

time by Boards of Trade throughout Canada. Underlying most of these resolutions is the principle - with which I wholly concur - that private enterprise should be allowed the maximum freedom in developing our country. A corollary of this principle must be the willingness of private enterprise to risk capital in new fields. I know of no field which more neatly satisfies this condition than the industrial application of atomic energy.

---

S/A