London Ball Team Loses to Saginaw-Racing Events at the Woodbine.

BASEBALL INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE. Grand Rapids.....

SAGINAW DID THE TRICK. The unexpected has happened, and The unexpected has happened, and the glorious uncertainty of the game has again been demonstrated. The Saginaw aggregation of ball-tossers, who were easily turned down in two games on Thursday, ran up against the home team in great style on Sathanana the same of the same statement of t urday, and at the end of the game the score stood 13 to 3, with London hug-ging the small end of the tally. There was a good crowd of fans in attendance, and the weather was beautiful. The visitors started in as if they were the best men and couldn't miss the ball if they were paid to. They hammered Seiver, the local slabartist, all over the patch, and in the second in-ning had a lead of four runs. The locals died with great ease in the first two innings, and in the third scored one tally, and things looked good for a couple more, when Mohler flew out to short and Seiver was doubled at first. The visitors kept their batting gait up, and dropped on Seiver with many heavy thuds, and it is safe to say that a number of the London fielders lost considerable in weight from chasing the ball. Twenty-two hits, and most of them to the outfield—that's the figures that tell the story of London's awful slaughter. The Saginaws piled up the runs by twos and threes, until in the eight inning the score stood 13 to 3 in the visitors' favor. Robb pitched a great game for the Saginaws, and got the snappiest kind of support. The six bits secured off of support. The six hits secured off his delivery were well scattered. The visitors are the strongest team that have played here this season. In the seventh inning it looked as if the locals were going to open up and tally a few. Jones drove the ball to center a few. Jones drove the ball to center and went to second. Radcliffe followed with a triple, scoring Jones; Cope secured a pass and Pickard singled. Schontzke missed an easy one, leaving the bases filled. Things looked good for several runs, with only one man gone, but Mohler popped to Fehler, and Lohman did the same thing to Guise, and the agony ended. The Guise, and the agony ended.

Hamilton, May 26.—Better ball than Grand Rapids and Hamilton put up today was never seen here. Pitchers Freeland and Lindley were very effective. In the second, three good hits after two men were out, gave two runs, and two two-baggers gave one in the eighth. Grand Rapids got one in the sixth on a base on balls and a sacrifice. The wisitors might have made things interesting in the ninth. Birmingham opened with a single; Gleason went out, and Holly made a fine three-bagger, but Birmingham got caught nap-ping at first before the three-bagger came. Score:

Chatham, Ont., May 26. - Today's game between Port Huron and Chatham was remarkable for run-getting, and the pounding of 15 hits by both sides. Chatham started it, and during the third inning the home team registered 12 runs. Hale, in the fifth inning, was permitted to stay on the bench for the balance of the game, and Thompson finished. No more runs were scored by the visitors, but Chatham managed to score five more, and during the game succeeded in finding Barrett safely for 15 hits and 17 runs. There was a reg-ular merry-go-round in the third. Um-pire Smith succeeded in raising the dander of Manager Flaherty, and Flaherty managed to elevate the umpire in a way that to say the least was not gentlemanly. It looked as if there was going to be a scrimmage, with Smith as leading man, but matters cooled down, and Chatham won out, though the score was a tie in the fifth. It is a very serious question whether Chatham will again play under Smith's umpiring. Port Huronites are disgusted, and certainly the Saginaw club was much disappointed in his work. The time has arrived when a firm umpire is required; the players seem to run things in their own way under Smith's umpiring. Score by innings: R. H. E. TIONAL Grand Rapids, Mich., May 27 .- Only 400 people turned out to the game to-day, although it was a glorious Sun-day, and one on which the old Western League team would have drawn 3,000. The day was a good test for the popularity of international ball, because if the fans would not go on a day like today they never will. Manager Mitts hopes, however, to get them into line as the season grows older, and he pluckily says he will give them an article of ball which will draw them. The home team won easily today through the inability of the visitors to hit Hagerman. The score by innings:

Port Huron, Mich., May 27 .- The expected clash over Sunday baseball did not materialize today owing to the grounds being too wet to permit of playing. The Hamilton players arrived this noon, but as it had rained nearly all morning, the game was declared off without the teams going to the grounds.

> TURF. THE TORONTO CUP.

Toronto, Ont., May 26.-Wm, Henappearance of the season in the To-ronto cup, the feature event of the card at Woodbine Park this afternoon. From his showing today . Martimas 6:45 sharp. The following are the looks to be a much-improve horse over last year. He ran a good race and in a fighting finish won by a neck from Procession. Ballard, who was up on the Hendrie horse, rode a weiljudged race. Although he made his own pace. Martimas was kept well within himself by his rider, who heid something in reserve for a final effort at the end. The race was for 3-yearolds and upward, at a mile and a furlong, and seven of the thirteen carded accepted the issue. Martimas carried 129, and was conceding weight to everything in the race. He was always the choice, and was well played by his stable. When the flag fell he quickly shot to the front, but before he had gone a sixteenth he was joined by Alice Farley. The pair ran head and head down the back stretch until rounding the far turn, when the mare dropped back, beaten. Turing into the stretch, Martimas had a clear lead of a length and a half, and looked like an easy winner. Procession, which Lewis had gradually worked up to the leaders, made his run in the last eighth. Under a vigorous ride he got to Martimas at the sixteenth pole, but hung there and could not get his hung there, and could not get his nose ahead of Ballard's mount. Ballard also won on The Provost, with Lewis on the one that got the place. The third day's racing at the Woodbine attracted a big Saturday crowd. Following is the summary: First race, Grand Stand purse, $400, for 3-year-olds, 6 furlongs—Cobourg, for 3-year-olds, 6 furlongs—Cobourg, 110 (H. London, May 28.—Seldom has Derby week opened with so much uncertainty regarding the race which, it is now admitted, is unusually open. The Prince of Wales' Diamond Jubilee remains the favorite, but only by a narrow margin. Forfarshire, Chevening and Disguise II. have plenty of backers. Mr. James R. Keene's horse, Disguise II., will be ridden by Tod Sloan. The only other American jockey taking part is L. Reiff, who rides Bona Rosa. There will be about 12 starters. Lord William Beresfore is receiving much sympathy on the probable inability of Democrat to run, owing to the horse's bad form. None of the horses competing is regarded as up to the general Derby standard, but everything points to a close race and a brilliant attendance.

Thursday, Bargain Day.

Where you find a house setting the pace, wherever located, imitated by competitors, always abreast of the times, and march of progress stamped on all their efforts, you must conclude that there is a reason for it.

The various branches established by the firm from time to time, viz:-Hamilton, London, Owen Sound, Peterboro and Brantford—are all setting the pace in their respective locali-ties. The business was founded on sound, honest principles that have lived and prospered, despite times of adversity, for over half a hundred years.

One price, plain figures, your money refunded if not satisfactory, honest representation—these, and the fact that they are the only firm selling direct from the factory to the wearer of the garment, saving their customers the large profits exacted by the "middlemen," have combined to make them today the foremost in their line in Canada, and consequently the envy of competitors.

After you have considered the advantages we have over all competitors in our line, come and see us on Thursday, our "Bargain Day," and you will have an opportunity of securing as good a suit of All-Wool Tweed or Serge as ever graced a custom tailor's shears.
