

tion — Unsuccessful Attempt to land at Prescott — Going ashore at Windmill Point — Our Flag unfurled — A Naval Exploit — Supper at a Farm-House — Colonel Von Shoultz appointed Commander-in Chief,.....	Page. 41
--	-------------

CHAPTER V.

Approach of the British — Unprotected Females shot — BATTLE OF PRESCOTT — Hard Fighting — Deaths of Phillips, Brown, Butterfield, and Johnson — Capture of Daniel George and others — Wheelock and Finney wounded — A Stormy Night — Sufferings of the Wounded — The Dead on the Field of Battle — A Visit from Ogdensburgh — Attempt to remove the Wounded — An Escape — Armistice for burying the Dead — The Enemy reinforced — Their Compliments returned — Interference of U. S. Officers — The Surrender,.....	47
---	----

CHAPTER VI.

The March to Prescott — Tortures of the Wounded — The Passage to Kingston — Confinement in Fort Henry — The Names, Age, and Residence of the Heroes of Prescott — List of the Killed and Wounded — Loss of the Enemy — Money sent to the Prisoners by their Friends — Filthy Bread — Robbery — Style of Living — A Christmas Present — Trial and Execution of Von Shoultz — Incidents in his Romantic Career,.....	59
--	----

CHAPTER VII.

The Reign of Terror — Execution of several Prisoners — Comments of the Democratic Review on these hideous Murders — The Author's Trial — Anecdote of "Old Hicks" — Character of Sheriff McDonald — His Profanity — Uncommon Vigilance to prevent our Escape — Visits from our Friends — Private Money smuggled into the Prison — Six Breakfasts eaten by one Man — Pardon of a Portion of the Prisoners — Mrs. Skinner's Effort in my Behalf — A Visit from the Governor — Celebration of the Fourth of July in Prison,.....	72
--	----

CHAPTER VIII.

Removal from Fort Henry to Quebec — Embarkation on board the Ship Buffalo — An Account of the Battle of Windsor — Description of the Buffalo — Division of the Prisoners into Messes — Our Manner of Living — A Storm — Scheme to capture the Ship —
--	--