

TELEGRAPHIC.

The News Condensed and Interpreted for Busy People.

The Stamboul Quarter of Constantinople in Ashes.

A Sixty Thousand Dollar Blaze in Philadelphia.

Prince Ferdinand is not likely to return to Bulgaria.
Switzerland has been selected arbitrator in the Delago Bay question.
The financial panic in Buenos Ayres is subsiding. Gold premium 157.

Prince Bismarck speaks very bitterly in regard to the cowardice of the German press.

The French steamer Henri Fourth, from St. Pierre, for Havre, has been sunk near Croix.

Floods in northern Italy are causing immense damage, especially in the Valley of the Adige.

The cholera bulletins from Valencia, Spain, show a steady decrease in the epidemic.

It is reported that Belgium's acquiring the Congo State is the prelude to the sale of the State to Germany.

The London postmen's strike has practically collapsed. Four hundred men have been suspended or dismissed.

David Pugh, M. P. for the eastern division of Carmarthenshire is dead. He was a Liberal, and favored home rule for Ireland.

Storms and floods have destroyed crops at Gastein and Leine. The country from Spital, in Cöthlen, to Quedlinburg is submerged. Great damage has been done to railways and bridges.

News has been received at Tangier of a raid by the Zemmour tribe on the camp of the Sultan's son, near Salé. Troops and slaves were surprised and mercilessly slaughtered by the raiders, and fifteen prisoners were burned alive.

A great fire is now raging in the Stamboul quarter of Constantinople. The conflagration began in a timber yard, and the flames, fanned by a strong wind, spread rapidly to the adjoining premises. Fully 1,400 houses and shops have already been destroyed.

CANADIAN.

About 5,000 took part in the Orange procession at Hamilton on the 12th.

The 9-year-old son of Flavian Flagg, of Hull, was drowned in the Ottawa River, Friday.

The Vancouver, from Quebec, which arrived at Liverpool Saturday morning was delayed eighteen hours by fog and ice.

Application is made for the incorporation of the Premier Oil Company, with headquarters at Petrolia, and a capital stock of $150,000.

The C. P. R.'s new steamers being built for the Pacific service are to be called Empress of India, Empress of China, Empress of Japan. The first is expected to be ready for service in February or March.

Hon. Charles Langford, Provincial Secretary of Quebec, was re-elected by acclamation in Montmorency on Saturday.

In Gaspe, Carleton, the Ministerial candidate, defeated Flynn, Opposition.

A prominent Ottawa lumber dealer says that while the consumption of timber and lumber in England is normal, prices remain low on account of the excessive supply.

No more bodies have been found since the scene of Friday night's disaster in Toronto, N. S., and the search has been abandoned. Edward Foster, who was taken out alive, has died.

AMERICAN.

The Silver Bill passed its final stage in Congress on Saturday.

It is reported a train was robbed near New Salem, N. D., of $50,000.

Two local factions who claim control of the town government of Island, Cal., engaged in a deadly fight, and six men were killed.

Fire broke out in a lively stable Friday at Delona, Cal., consuming two-thirds of the business portion of the town. Loss, $100,000.

A disastrous cyclone visited Minnesota on Sunday, about twenty miles north of St. Paul, by which a number of persons lost their lives.

General John C. Fremont, "The Pathfinder," and the first Republican candidate for president, died suddenly in New York yesterday of peritonitis.

Orangemen had a fine parade on the 12th in New York. There was no semblance of disturbance. There were 1,500 men in line representing fourteen lodges.

Rev. Oliver J. Booth, rector of Trinity Church, Lincoln, Neb., has life has applied for a divorce. His family troubles drive him to drink.

The Gloucester (Mass.) schooner Mattie C. Dyer has been seized by Deputy Collector Edmunds, of Orono, for alleged violation of the sealing laws. The schooner's captain denies that he was fishing in Behring Sea.

On Sunday morning fire broke out in a Philadelphia planing mill, corner of Tenth street and Susquehanna avenue, burning the mill, immense piles of lumber and of wall paper manufacturing establishment. The cause was a defective boiler. The loss is $500,000; total loss nearly $600,000.

