SUCCESSFUL SHOWS

Close of the Aylmer Exhibition-A Good Record.

EAST ELGIN. The last day of the East Elgin Agricultural Exhibition saw one of the largest crowds ever gathered together in Elgin county. It is said there were over 10,000 people on the grounds. The I. O. O. F. band of Aylmer, furnished fine music during the day. The management this year has been particularly energetic. To Mr. A. A. Leslie, president, and M. D. P. Price, secretary, much of the success of the exhibition is due. A special feature was the offer of a special prize for sprayed apples. The sports and amusements were excellent, and kept the large crowd in the best of humor. BAYHAM CENTRAL. The Bayham Central Fair was held at Straffordville on Wednesday. The aggregate of entries was up to the society's average, but a few of the stock classes were not filled. A large number of very fine horses were exhibited. The ladies' department showed no deterioration in either quality or quantity of the exhibits from the high standard set in other years, and their dainty handiwork was displayed to even better advantage than formerly. The gate receipts amounted to $102 85.

The society's membership is about 300. LAMBETH

ONLY SEVEN WIVES

Twenty-Three-Year-Old Harry Clair-All Appear Before the Grand Jury.

Rochester, Sept. 25.—A seventh wife of Harry Frank St. Clair, the bigamist, has been discovered in this city. The last wife was discovered by accident. Deputy Sheriff Pollock was in Ithaca looking up one of St. Clair's wives to subpoena her before the grand jury, and he got on the track of another. The clew led him back to this city. Hattle French, whose home is at the corner of Allen and Sophia streets, in this city, is the name of St. Clair's latest victim. She is 22 years of age, and extremely pretty. She knew nothing of St. Clair's matrimonial record when she became engaged to marry him. Like all the other marriages, this one was contracted in a hurry. St. Clair lived with her a short time and then deserted her. Every one of the seven wives went before the grand jury today when the case was called. Their stories were similar in almost all respects. St. Clair is only 23 years of age, and the marriages all took place within four years. He came to Rochester from Toronto, but gives Butte, Montana, as his home. The list of St. Clair's other wives has been given.

Probably their absence is but a slight misfortune, for they are mostly jerry-built, like London houses, but the stock exchange business is just as bad. Not since the months following the crisis of 1890 has there been such stagnation as now exists all over our mar-The public simply refuses to deal, and what the jobbers and bankers occupy their time with is trying to shift load on another's back. In the process prices dwindle, and we are in danger of a crisis from inanition unless the cloud lifts soon. In short, until this wretched wrangle with the Boers is settled one way or another, our public cannot even be persuaded to buy. American railroad stocks.
