Market House Committee if the door in the Royal Insurance Company's office was to be built up. Dr. Herod said he would call together the committee this week and see about it.

Dr. Herod wanted some explanation from the Fire & Water Committee with regard to the tanks. In the first place they should have been ashamed of the loss- contract which they made.

The work was to be finished the first of July and now the middle of October was approaching, and out of three double tanks that had been put down there was only one that would hold.

Mr. Harvey asked the doctor who had told him that the contractor had received $500. The doctor said he would make his assertion good.

The City Council of Montreal have decided to borrow $350,000 to purchase the mountain for a public park.

A man, hanged last Saturday, in Worcester, Mass., for a peculiarly brutal murder, gravely lectured the party round the scaffold, dispassionately and philosophically arguing the impety of capital punishment.

Minto Correspondence.

During the last two or three weeks circumstances did not afford, ingeniously itself would have failed to invent, material for anything like an interesting letter from this neighborhood; but there are now a few things that can be noted, and first of all comes the HARRISTON FARM—Yesterday (Friday) was a beautiful day, and sundry more unpropitious circumstances, such as the Agricultural Show at Clifford, which by the way is said to have been a very good one, the fair was the largest ever held in Harriston.

There were not fewer than 500 head of cattle on the ground, a large portion of these in very good condition, and quite a number of sales, or as some of the farmers termed them "gits" or "give aways," were made.

It was impossible amid the bustle and confusion of such a day to get anything like a full statement, but the following may be taken as a fair average of the business transacted. Samuel Johnston sold heifer for $23; W. Paggot a yoke of oxen $95; M. Wright a cow, $28; John Corbett a cow, $21; John Wilkinson a heifer, $29; W. Bruce a steer, $15; John McLellan a heifer, $35; W. Bent a heifer, $18; A. Nelson a cow, $25; Mrs. W. Adams a cow, $26; Thos. Simpson a steer, $22; J. Turner a heifer, $10; John Lewis a cow, $18; J. Irvine a yoke of oxen, $86.50; J. Davidson a cow, $25; J. Wright a heifer, $12; R. Craig a yoke of oxen, $115; James White a heifer, $35; Martin Engle a steer, $16; J. Lang a bull $30; A. Gillespie an ox, $43; J. Kean a cow, $17; G. Lockmore a cow, $16; J. Fleming a steer, $24; M. McLeod two steers and a heifer, $60; J. Henry a cow, $24; D. Ferguson two steers, $72; J. Kindness a mare, $125; J. Norman two steers, $46; F. Ballins a yoke steers, $46; A. Patterson a cow, $10; D. Gillespie a cow, $10; J. Britt two heifers, $40; M. Nehle a cow, $25; D. Smith a steer, $23 and a yoke oxen, $120; A. McDermitt a yoke steers, $60; McEachern a cow, $25; T. Stays a cow and steer, $43; P. Smart, one yoke of steers, $90; A. Sinclair, one cow, $18; R. Sinclair, two cows, $26; A. Patterson, one steer, $30. Mr. R. Cochrane bought 100 hogs at $2.75 to $4 per 100lbs, live weight.

The SILVER QUESTION—Silver is again taken at par in Harriston. How the recent compact entered into between merchants and others has so soon been broken is not exactly known.

Mr. Chadwick presented the report of the Finance Committee. They had received a cheque from Sheriff Macdonald, Goderich, for $150.08.

Mr. Harvey presented the report of the Fire & Water Committee, which recommended that six members be added to the Fire Company viz, W. McKee, W. McCandless, Wm. Doyle, Alex. Bruce, Duncan Milne, and John Peniston.
