

Lesson II. THE JOURNEY TO EMMAUS—EASTER LESSON April 12, 1914

LESSON SETTING—The events of the Lesson took place in the afternoon of our Lord's resurrection day.
GOLDEN TEXT—It was Christ Jesus that died, yea rather, that was raised from the dead.—Romans 8 : 34 (Rev. Ver.).

Memorize vs. 31, 32. THE LESSON PASSAGE—Luke 24 : 13-35.

13 And, behold, two of them<sup>1</sup> went that<sup>2</sup> same day, to a village<sup>3</sup> called Emmaus, which was<sup>4</sup> from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs.

14 And they<sup>5</sup> talked together of all these things which had happened.

15 And it came to pass, <sup>6</sup>that, while they communed<sup>7</sup> together and reasoned, Jesus himself drew near, and went with them.

16 But their eyes were holden that they should not know him.

17 And he said unto them, What<sup>8</sup> manner of communications are these that ye have one<sup>9</sup> to another, as ye<sup>10</sup> walk, and are sad?

18 And<sup>11</sup> the one of them, <sup>12</sup>whose name was Cleopas, answering said unto him, <sup>13</sup>Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and <sup>14</sup>hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days?

19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, <sup>20</sup>Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, which was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people:

20 And how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him<sup>21</sup> to be condemned to death, and <sup>22</sup>have crucified him.

21 But we<sup>23</sup> trusted that it had been he which should have redeemed Israel: and beside all this, <sup>24</sup>to day is the third day since these things<sup>25</sup> were done.

22 Yea, and certain women <sup>26</sup>also of our company <sup>27</sup>made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre:

23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive.

Revised Version—<sup>1</sup> were going; <sup>2</sup> very day; <sup>3</sup> named; <sup>4</sup> threescore furlongs from Jerusalem; <sup>5</sup> communed with each other of all; <sup>6</sup> Omit that; <sup>7</sup> and questioned together, that Jesus; <sup>8</sup> Omit manner of; <sup>9</sup> with; <sup>10</sup> walk? ## THE LESSON EXPLAINED

I. THE STRANGE COMPANION.—13-15. Two of them; not of the eleven apostles (v. 33), but of the other disciples. Emmaus. The site of this village is uncertain. It probably lay to the northwest of Jerusalem. (See Geography Lesson.) Threescore furlongs; 7½ miles. Communed (Rev. Ver.); talked together. All these things; the death of Jesus and all that had taken place since. Questioned (Rev. Ver.). They were deeply perplexed, not understanding how Jesus could claim to be the Messiah and have so great power, and yet die a shameful death on the cross. Jesus . . . drew near; having overtaken them, since He came from Jerusalem, v. 18.

16-18. Eyes were holden; prevented from recognizing Him, because they were not expecting to see Him and because He had greatly changed in appearance since His rising again. What . . . communications are these, etc.; literally, "what are these words which you are exchanging ('throwing back and forth')?" Cleopas. Nothing more is known of this man. Dost thou alone sojourn . . . (Rev.

24 And certain of them<sup>25</sup> which were with us went to the <sup>26</sup>sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said; but him they saw not.

25 <sup>27</sup>Then he said unto them, O <sup>28</sup>fools, and slow of heart to believe <sup>29</sup>all that the prophets have spoken: <sup>30</sup>Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 And beginning<sup>31</sup> at Moyses and <sup>32</sup>all the prophets, he <sup>33</sup>expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

28 And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they<sup>34</sup> went: and he made as though he would <sup>35</sup>have gone further.

29 <sup>36</sup>But they constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is <sup>37</sup>far spent. And he went in to <sup>38</sup>tarry with them.

30 And it came to pass, <sup>39</sup>as he sat at meat with them, he took <sup>40</sup>bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them.

31 And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight.

32 And they said one to another, <sup>41</sup>Did not our heart <sup>42</sup>burn within us, while he <sup>43</sup>talked with us by the way, <sup>44</sup>and while he opened to us the scriptures?

33 And they rose up <sup>45</sup>the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them,

34 Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon.

35 And they<sup>46</sup> told what things were done in the way, and how he was known of them in <sup>47</sup>breaking of <sup>48</sup>bread.

Ver.)? "Art thou a solitary stranger?" Surely if He had talked with any one He would have known the wonderful things which had happened.

19-24. A prophet; one who speaks for God. Chief priests; mentioned first because they had taken the lead in bringing about the death of Jesus.
