THE SWEET SCENTED COUNTRY.

Oh, for a breath of the country,
For a whiff of the pure, sweet air,
For the scent of the woodland flowers
And the songs the birds sing there!

Why, the atmosphere is so dusty
That I'm all chocked up, I swear!
And the ripening grain and the flowers Don't appear to my smarting eyes, While the cattle are bunched 'neath a

Arthur W. White, of the White Engine Works, was the victim of an accident one day last week which will necessitate his confinement to the house for some time. He had one of his legs severely crushed by some machinery. There was a little excitement and nearly a runaway at the corner of Dundas and Richmond streets a few minutes before 11 o'clock Sunday morning. Mayor Little was driving in to church, when one of the horses slipped on a rail and fell to the pavement. The other horse, a very spirited animal, became frightened and tried to run away. It succeeded in pulling the front wheel of the buggy on its fallen mate, but did no further damage, as P. C. Birrell brought it to a standstill. Several bystanders lent a hand, got the team righted, and let the Mayor proceed.

At 7.30 p. m. Grand Vespers was sung, followed by a sermon on the Blessed Virgin, by the Bishop, and solemn benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The church was crowded on both occasions, and the services were of a most impressive order.

In the course of the evening Mr. H. J. Brown, superintendent, read a very neat address, expressive of the kindly feeling and good will entertained towards Mr. De Potie, also of the high appreciation of his past faithful services in the school, after which Miss Rebekah Sharpe, secretary, on behalf of the school, presented Mr. Depotie with a handsomely-bound teachers' Bible. Mr. De Potie, although completely taken by surprise, made a very suitable reply. Social intercourse, refreshments, etc., helped to pass away what proved to be a very enjoyable evening, not soon to be forgotten.
