

When I think of my own native land,
 In a moment I seem to be there :
 But alas ! recollection at hand,
 Soon hurries me back to despair.

But the sea fowl has gone to her nest,
 The beast is laid down in his lair ;
 Even here is a season of rest,
 And I to my cavern repair.

There is mercy in every place
 And mercy (encouraging thought !)
 Gives even affliction a grace,
 And reconciles man to his lot.

COWPER.
