

and who was able to write from first hand information. The sketch showed the most painstaking and careful research, fine discrimination, and was a concise and comprehensive history of a fruitful work covering a period of one hundred years.

DR. TUPPER AND REV. S. MCCULLY.

After the reading of the historical sketch of the church an address was given on the subject: "Glimpses into the Lives of Rev. Samuel McCully and Charles Tupper D. D. by Mrs. Grace McLeod Rogers, M. A. This address clothed in beautiful and chaste language was not only a rich treat from a literary standpoint but gave evidence of such sympathetic insight into the lives of two of the great men of our church that the feeling was unanimous that it must have a place in the report of our Centennial Celebration.

This most inspiring of all the services of Centennial week was brought to a close with the singing of the old hymn "O God the Rock of Ages."

FRATERNAL SERVICE

Wednesday evening another large audience was present at the Centennial Fraternal Service. Pastor Stackhouse presided and on the platform with him and participating in the services were the Venerable Dr. Steele, Dr. Chapman and Rev. J. K. Bearisto, Rev. Anderson Rogers of St. Stephen's Church, Rev. E. H. Ramsay of Knox Church, Rev. H. Wigle of Trinity Methodist Church, Rev. L. S. Crandal, pastor of the Baptist Church, Oxford, Rev. A. L. Powell, Gaspereaux, and Rev. S. Walter Schurman, Lockport. Brief congratulatory addresses were given by all, and the general expression was of thankfulness and congratulation for the great work the Church has accomplished in its one hundred years its present prosperity and its future prospects. Special mention was made of the magnificent result of Sunday's appeal, when the total indebtedness of the Church was provided for. Letters were read from former pastors, Rev. W. E. Bates and Rev. S. W. Cummings, and from assistant pastors, Rev. G. O. Gates, D. D., Rev. J. Austin Huntley, Rev. A. F. Newcombe, Rev. Johnston L. Miner, Messrs Fred F. Foshay and George Keirstead and from Rev. G. W. Schurman and Dr. C. Eaton, all expressing their regrets that they were un-
