

	PAGE
horsestealers—Outrages committed by the travellers—Indignation of Captain Bonneville.	140

CHAPTER XV.

Travellers' tales—Indian lurkers—Prognostics of Buckeye—Signs and portents—The medicine wolf—An alarm—An ambush—The captured provant—Triumph of Buckeye—Arrival of supplies—Grand carouse—Arrangements for the year—Captain Wyeth and his new levied band.	146
--	-----

CHAPTER XVI.

A voyage in a bull boat.	153
----------------------------------	-----

CHAPTER XVII.

Departure of Captain Bonneville for the Columbia—Advance of Captain Wyeth—Efforts to keep the lead—Hudson's Bay party—A junketing—A delectable beverage—Honey and alcohol—High carousing—The Canadian bon vivant —A cache—A rapid move—Captain Wyeth and his plans—his travelling companions—Buffalo hunting—More conviviality—An interruption.	175
--	-----

CHAPTER XVIII.

A rapid march—A cloud of dust—Wild horsemen—"High jinks"—Horseracing and rifle shooting—The game of hand—The fishing season—Mode of fishing—Table lands—Salmon fishers—The captain's visit to an Indian lodge—The Indian girl—The pocket mirror—Supper—Troubles of an evil conscience.	183
--	-----

CHAPTER XIX.

Outfit of a trapper—Risks to which he is subjected—Partnership of trappers—Enmity of Indians—Distant smoke—A country on fire—Gun creek—Grand Rond—Fine pastures—Perplexities in a smoky country—Conflagration of forests.	192
---	-----

CHAPTER XX.

The Skynses—their traffic—hunting—food—horses—A horserace—Devotional feeling of the Skynses, Nez Percés, and Flatheads—Prayers—Exhortations—A preacher on horseback—Effect of religion on the manners of the tribes—A new light.	199
--	-----