Death of Inspector O'Reilly.
TORONTO, July 14.—Dr. W. T. O'Reilly, Inspector of Prisons and Asylums, died rather suddenly at Kingston Saturday night, an apoplectic stroke being the cause. Deceased, who resided in Toronto, was well known throughout the Province. He was 66 years of age, and leaves a wife and several children. He was to have gone to Boston this week with the Prison Commissioner.

"Queer" Use for a Wooden Leg.
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 13.—Mr. C. Hinkle was arrested here yesterday on charge of passing counterfeit money. Hinkle told a leg in the war as alleged. Examination of his leg disclosed the fact that he had arranged the inside of the prosthesis for the purpose of passing counterfeit money. There were a number of bills on the Bank of Prince Edward Island. Hinkle was jailed.

Orange Celebrations.
About 3,000 attended the Orange celebration at Hamilton on the 12th.

A MUDDLING MINISTRY.

Complete Humiliation of the Salisbury Government.

Only One of Ten Important Bills Likely to Become Law.

How Stanley's Bride Was Dressed—The Princess of Wales Scores a Bullseye—An Event in Theatrical Circles—An Alpine Snow Storm.

The Faded Lily.
LONDON, July 14.—Mrs. Langtry is taking daily carriage drives. She is looking thin and pale after her long illness.

Stanley's State.
LONDON, July 14.—Mr. Stanley has not recovered from his recent indisposition and on Sunday was confined to his bed.

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln.
LONDON, July 14.—Mrs. Lincoln, wife of the American Minister, with her daughter, will leave London for her home in Chicago early in August. The Minister will not take his leave before November, and it is hinted that he will then resign his position.

The Value of Holigoland.
BERLIN, July 14.—Admiral Reinhold Werner declares the possession of Holigoland is more valuable than territory in Africa, because it renders the Spanish German North Sea almost impossible and shares Germany the keeping of a fleet there.

Arabs Starving.
LONDON, July 14.—Two thousand Arabs, men, women and children, are dying of starvation just outside of Suakin. To-day the Aborigines Protection Society issues an appeal for money to help the victims, but it is feared hundreds will be dead before succor can reach them.

Crops Damaged by Rain.
LONDON, July 14.—A fortnight of almost daily rain in England and equally unfavorable weather in many European districts has rendered the crop prospects anything but bright, and the price of wheat is advancing in every market, the holders being strong in their demands.

Crop Reports from Ireland.
LONDON, July 14.—An official report relative to crops in Ireland says the condition of potatoes is generally very fine. There are some signs of blight, however, in Limerick, Cork and Kerry counties. Oats and barley promise fine crops. Turnips are in good condition. The growth of wheat and corn is retarded.

The Newfoundland Trouble.
PARIS, July 14.—The Siecle, after stating that Sir William W. Mackinnon, the chief of the Newfoundland company, had been informed that the Newfoundland would admit the rights of France on the French shore, provided France will abandon the island of St. Pierre and Miquelon, declares that Mackinnon will never consent to anything of the kind.

The Potato Blight in Ireland.
LONDON, July 15.—There is no doubt that the potato disease has attacked the crop in south and west Ireland. The district most affected up to the present is the country round Skibbereen and Schull, where the blight is very severe.

An "Event" in Theatrical Circles.
LONDON, July 14.—An event in theatrical circles on last Saturday was the marriage of Florence Wood, only daughter of Mr. John Wood, to Ralph Robert Lunnell, the author of "Jack" and "The Editor of the Court Journal." The ceremony took place in St. Paul's, Knightsbridge, and was witnessed by the cream of London's artistic society.

Snow Storm.
VIENNA, July 14.—Snow covers the Central Alps and continues falling. In the district of Saizkammergut and the adjacent country everything has a wintry appearance. The rivers in the Southern Tyrol Alps have overflowed their banks. The Adige from Bosen downward has flooded the adjacent country.

The Battenberg Tour.
LONDON, July 14.—Prince Henry of Battenberg and his wife, Princess Beatrice, have started on a continental tour which is to last about two months. The fact is so remarkable that police society draws the inference that the Prince has again been making himself unpleasant with his royal mother-in-law, and the not less malicious reason assigned for the phenomenal amount of liberty accorded to the young couple is early next month and would prefer not to be a Battenberg upon that occasion.

