

SECTION II

For Cuba

The following routes may be operated by the designated airline or airlines of Cuba in either or both directions, at the discretion of each designated airline.

Points of Origin:	Any point or points in Cuba
Intermediate Points:	Any point or points
Points in Canada:	Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto
Points Beyond:	Any point or points

Notes:

1. Points in Canada may be served separately or in any combination. Any Intermediate and/or Beyond Points may be omitted.
2. All services shall originate or terminate in Cuba.
3. Points in Canada to be named may be changed on thirty days' notice, or such lesser notice as may be agreed by the aeronautical authorities of Canada.
4. Intransit and own stop-over rights shall be available at Intermediate Points and at Points in Canada en route to Points Beyond. Traffic between Cuba and Canada may be commingled with traffic between Cuba and Intermediate Points and between Cuba and Points Beyond.
5. No fifth freedom rights shall be available.
6. Subject to the regulatory requirements normally applied by the aeronautical authorities of Canada, in operating or holding out the agreed services, any designated airline of Cuba may enter into cooperative marketing or operational arrangements such as blocked-space or code-sharing with a designated airline of Canada provided that all airlines in such arrangements hold the underlying route rights.
