Putt. 50 cells 503 Flour-There is a firmer feeling, owing to Flour—There is a firmer feeling, owing to the higher prices asked by holders of wheat. Cars of straight roller, Toronto freights, are quoted now at $3 to $305. Manitoba flour is in good demand and steady. Millfeed in moderate demand and steady at $12 50 to $13 for cars of shorts, and $11 to $11 50 for bran west. Barley—There are not many large lots offering, the demand is fair and the market is steady, and 45c would probably be paid for a lot of extra No. 1 east. No. 1 is quoted at 43c, No. 2 at 38c outside and cars of feed were offered west at 29c.

Rye is scarce; there is a good demand for it, and the market is firm at 49c bid for cars outside. Putt, 59; calls, 593.

Chicago, Jan. 3.—Wheat has had a strong undertone today in face of the apathy among the bulks. Buying has been to cover shorts. There was a breath of war echoed in lower consols.

Clearances continue big, and if it keeps up there wont be any stocks at seaboard long before navigation opens. Cables firm. Argentine sent bad crop news. We think the market is getting in shape for an advance.

London, Jan. 3.—On the stock exchange at 3 p.m. today business was almost at a standstill, awaiting news from the Transvaal. Consols dropped to and "Kaffirs" were all down.

THE CHEESE TRADE. The better feeling in the cheese trade mentioned by us last week has become more emphatic, and the outlook is more encouraging, with considerably more business on the basis of 8c to 8 1-2c for summer goods, and at 83-4c to 9 1-4c for fall stock. Quite a lot of cheese will have to be secured for January shipment that had been previously contracted for, some placing the quantity that has been sold short at from 15,000 to 20,000 boxes, one lot of about 6,000 being reported sold at 43s for January shipment. Since our last report, about 10,000 to 12,000 boxes have changed hands, at prices ranging 8c to 8 1-2c for summer goods, and 8 3-4c to 9 1-4c for fall goods as to quality. There has been some inquiry from New York for States cheese in bond here; but the price offered was not in accordance with the views of holders, and nothing has so far come of it, but it would indicate that New York has none too many cheese when she is trying to buy in this market .-Montreal Trade Bulletin.

She was a aister of the late Geo. W. Kiely, president of the Toronto Street Railway Company, and of W. T. Kiely, of Goderich, who is well-known in financial circles. She was educated in the Sacred Hant control for cated in the Sacred Heart convent, New York, the most celebrated in America, and there showed her genius for music. She was a pianist of very considerable ability and won recognition for her proficiency in the art. -London policemen are nothing if not thorough. One of the finest suspected, from the manner in which the ice was melting, that a Dundas street merchant had mixed salt with the sawdust that he had spread on the sidewalk. But he needed proof and, kneeling upon the pavement, he calmly scraped together a little slush and tasted it. The next moment he was in the shop and almost before he was out the proprietor and his assistant, with visions of summons dancing before them, were hastily clearing off the ice and snow.

-Judge Mackenzie, of Sarnia, presided at the Division Court today. The docket was light. The case occupying half the time of the court was a garnishee suit for $100 against Robert Stanley, of this city, upon a judgment by David Ross, executor of the late Mary Morgan, of Warwick, against Henry Wallace. It arose out of the judgment for $300 recovered by Wallace against the city last October. Wallace got ment for $300 recovered by Wallace against the city last October. Wallace got his verdict paid within two days of the settlement and before it was payable by the terms of it. He paid his doctors and handed the balance of $200 to Stanley who is his brother-in-law and who claimed that Wallace was indebted to him for want greening and money least to him for rent groceries and money lent. The cross examination of Stanley, however, by Mr. Bartram, counsel for Ross, threw nature of the proceedings no better evidence could be produced against Stanley, Mr. Fisher appeared for the garnishee and called Wallace as a witness, but without removing the suspicious circumstances. His honor gave judgment against the garnishee for