Anniversary of the Fall of Babel.
PARIS, July 14.—The anniversary of the fall of Babel is being celebrated with great enthusiasm to-day. The city has a festive appearance and the streets are thronged with holiday-makers. One feature of the celebration was the march past of the statue of Strasbourg in the Place de la Concorde by a procession of members of a number of patriotic societies.

Mother and Boy Drowned.
GAINESVILLE, Fla., July 14.—Mrs. L. J. Gainesville, Florida, and her son, Miss Brown, were drowned yesterday while boating.

The Explosion at Chicago.
CHICAGO, Ill., July 13.—Last night another terrible explosion occurred on the freight steamer Toga that was wrecked Friday evening by an unexplained concussion in the hold. Fire again broke out, and raged fiercely for a time. It is feared the total loss will reach $150,000. Six more bodies were recovered to-day, making 19 so far.

Daring Robbery in Chicago.
CHICAGO, Ill., July 14.—The general offices of the Northern Pacific Express Company at 81 Dearborn street were entered by masked robbers at 11 o'clock Saturday night. After covering two clerks who were in charge with $8,000 and $10,000 and made good their escape.

Steamers Arrived.
POLISH, July 14.—Reported. From Polandian, Cape Magdalen, Liverpool, London, Glasgow, Montreal, Quebec, New York, and other ports.

A MUDDLING MINISTRY.

Complete Humiliation of the Salisbury Government.

Only One of Ten Important Bills Likely to Become Law.

How Stanley's Bride Was Dressed—The Princess of Wales Scores a Bullseye—An Event in Theatrical Circles—An Alpine Snow Storm.

The Faded Lily.
LONDON, July 14.—Mrs. Langtry is taking daily carriage drives. She is looking thin and pale after her long illness.

Stanley's State.
LONDON, July 14.—Mr. Stanley has not recovered from his recent indisposition and on Sunday was confined to his bed.

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln.
LONDON, July 14.—Mrs. Lincoln, wife of the American Minister, with her daughter, will leave London for her home in Chicago early in August. The Minister will not take his leave before November, and it is hinted that he will then resign his position.

The Value of Holigoland.
BERLIN, July 14.—Admiral Reinhold Werner declares the possession of Holigoland is more valuable than territory in Africa, because it renders the Spanish German North Sea almost impossible and shares Germany the keeping of a fleet there.

Arabs Starving.
LONDON, July 14.—Two thousand Arabs, men, women and children, are dying of starvation just outside of Suakin. To-day the Aborigines Protection Society issues an appeal for money to help the victims, but it is feared hundreds will be dead before succor can reach them.

Crops Damaged by Rain.
LONDON, July 14.—A fortnight of almost daily rain in England and equally unfavorable weather in many European districts has rendered the crop prospects anything but bright, and the price of wheat is advancing in every market, the holders being strong in their demands.

Crop Reports from Ireland.
LONDON, July 14.—An official report relative to crops in Ireland says the condition of potatoes is generally very fine. There are some signs of blight, however, in Limerick, Cork and Kerry counties. Oats and barley promise fine crops. Turnips are in good condition. The growth of wheat and corn is retarded.

The Newfoundland Trouble.
PARIS, July 14.—The Siecle, after stating that Sir William W. Mackinnon, the chief of the Newfoundland company, had been informed that the Newfoundland would admit the rights of France on the French shore, provided France will abandon the island of St. Pierre and Miquelon, declares that Mackinnon will never consent to anything of the kind.

The Potato Blight in Ireland.
LONDON, July 15.—There is no doubt that the potato disease has attacked the crop in south and west Ireland. The district most affected up to the present is the country round Skibbereen and Schull, where the blight is very severe.

An "Event" in Theatrical Circles.
LONDON, July 14.—An event in theatrical circles on last Saturday was the marriage of Florence Wood, only daughter of Mr. John Wood, to Ralph Robert Lunnell, the author of "Jack" and "The Editor of the Court Journal." The ceremony took place in St. Paul's, Knightsbridge, and was witnessed by the cream of London's artistic society.

