

52 VICTORIA.

CHAP. 29.

An Act to amend "The Copyright Act," Chapter sixty-two of the Revised Statutes.

[Assented to 2nd May, 1889.]

Note:—This Act is not in force in Canada, the Bill having been reserved, and the royal assent not having as yet been given.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. Sections 4 and 5 of R.S.C., c. 62, repealed; new sections.—Sections four and five of "The Copyright Act" are hereby repealed and the following substituted therefor:—

"4. Who may obtain copyright.—Any person domiciled in Canada or in any part of the British possessions, or any citizen of any country which has an International copyright treaty with the United Kingdom, in which Canada is included, who is the author of any book, map, chart or musical or literary composition, or of any original painting, drawing, statue, sculpture or photograph, or who invents, designs, etches, engraves or causes to be engraved, etched or made from his own design, any print or engraving, and the legal representatives of such person or citizen, shall have the sole and exclusive right and liberty of printing, reprinting, publishing, reproducing and vending such literary, scientific, musical or artistic works or compositions, in whole or in part, and of allowing translations to be printed or reprinted and sold of such literary works, from one language into other languages, for the term of twenty-eight years from the time of recording the copyright thereof in the manner and on the conditions, and subject to the restrictions hereinafter set forth.
