

In the Presbytery of Lanark and Renfrew, where his present charge is, Mr. Currie is an active worker. From the time of his settlement he has taken a deep interest in every department of Presbytery work. This can readily be appreciated by those who attended the "Re-Union and Institute," and who heard how intelligently he spoke on the subjects under discussion.

Two congregations pressed their claims to have Mr. George Weir, B.A., as their Pastor. One in the West offering a large salary and a comfortable manse ; the other, in the Presbytery of Glengarry, much smaller and with inferior advantages along many lines. Still Mr. Weir felt it his duty to accept the latter. At a meeting of the Glengarry Presbytery held in Avonmore on Dec. 27th, Mr. Weir was ordained, and inducted into the pastoral charge of the Avonmore congregation. We were not surprised to hear that his answering of all questions put to him by the Presbytery was highly satisfactory, for Mr. Weir is a thorough-going man. It was always his aim to have his work up well while in college. Mr. Weir never was a man for doing things by halves, and this excellent quality is seen in his new work. Just two days after his induction, knowing that the heavy duties there could be better performed by two than by one ; that more could be accomplished, and that with greater comfort, he decided to bring in a helper. On Dec. 29 Mr. Weir was married to Miss Flora McIntosh. Miss McIntosh is well known to a large circle of friends as a talented lady and a devoted Christian worker. We will look forward for good results from their united efforts in behalf of the work in Avonmore.

By a remarkable coincidence, two brothers, graduates of this College, met in Montreal on Jan. 13th. One returning, on furlough, from Foreign Mission Work in Indore, India, and the other from Home Mission Work in Matawatchin, Ont.

About a year ago Rev. W. J. Jamieson was stricken down with typhoid fever. After some weeks of suspense his friends