Snow Storm.
VIENNA, July 14.—Snow covers the Central Alps and continues falling. In the district of Saizkammergut and the adjacent country everything has a wintry appearance. The rivers in the Southern Tyrol Alps have overflowed their banks. The Adige from Bosen downward has flooded the adjacent country.

The Battenberg Tour.
LONDON, July 14.—Prince Henry of Battenberg and his wife, Princess Beatrice, have started on a continental tour which is to last about two months. The fact is so remarkable that police society draws the inference that the Prince has again been making himself unpleasant with his royal mother-in-law, and the not less malicious reason assigned for the phenomenal amount of liberty accorded to the young couple is early next month and would prefer not to be a Battenberg upon that occasion.

Anniversary of the Fall of Babel.
PARIS, July 14.—The anniversary of the fall of Babel is being celebrated with great enthusiasm to-day. The city has a festive appearance and the streets are thronged with holiday-makers. One feature of the celebration was the march past of the statue of Strasbourg in the Place de la Concorde by a procession of members of a number of patriotic societies.

Mother and Boy Drowned.
GAINESVILLE, Fla., July 14.—Mrs. L. J. Gainesville, Florida, and her son, Miss Brown, were drowned yesterday while boating.

The Explosion at Chicago.
CHICAGO, Ill., July 13.—Last night another terrible explosion occurred on the freight steamer Toga that was wrecked Friday evening by an unexplained concussion in the hold. Fire again broke out, and raged fiercely for a time. It is feared the total loss will reach $150,000. Six more bodies were recovered to-day, making 19 so far.

Daring Robbery in Chicago.
CHICAGO, Ill., July 14.—The general offices of the Northern Pacific Express Company at 81 Dearborn street were entered by masked robbers at 11 o'clock Saturday night. After covering two clerks who were in charge with $8,000 and $10,000 and made good their escape.

Steamers Arrived.
POLISH, July 14.—Reported. From Polandian, Cape Magdalen, Liverpool, London, Glasgow, Montreal, Quebec, New York, and other ports.

A MUDDLING MINISTRY.

Complete Humiliation of the Salisbury Government.

Only One of Ten Important Bills Likely to Become Law.

How Stanley's Bride Was Dressed—The Princess of Wales Scores a Bullseye—An Event in Theatrical Circles—An Alpine Snow Storm.

The Faded Lily.
LONDON, July 14.—Mrs. Langtry is taking daily carriage drives. She is looking thin and pale after her long illness.

Stanley's State.
LONDON, July 14.—Mr. Stanley has not recovered from his recent indisposition and on Sunday was confined to his bed.

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln.
LONDON, July 14.—Mrs. Lincoln, wife of the American Minister, with her daughter, will leave London for her home in Chicago early in August. The Minister will not take his leave before November, and it is hinted that he will then resign his position.

The Value of Holigoland.
BERLIN, July 14.—Admiral Reinhold Werner declares the possession of Holigoland is more valuable than territory in Africa, because it renders the Spanish German North Sea almost impossible and shares Germany the keeping of a fleet there.

Arabs Starving.
LONDON, July 14.—Two thousand Arabs, men, women and children, are dying of starvation just outside of Suakin. To-day the Aborigines Protection Society issues an appeal for money to help the victims, but it is feared hundreds will be dead before succor can reach them.

Crops Damaged by Rain.
LONDON, July 14.—A fortnight of almost daily rain in England and equally unfavorable weather in many European districts has rendered the crop prospects anything but bright, and the price of wheat is advancing in every market, the holders being strong in their demands.

Crop Reports from Ireland.
LONDON, July 14.—An official report relative to crops in Ireland says the condition of potatoes is generally very fine. There are some signs of blight, however, in Limerick, Cork and Kerry counties. Oats and barley promise fine crops. Turnips are in good condition. The growth of wheat and corn is retarded.

The Newfoundland Trouble.
PARIS, July 14.—The Siecle, after stating that Sir William W. Mackinnon, the chief of the Newfoundland company, had been informed that the Newfoundland would admit the rights of France on the French shore, provided France will abandon the island of St. Pierre and Miquelon, declares that Mackinnon will never consent to anything of the kind.

The Potato Blight in Ireland.
LONDON, July 15.—There is no doubt that the potato disease has attacked the crop in south and west Ireland. The district most affected up to the present is the country round Skibbereen and Schull, where the blight is very severe.

