On 'Change. Special to C. E. Turner, broker, Masonic Temple, from Kennett, Hopkins Company.

Chicago, Aug. 1.-The first five minutes on 'Change today, everybody wanted to sell wheat and those who did sell spent most of the session afterwards trying to get even on the day's work. Receipts were lighter, exports fairly good, country millers bought more freely, and Baltimore reported 14 loads taken for export. Cables were better than expected, and all around the news was rather favorable to holders, which had its effect in stimulating the shorts to cover. Should the news be encouraging tomorrow, there ought to be a further recovery from the sharp de-Receipts at Chicago for July were but 27 per cent as large as last year, and less than one-third the average for that month for the past six years. The situation is all right for a good rally if the fourteen loads taken for export is followed promptly by other engagements.

Corn and Oats-The bears who raided September corn early came to grief, as they have been doing recently. premium for cash grain over this option absorbs the available stock's and leaves a short at the mercy of manipulators. Oats dull, but firm.

Provisions were weak most of the session, rallying only on covering by the shorts.

The "Advertiser" Picnic.

Annual Outing of the Employes on Saturday.

▲ Large Crowd Expected - Citizens Invited.

As the annual picnic of the "Advertiser" employes will be held at Port Stanley tomorrow, the Saturday "Evening Advertiser" will be printed at an early hour in the morning and delivered to subscribers.

The "Advertiser" invites its thousands of readers to take a day off with the employes and spend it at the popular lakeside resort. Port Stanley was chosen as the place of the outing because of its convenience for all citizens. Present indications are that the weather will be fine, and that is all that is needed to make the crowd large and the picnic a success. The trains will leave the city at 10:05 a.m., and 2:25 p.m., and, returning, will leave Port Stanley at seasonable hours in the afternoon and evening. A programme of attractions, including a baseball match, has been arranged. Everything will be done for the comfort and accommodation of guests. The train service will be ample.

Come one, come all, and have a good time. Trains leave Port for home at 4:05 p.m., 7:25 p.m., and 10:10 p.m.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

-Henry C. Saunders has obtained a permit to erect a two-story brick veneer house on the corner of Bathurst and Talbot streets.

-The street railway company laid their rails this morning along Dundas street. The company will begin work as soon as the Barber company commences work on the pavement. The latter company is busy buying up materials.

-The London Conservatory of Music will commence the fall term, beginning Sept. 1, in new quarters, 374 Dundas street. The change will give twice the accommodation, which the demands of the conservatory require, as it is a growing institution.

-The work on the Springbank line is about half completed. The electric car will be taken off the London West line in a day or so and placed on that portion of the line aiready completed. London Westers will have a short experience again with horse cars. -Mayor Little asked Ald. O'Meara at Wednesday night's meeting of the Board of Works what he thought of the agreement between the city and the Barber Asphalt Company, when the contract had been read. "It's a tight one,"answered the aiderman,"and if they get out of that without doing what's right, it's not the fault of the council."

—It is probable that the choice of a name for the new Methodist Church, to succeed Queen's Avenue will lie between Victoria Park Church and Dufferin Avenue Church. "There is only one metropolis in the Province, and there can only be one Metropolitan Church," said a trustee this morning. Therefore he holds that the choice of metropolitan should be reconsidered.

-The London Amateur Opera Company held their second annual picnic Thursday at Wonderland, the attendance being large and the outing very enjoyable. A feature was the baseball match between sides picked from the company and named the Early Birds and the Gold Bugs respectively. The Gold Bugs won by a score of 16 to 12. Batteries for the Victors, Rossie and Short; for the vanquished, Irving and Strong. Miss Stevens umpired impartially and displayed a thorough knowledge of the rules. The base stealing of ex-Ald. Coo was brilliant. In the ladies' race, 100 yards, Miss Strong won first honors and Miss Cruickshank second. Other races were: Giants' race, 200 yards, 1, F. Irving; 2, Cecil Webbe. Committeemen's race, 1, W. C. Coo: 2, C. Webbe. After supper dancing was indulged in, the musical being rendered by the opera house orchestra. Medals were presented to Miss Ida Adams and Miss O'Mara for selling the largest number of tickets for the late performance. The company arrived home about midnight by steamer. Refreshments were served at Capt. Foster's pavilion.
