SEES CONTINUED FLOW OF CAPITAL

Declares English People Would Tighten Bonds of Empire.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Montreal, Aug. 14.—Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, premier of Ontario, is convinced that in Great Britain there exists a sentiment that will ultimately express itself in tangible terms of financial investment and increased immigration to Canada.

Ontario premier reached here this evening, after having spent a considerable time in the old country, during which he took the opportunity of presenting Canada's opportunities to those who would be likely to take advantage of them and for the good of the dominion.

Mr. Ferguson found a desire among old country people for closer cooperation with the dominion.

"I spent five or six weeks in London purely in informal talks with business and financial leaders interested in the problem of empire development," said Mr. Ferguson.

"I discussed with them the future outlook for financial investment in this country and for desirable immigration, not only for Ontario but for the whole of Canada. While at the present time British trade is suffering under difficulties, the people are optimistic as to the future, and every businessman I came in contact with expressed the keenest interest in dominion affairs, and I think that in Britain more serious consideration is being given to our relationship than ever before. I look forward to a continued flow of capital here.

The situation is this, that as long as they can work, and they know they will get a pension when they get old, it will be difficult to wean them away from conditions of that kind. My own opinion is that we will see a more rapid development of the scheme of family settlement out here than in the past."

As to immigration, it must be said that one of the difficulties is the dearth of capital.

Mr. Ferguson said that he had been instructed by Mr. Stinchcombe to sell as follows: Small tables, walnut dining-room suite, rug 9'x12', bed, spring and mattress, chairs, cupboard, dresser, small table, Brantford electric water heater, tools, house, tools, hallrack, bedding, pictures, etc.
