NEW ZEALAND

Capital: Wellington

GEODATA

Area 270.534 km<sup>2</sup>

Major languages English Maori

Major religious groups Anglican (29%), Presbyterian (18%), Roman Catholic (15%)

Surrounding country Australia

POLITICAL DATA

Type of government Constitutional monarchy

National legislature Single chamber: House of Representatives; multiparty

Leaders Governor General Sylvia Cartwright Prime Minister Helen Clark

ECONOMIC DATA

GDP $48.3 billion US (2001)

GDP growth rate 1.8% (2001)

GDP per capita $19,130 US (2001, PPP)

Main exports

Beef, fruit, fish, livestock, wool, dairy products, chemicals, forestry products, manufactured goods

Population

1.1% (2001 est.)

3.86 million (2001 est.)

Population growth rate

Main imports

Petroleum, machinery, motor vehicles, manufactured goods, animal and vegetable oils

Canadian imports from New Zealand

$523.6 million (2001), including meat (lamb), dairy products, albumins and glue, fruit and nuts, iron and steel, machinery

Canadian exports to New Zealand

$216.3 million (2001), including fertilizer, machinery, meat (beef), aerospace products, wood, cereals

Canadian Representative John Donaghy, High Commissioner, The Canadian High Commission 3rd Floor, 61 Molesworth Street, Thomdon, Wellington, New Zealand Phone: (011-64-4) 473-9577, Fax: (011-64-4) 471-2082, Web site: www.dfait-maeci.gc.ca/newzealand

Phil Goff

2.4% (2001 est.)

Unemployment rate 5.7% (June 2001)

Inflation rate

Minister of Foreign Affairs and Trade

UN Human Development Index (2002)

New Zealand ranks 19th among 173 countries