An "Event" in Theatrical Circles.
LONDON, July 14.—An event in theatrical circles on last Saturday was the marriage of Florence Wood, only daughter of Mr. John Wood, to Ralph Robert Lunnell, the author of "Jack" and "The Editor of the Court Journal." The ceremony took place in St. Paul's, Knightsbridge, and was witnessed by the cream of London's artistic society.

Snow Storm.
VIENNA, July 14.—Snow covers the Central Alps and continues falling. In the district of Saizkammergut and the adjacent country everything has a wintry appearance. The rivers in the Southern Tyrol Alps have overflowed their banks. The Adige from Bosen downward has flooded the adjacent country.

The Battenberg Tour.
LONDON, July 14.—Prince Henry of Battenberg and his wife, Princess Beatrice, have started on a continental tour which is to last about two months. The fact is so remarkable that police society draws the inference that the Prince has again been making himself unpleasant with his royal mother-in-law, and the not less malicious reason assigned for the phenomenal amount of liberty accorded to the young couple is early next month and would prefer not to be a Battenberg upon that occasion.

Anniversary of the Fall of Babel.
PARIS, July 14.—The anniversary of the fall of Babel is being celebrated with great enthusiasm to-day. The city has a festive appearance and the streets are thronged with holiday-makers. One feature of the celebration was the march past of the statue of Strasbourg in the Place de la Concorde by a procession of members of a number of patriotic societies.

Mother and Boy Drowned.
GAINESVILLE, Fla., July 14.—Mrs. L. J. Gainesville, Florida, and her son, Miss Brown, were drowned yesterday while boating.

The Explosion at Chicago.
CHICAGO, Ill., July 13.—Last night another terrible explosion occurred on the freight steamer Toga that was wrecked Friday evening by an unexplained concussion in the hold. Fire again broke out, and raged fiercely for a time. It is feared the total loss will reach $150,000. Six more bodies were recovered to-day, making 19 so far.

Daring Robbery in Chicago.
CHICAGO, Ill., July 14.—The general offices of the Northern Pacific Express Company at 81 Dearborn street were entered by masked robbers at 11 o'clock Saturday night. After covering two clerks who were in charge with $8,000 and $10,000 and made good their escape.

Steamers Arrived.
POLISH, July 14.—Reported. From Polandian, Cape Magdalen, Liverpool, London, Glasgow, Montreal, Quebec, New York, and other ports.

A MUDDLING MINISTRY.

Complete Humiliation of the Salisbury Government.

Only One of Ten Important Bills Likely to Become Law.

How Stanley's Bride Was Dressed—The Princess of Wales Scores a Bullseye—An Event in Theatrical Circles—An Alpine Snow Storm.

The Faded Lily.
LONDON, July 14.—Mrs. Langtry is taking daily carriage drives. She is looking thin and pale after her long illness.

Stanley's State.
LONDON, July 14.—Mr. Stanley has not recovered from his recent indisposition and on Sunday was confined to his bed.

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln.
LONDON, July 14.—Mrs. Lincoln, wife of the American Minister, with her daughter, will leave London for her home in Chicago early in August. The Minister will not take his leave before November, and it is hinted that he will then resign his position.

The Value of Holigoland.
BERLIN, July 14.—Admiral Reinhold Werner declares the possession of Holigoland is more valuable than territory in Africa, because it renders the Spanish German North Sea almost impossible and shares Germany the keeping of a fleet there.

Arabs Starving.
LONDON, July 14.—Two thousand Arabs, men, women and children, are dying of starvation just outside of Suakin. To-day the Aborigines Protection Society issues an appeal for money to help the victims, but it is feared hundreds will be dead before succor can reach them.

Crops Damaged by Rain.
LONDON, July 14.—A fortnight of almost daily rain in England and equally unfavorable weather in many European districts has rendered the crop prospects anything but bright, and the price of wheat is advancing in every market, the holders being strong in their demands.

Crop Reports from Ireland.
LONDON, July 14.—An official report relative to crops in Ireland says the condition of potatoes is generally very fine. There are some signs of blight, however, in Limerick, Cork and Kerry counties. Oats and barley promise fine crops. Turnips are in good condition. The growth of wheat and corn is retarded.

