Den't You Ever De It.

Don't pay two or three prices for life instance, any more than you would for a real of flour. The slick agent may declare and by, with big interest added, but never an mind. Would you pay $15 per barrel for our now, simply because your grocer might free to supply you at $5 in the distant future? O, you wouldn't, and your discretion should a similarly exercised in life insurance. Get and get it right, but don't pay too much for a splendid lot of fine All-Wool Blankets and English Down Comforters to be cleared out at reduced prices on easy payments outly guaranteed, at less than half the usual lost. 9326 Feet Yet For Sale

In two blocks every lot has been sold, and they were not sold by the block as some people say.

Why Have the Public Purchased so Freely?

BECAUSE:

1st. Finer building lots were never offered for sale in Toronto.

2nd. We are offering these fine lots at very low prices so that any one can procure a desirable homestead. In a short time the prices will be double.

3rd. Having the best possible article to sell at the lowest possible price we take the best possible means of informing the pub-CUTTERS! lic of the fact. Consequently last Monday we made our announce, Den't fall to examine our Solid Comfort t'utters and Sleighs, all of the Latest Montreal Styles, at ment through the columns of The WM. DIKON'S. World.

Genuine scales, all marked, WILL C. ROOD, Inventor. Taught by MISS E. CHUBB, Sole Agent for Ontario, 179 King street west. The growth of Toronto for the past fourteen years has been phenomenal. In 1871 the assessed value of her realty was $22,037,470; in 1885, $60,255,167, exclusive of several millions of overflow in the suburbs. In 1871 her population numbered 56,920; in 1885, including that of the suburbs, it is estimated at 130,000. The prospects of rapid growth were never so bright as they are at present. During the next fourteen years our population will probably reach a quarter of a million. Where will these people find homes?

We shall continue for a short time our very low prices with very easy terms of payment. A few hundred dollars invested now will in a little while yield many fold. For further particulars please apply at our office.
