

The GREAT INDUSTRIAL FAIR & AGRICULTURAL EXPOSITION TO BE HELD AT TORONTO FROM THE 9th to 21st SEPTEMBER. TO BE GREATER AND BETTER THAN EVER.

VIEW OF THE GROUNDS AND BUILDINGS.

There is, perhaps, not a city on this continent that has made more rapid progress during the past 10 years than the City of Toronto. During that period it has advanced in population from thirty thousand in 1870 to one hundred and eighty thousand in 1929, showing an average increase of ten thousand a year, and the present city still continues the forward march.

The Agricultural and Industrial Exhibition has been the foremost of the progress. Phenomenal as its progress has been, the success which has attended the first Agricultural and Industrial Exhibition, held in 1879, has been equally so during the same period, having reached a point in magnitude and importance far beyond the most sanguine anticipations of its promoters.

The buildings in the Toronto Fair Grounds cover a large area of ground, unequalled anywhere else in Canada, and the Association is expanding over $200,000 now in providing additional accommodation to meet the constantly growing requirements of the Exhibition.