The Newfoundland Trouble.
PARIS, July 14.—The Siecle, after stating that Sir William W. Mackinnon, the chief of the Newfoundland company, had been informed that the Newfoundland would admit the rights of France on the French shore, provided France will abandon the island of St. Pierre and Miquelon, declares that Mackinnon will never consent to anything of the kind.

The Potato Blight in Ireland.
LONDON, July 15.—There is no doubt that the potato disease has attacked the crop in south and west Ireland. The district most affected up to the present is the country round Skibbereen and Schull, where the blight is very severe.

An "Event" in Theatrical Circles.
LONDON, July 14.—An event in theatrical circles on last Saturday was the marriage of Florence Wood, only daughter of Mr. John Wood, to Ralph Robert Lunnell, the author of "Jack" and "The Editor of the Court Journal." The ceremony took place in St. Paul's, Knightsbridge, and was witnessed by the cream of London's artistic society.

Snow Storm.
VIENNA, July 14.—Snow covers the Central Alps and continues falling. In the district of Saizkammergut and the adjacent country everything has a wintry appearance. The rivers in the Southern Tyrol Alps have overflowed their banks. The Adige from Bosen downward has flooded the adjacent country.

The Battenberg Tour.
LONDON, July 14.—Prince Henry of Battenberg and his wife, Princess Beatrice, have started on a continental tour which is to last about two months. The fact is so remarkable that police society draws the inference that the Prince has again been making himself unpleasant with his royal mother-in-law, and the not less malicious reason assigned for the phenomenal amount of liberty accorded to the young couple is early next month and would prefer not to be a Battenberg upon that occasion.

Anniversary of the Fall of Babel.
PARIS, July 14.—The anniversary of the fall of Babel is being celebrated with great enthusiasm to-day. The city has a festive appearance and the streets are thronged with holiday-makers. One feature of the celebration was the march past of the statue of Strasbourg in the Place de la Concorde by a procession of members of a number of patriotic societies.

Mother and Boy Drowned.
GAINESVILLE, Fla., July 14.—Mrs. L. J. Gainesville, Florida, and her son, Miss Brown, were drowned yesterday while boating.

The Explosion at Chicago.
CHICAGO, Ill., July 13.—Last night another terrible explosion occurred on the freight steamer Toga that was wrecked Friday evening by an unexplained concussion in the hold. Fire again broke out, and raged fiercely for a time. It is feared the total loss will reach $150,000. Six more bodies were recovered to-day, making 19 so far.

Daring Robbery in Chicago.
CHICAGO, Ill., July 14.—The general offices of the Northern Pacific Express Company at 81 Dearborn street were entered by masked robbers at 11 o'clock Saturday night. After covering two clerks who were in charge with $8,000 and $10,000 and made good their escape.

Steamers Arrived.
POLISH, July 14.—Reported. From Polandian, Cape Magdalen, Liverpool, London, Glasgow, Montreal, Quebec, New York, and other ports.

A MUDDLING MINISTRY.

Complete Humiliation of the Salisbury Government.

Only One of Ten Important Bills Likely to Become Law.

How Stanley's Bride Was Dressed—The Princess of Wales Scores a Bullseye—An Event in Theatrical Circles—An Alpine Snow Storm.

The Faded Lily.
LONDON, July 14.—Mrs. Langtry is taking daily carriage drives. She is looking thin and pale after her long illness.

Stanley's State.
LONDON, July 14.—Mr. Stanley has not recovered from his recent indisposition and on Sunday was confined to his bed.

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln.
LONDON, July 14.—Mrs. Lincoln, wife of the American Minister, with her daughter, will leave London for her home in Chicago early in August. The Minister will not take his leave before November, and it is hinted that he will then resign his position.

The Value of Holigoland.
BERLIN, July 14.—Admiral Reinhold Werner declares the possession of Holigoland is more valuable than territory in Africa, because it renders the Spanish German North Sea almost impossible and shares Germany the keeping of a fleet there.

Arabs Starving.
LONDON, July 14.—Two thousand Arabs, men, women and children, are dying of starvation just outside of Suakin. To-day the Aborigines Protection Society issues an appeal for money to help the victims, but it is feared hundreds will be dead before succor can reach them.