SMOTHERED THE CHICKENS. Robert Clare, an elderly farmer, who attends the London market and sells poultry, figured in the only case of any interest at the Police Court this morning. He was charged by Inspector Sanders with cruelty to fowls. One Saturday about a month ago Clare came to the market with a number of live birds in a box, and on reaching the square began to exhibit them to purchasers. The box was very small, but the number of chickens in it was large; consequently when Inspector Sanders happened along he found that several had been smothered, and were lying dead in the bottom of the box. Clare admitted the offense, but as the complainant did not wish to have a fine imposed the case was marked "discharged." Similar offenders will not be so leniently dealt with by Mr. Sanders in the future. John Turner and John Finnegan pleaded guilty to vagrancy, and were allowed off on suspended sentence. Both men have been before the magistrate over twenty times. Robert Stanley, charged with breach of the bylaw, will be tried in a week. He is Curley, of the Knights of Pythias for the Dominion of Canada, instituted and set apart Western Star Court Calanthe, No. 2, with the most imposing ceremonies. There were present 28 charter members, wives, daughters and recommended lady friends of the order of the Knights of Pythias. An enjoyable time was spent during the process of the work, and the ladies seemed to be highly delighted. The following are the official statt: Mrs. James Fountain, chief princess; Mrs. John Stevenson, vice-princess; Mrs. Horace Duncan, keeper of records and seals; Mrs. Daniel Gales, mistress of finance; Mrs. Anderson, mistress of works; Mrs. Moses Branhan, mistress of arms; Mrs. Richard Jones, inner gatekeeper; Mrs. Henry Morehead, outer gatekeeper; Mrs. R. L. Holden, supreme representative; trustees, Mrs. J. Kelly, Mrs. Ennis, Mrs. A. Miller, Mrs. M. J. Churchman; board of directors, Daniel Gales, Rev. R. L. Holden, W. L. Berry and Frederick Long. The installation of the officers of the knights and the counts will take place during the instituting of the Grand Lodge in London, Jan. 30, 1896, at which time the public will be invited to be present.

Under New Management--C. C. Woods Retiring and J. C. Woods Assuming Control.

The new change will be of great advantage, consolidating under one head the purchasing of supplies for some twenty-two stores. Consolidation, placing large orders in the control of one man, is the key note, with ready cash and experience to close buying; and close buying means lower prices for the public. Mr. J. C. Woods, the present proprietor of Woods' Fair, comes with some twenty years' experience and a thorough knowledge of all the best centers on the globe to buy goods to the best advantage, and it is not boasting to say that greater advantages will result to the Fair by the present consolidation of all under one management, and that they will be in a still better position to serve the public at cheaper prices, Closed on Thursday and Friday-stocktaking. Will open on Saturday, Jan. 4. In stock-taking we find many broken lines, which we are anxious to close out. These goods we will offer at half their value.

JAMESON SHOT

After a Drum Head Court Martial-

Startling Report. London, Jan. 3-The Evening Standard this afternoon says it is rumored that Dr. Jameson was shot today after a drum head court martial.

JEALOUS OF BRITAIN.

the Transvaal Invasion.

Accuse Britain of Inspiring It-Unveiled Threats.

Paris, Jan. 3 .- Not one of the newspapers of this city minces words in commenting upon the invasion of the Transvaal territory by the filibustering expedition under Dr. Jameson. In spite of the statements made by the British Colonial Secretary, Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, and the assertions of the Governor of Cape Colony, the Premier of Cape Colony and the managing director of the British South Africa Company, alleged; to have removed aquantity of earth the Figaro insists that Dr. Jameson could not have acted as he did without having received orders to do so from Mr. Cecil Rhodes, the Premier of Cape Colony, who, in turn, according to the newspapers mentioned, was in communication with Eng land. The Figaro adds: "The English simply wish to do with the mines as a pickpocket does with one's purse and with the help of a well-organized hustle."

The Rappel remarks: "Germany, France and Russia are in accord. What will England do? Will she dare, with the United States already on her hands, to defy Europe with her insatiable rapacity and untenable claims and end by arousing a formidable coalition to which she will be compelled to humiliate herself?"

The Lanterne expresses this opinion: "Great Britain's contention that foreign powers have no right to intervene in the Transvaal, is nothing less than an applica-tion of Monroeism. Mr. Phodes wants to capture Delagoa Bay and thus nullify the conquest of Madagascar."

La Justice says: "Dr. Jameson's attempt at international fillbustering has inflicted one more defeat on the invading policy of the United Kingdom.' MUST STOP INVASION.

London, Jan. 3 .- It is reported that Dr. Jameson will be tried by court martial and that his followers will be released. The Black Watch Highlanders have been ordered to stop by force the advance of a second body of the British chartered company's troops into the Transvaal.
