

By all odds THE BEST ROUTE is via the

THROUGH BONDED FREIGHT LINE

OF THE

Chicago and North-Western Railway.

This road starts from Chicago and runs in a direct line to St. Paul, Minn., where it connects in a Union Depot with the St. Paul and Pacific Railroad for St. Vincent where it connects with the Pembina Branch of

The Canada Pacific Railway

and forms the very best route and the only one over which you should ship your freight or send your passengers for Emerson, Winnipeg (Fort Garry) or any point in Manitoba or

The Red River Country.

The Great Western, Grand Trunk and Canada Southern Railways connect at Detroit with the Michigan Central Railroad which is the eastern connection of the Chicago and North-Western Railway, and any of these roads will contract to deliver your freight to the Chicago & North-Western Railway at Chicago. Consign your freight to the care of the Chicago & North-Western Railway and it will be given prompt despatch to its destination. For full information you can address