Crops Damaged by Rain.
LONDON, July 14.—A fortnight of almost daily rain in England and equally unfavorable weather in many European districts has rendered the crop prospects anything but bright, and the price of wheat is advancing in every market, the holders being strong in their demands.

Crop Reports from Ireland.
LONDON, July 14.—An official report relative to crops in Ireland says the condition of potatoes is generally very fine. There are some signs of blight, however, in Limerick, Cork and Kerry counties. Oats and barley promise fine crops. Turnips are in good condition. The growth of wheat and corn is retarded.

The Newfoundland Trouble.
PARIS, July 14.—The Siecle, after stating that Sir William W. Mackinnon, the chief of the Newfoundland company, had been informed that the Newfoundland would admit the rights of France on the French shore, provided France will abandon the island of St. Pierre and Miquelon, declares that Mackinnon will never consent to anything of the kind.

The Potato Blight in Ireland.
LONDON, July 15.—There is no doubt that the potato disease has attacked the crop in south and west Ireland. The district most affected up to the present is the country round Skibbereen and Schull, where the blight is very severe.

An "Event" in Theatrical Circles.
LONDON, July 14.—An event in theatrical circles on last Saturday was the marriage of Florence Wood, only daughter of Mr. John Wood, to Ralph Robert Lunnell, the author of "Jack" and "The Editor of the Court Journal." The ceremony took place in St. Paul's, Knightsbridge, and was witnessed by the cream of London's artistic society.

Snow Storm.
VIENNA, July 14.—Snow covers the Central Alps and continues falling. In the district of Saizkammergut and the adjacent country everything has a wintry appearance. The rivers in the Southern Tyrol Alps have overflowed their banks. The Adige from Bosen downward has flooded the adjacent country.

The Battenberg Tour.
LONDON, July 14.—Prince Henry of Battenberg and his wife, Princess Beatrice, have started on a continental tour which is to last about two months. The fact is so remarkable that police society draws the inference that the Prince has again been making himself unpleasant with his royal mother-in-law, and the not less malicious reason assigned for the phenomenal amount of liberty accorded to the young couple is early next month and would prefer not to be a Battenberg upon that occasion.

Anniversary of the Fall of Babel.
PARIS, July 14.—The anniversary of the fall of Babel is being celebrated with great enthusiasm to-day. The city has a festive appearance and the streets are thronged with holiday-makers. One feature of the celebration was the march past of the statue of Strasbourg in the Place de la Concorde by a procession of members of a number of patriotic societies.

Mother and Boy Drowned.
GAINESVILLE, Fla., July 14.—Mrs. L. J. Gainesville, Florida, and her son, Miss Brown, were drowned yesterday while boating.

The Explosion at Chicago.
CHICAGO, Ill., July 13.—Last night another terrible explosion occurred on the freight steamer Toga that was wrecked Friday evening by an unexplained concussion in the hold. Fire again broke out, and raged fiercely for a time. It is feared the total loss will reach $150,000. Six more bodies were recovered to-day, making 19 so far.

Daring Robbery in Chicago.
CHICAGO, Ill., July 14.—The general offices of the Northern Pacific Express Company at 81 Dearborn street were entered by masked robbers at 11 o'clock Saturday night. After covering two clerks who were in charge with $8,000 and $10,000 and made good their escape.

Steamers Arrived.
POLISH, July 14.—Reported. From Polandian, Cape Magdalen, Liverpool, London, Glasgow, Montreal, Quebec, New York, and other ports.

Upwards of Two Hundred Ex-cursionists Drowned.

Twelve to Fifteen Rowboats and Their Occupants Missing—Great Loss of Life Reported from Various Points.

St. Paul, Minn., July 13.—About 5 o'clock this afternoon clouds, which had been threatening a storm, began to collect over the region of Lake McCarron, two or three miles north of this city, soon taking on the rotary motion and the terrible appearance of the cyclone.

A young man drove in from Lake Coleman soon afterwards with the information that at least two persons had been killed and over 100 injured at that point.

When the cyclone struck the little lake a boat house was lifted up bodily and overturned in the water and about a boat load of persons was given similar