CHURCHILL REALIZES LIFELONG AMBITION

Presentation of Budget Places Chancellor Second Highest in Government. Associated Press Despatch. London, April 29. - Winston Churchill, chancellor of the exchequer, in presenting his budget in the house of commons yesterday, fulfilled a lifelong ambition. He has crowded much into his brilliant and adventurous career. Less than six months ago he was what might be termed an "outcast" from parliament and seemed to have no political

But he returned to his original and traditional party allegiance, and now finds himself following in his equally famous father's footsteps, as he al-ways aspired to do, holding the highest place, with the exception of one in the government of his country.

His father, Lord Randolph Churchill, while holding the same office in the Salisbury government, quarreled with the prime minister on the ques-tion of retrenchment in the public services, especially the defence services, and resigned in an angry mood before ever he delivered his budget statement, and this resignation virtually ended his political career SOCIETY WOMEN USED TO AID REVOLUTIONISTS

Acted as Blind Messengers in Bulgarian Cities-Foreign Minister Threatened.

Associated Press Despatch. Rome, April 29.—Despatches received here from Sofia say the Bulgarian government has discovered 5-lb pail Lard $1.00 that the central committee of the revolutionists employed fashionable women, who had entree in the best social circles, as messengers to transmit code messages between revolutionary agents in various Bulgarian cities. A number of these alleged messengers were arrested. They did not deny the charges, but said they were not cognizant of the contents of the messages they carried. The advices added that the police frustrated an attempt to kill Foreign Minister Jailfoff, who had discovered a suspicious person near his The man resisted arrest and burled two bombs, which failed to explode. The marauder made his escape, firing numerous shots at the police who were endeavoring to capture
