

packs to the trail on the other side, about one and a half miles. Our desires not lying in that direction we canoe, but fairly well-shaped and decidedly serviceable. Our Indian cook, Jimmy, came with us to cap-

AN INDIAN BRIDGE NEAR BEAR LAKE.

paid off our pack train and hired canoes—cottonwood dug-outs—not to be compared with the coast cedar tain one canoe, and twelve miles up the lake we hired two more guides, Teegu and Hansen. Hansen was a

THE GUIDES TEEGU AND HANSEN, AT DRIFTWOOD RIVER.