WEEKLY REVIEW. The attendance at the market here during the past week, with the exception of Saturday, was not up to the average for this season of the year. The interest taken by the farmers in the late elections, and the rainy weather of the past few days, no doubt had an effect on the attendance.

The supply of wheat has been light, with prices easier, at $1.36 to $1.38 per cwt. The favorable reports from European countries regarding the condition of the wheat crop and the favorable out-look in Canada and the United States, has caused an easier feeling in the trade. Deliveries of oats were fair, with prices firm. Several loads of choice oats sold as high as $1.40 per cwt. The ruling price is $1.36 to $1.38 per cwt.

Hay and Straw—The supply of hay has Hay and Straw—The supply of hay has not been as large as the previous week; about $5 loads offered; prices are easier, at $8 to $9 per ton. The prospect is for lower figures. Straw is in fair supply, at $6 per ton, or $3 50 by the load.

Butter and Eggs—Butter is pientiful, with a great improvement in the quality; crocks sell at 14c to 15c per lb, and pound rolls at 15c to 16c. Eggs are in good demand, at 12½c to 13c per dozen for crate and basket-lots.

Potatoes—The supply is medium, and prices are firm at 80c to 80c per bag.

Poultry—The supply has been light, with prices steady, at 85c to 80c per pair for dressed and 55c to 65c for live chickens; spring chickens, dressed, sell at 60c to 75c per pair; turkeys are easier, at 9c to 11c per lb, the latter price for small hen turkeys.

Raising Snails.

Snail raising for profit is the unique occupation of a California man, and his snail ranch at Los Angeles is supposed to be the only place in the Unitraised as an article of food. This odd industry is little more than a fad in this country, but in France the succulent escargot is in high favor with the gourmet, 800 tons of them being consumed last year in the city of Paris l alone.

A few years ago Mr. A. V. Pernot, of Los Angeles, a native of France, imported two dozen of the variety known as "escargot Bourgogne," and attempted to found a colony of the slimy and repulsive appearing creatures. He knew their food value, and he knew also that 'sirup d'escargots' is esteemed of benefit in the treatment of throat and lung affections. The variety imported is carnivorous, and they lived but a short time on the vegetable diet to which they were subjected.

Later Mr. Pernot received a consignment of the variety "escargot Bordelaise," which is herbivorous, and the success of his experiment has been phenomenal. The colony has increased so rapidly that in the breeding seasson the services of one man are required constantly in the care of the thousands of snails that crowd the confines of their pens.

Snail raising is beset with few difficulties. All that is needed is a small inclosure in a moist place, so protected that the crawling gasteropod cannot stray away with its shell-house on its back.

In the Los Angeles snaillery the pens are built under a large windmill-tank, where water is plentiful. Several long half feet in height, are arranged about an open space, and the tops are covhinges. Inside the boxes are numerous lengths of drain tile, in and upon which the snails cling in great numbers and in all stages of development The eggs of the onail, tiny in size abandoned in a season.

The snails are liveliest in the early norning. This is their feeding time, and they come out in myriads to receive a shower bath from a garden ose and to feast on the cabbage, lettuce and grape-vine leaves that comose their diet. They are voracious eaters, and when several thousand of them are eating the noise they make track of one, but the other three are with their horny jaws and cartilaginous tongue is not unlike the champing of a horse on its bit.

In their native haunts the snails are reat pests, resembling grasshoppers n their destructivity, and instances are cited where entire gardens of cabage and strawberries have been derastated in a night.—Chicago Tribune.

Suddenly an awful deafening roar was leard, and in a moment the torrent fell. From a height of 150 feet a great ball of fire descended, striking in front of a saloon and exploded. ### STRIKERS CLASH WITH POLICEMEN

Serious Rioting in Several Sections of Chicago.

STREET TRAFFIC WAS STOPPED

Policeman Slashed With a Razor-Broken Heads Numerous-Effect of Coal Strike Felt in Toronto.

Chicago, June 4 .- There were numerous fights between the policemen and those who sympathized with the striking teamsters yesterday. Street traffic was stopped, the police and employes of the packing companies were stoned, and at one place the police, 50 strong, under the command of Lieut, Collins, maddened by the numerous stones with which they had been pelted, drew their revolvers and charged full into the crowd.

When the fight was over there were a number of strikers needing surgical attention. None were dangerously injured, as far as known, however, and the wounded strikers were carried off by their friends. The fighting continued practically all afternoon in different parts of the city.

IN "LITTLE HELL." The most serious trouble of the day occurred in Crosby street, in the district which is known in police circles as "Little Hell." A detachment of policemen, under the command of Lieut. Collins was escorting a number of wagons loaded with meat to the distributing stations down town. A large crowd followed the wagons, shouting and jeering, and now and then throwing stones. The line of wagons escorted by the police was frequently stopped by other teamsters, who would pull across the street just in the proper place to prevent the meat wagons from making any pro-gress. The police would order the man away, and in a few minutes the per-formance would be repeated. Finally one teamster refused to pull his team out of the way, and the police placed him under arrest. In an instant a shower of stones and mud and sticks flew around and on the officers, bruising some of them bad-ly. Lieut. Collins ordered the march of the meat wagons to be stopped, and then charged the crowd, which refused to budge when the police came on.

WOMEN ASSIST. A large number of women came up to the aid of the strikers, and were the fiercest fighters of the lot. One officer was knocked down with a brick, and his mpanions then drew their clubs an made war with such energy that in a few minutes the street was filled with men with bleeding heads. As soon as the police started away the mob formed again, and though at a respectful distance, kept after the wagons until they nad reached the barns at Halstead and Division streets.

In this fight about a dozen officers were badly bruised, and nearly all of them had torn clothing. Many more of the mob were badly used up, but as they were all taken off by their friends it is impossible to give their number.

A TWO HOURS' FIGHT. When the barns were reached the anger of the crowd had reached fever heat. An attempt was made to cross Halstead street, but in less than a minute a blockade was formed, which it took two hours to release. Finally, after pushing and fighting for a long time, the police managed to get the wagons to the barns, and agen to get the wagons to the barns, and the doors were closed.

At night another serious fight took place at Twelfth and State streets.
Police Sergt. Mooney was badly slashed with a razor. During the fighting 38 prisoners were taken by the police and locked up.

locked up.

GOT A BROKEN BACK. In front of the stores of Irwin Bros. and Wagner, Winslow & Co., who use meat from the big packers, as the wagons were being unloaded, spectators and strike sympathizers began interferand strike sympathizers began interfer-ing with the non-union drivers. A mob-of nearly 2,000 people gathered. The police guarding the wagons could not preserve order. The two Irwin brothers seized axe handles, and with the police beat back the crowd. In the melee Isaac Bean was thrown down a stairway and his heak was broken his back was broken.

TWO MEN MAY DIE. In spite of the strikers and their riends, 33 wagonloads of meat were de-ivered from the stock yards to down-own stations. A score of policemen and rioters were injured and 50 persons placed under arrest. Two of the injured may die. To add to the burdens of the police 1,300 drivers and their helpers employed by the State street general retail mer-chandise stores went on a strike. EFFECT OF COAL STRIKE.
