CANOE CLUB ARE CITY CHAMPIONS

Defeated T. R. & A. A. by Doubling the Score—Black and White Languid Except Heffernan.

Another surprise—but what's the use of a surprise when it's a foregone conclusion? So that when Toronto Canoe Club came out and trounced T. R. & A. A., O.H.A. champions, for the city championship on Saturday night by the score of 6 to 3, we never budged an inch, but took it calmly, as one more of those interesting results that crop up in the ordinary course of events. So confident were the champions that they were waging 2 to 1 on their chances, and felt perfectly safe at that.

No excuses were available, as it was evident to all who saw the struggle that the better team won, and by a long margin. And why? In the first place the paddlers were out to play hockey in an earnest and whole-hearted manner, with only one determination in mind, and that was a victory. That they did so is shown by the result both in score and team play. Tough combination and close, hard checking back were their strongest assets, and they utilized these all the way.

Only one excuse on reason was noted, and that was meekness, at centre. That his reputation was received more boosting after Saturday night's exhibition is certain. No one would like to call him a quitter after seeing him in other strenuous games, but that he managed to loaf in a district absolutely foreign to the puck was a real achievement of the evening. He was not sick or afflicted with anything except cold feet, for between rests he displayed his ice-like form for several seconds together.

Paddlers in Great Form.
The canoe squad were in gala form, and they had speed to spare. In the first half they had a light lunch, and rarely did the black-and-white forwards possess enough ginger to try to frustrate their competition. Naturally T. R. & A. A.'s defence had a busy session. The red-ringing boys kept coming like a torrent, and the result was that their opponents seemed to take all the life out of the T. R. & A. A. squad.

On the whole the game was one-sided to be called brilliant, although the last half was not far behind in comparison. The last half, however, was justice to the black and white, saw them all come to life except Meeking, and his aimless roaming was received with jeers by the crowd. Naturally, with the centre weak, there was always an outlet for the paddlers when in that quarters, and they usually found it.

The Stars.
Tommy Swan and Jack Gooch were the stars. Tommy worked like a trojan, and his two-hand shooting kept Addison on pins and needles all the time. Gooch was there with several end-to-end rushes, and he performed well on the defence. Heffernan, however, was very consistent and fed their team-mates well. Moore, Heffernan was the hero of the night, and he tore up and down the ice, but his team-mates lagged perceptibly, and rarely came to his assistance. Waugh and Gooch gave him a rough passage, and his rushes usually ended in a spill. Hunter kept himself well in a spill, and at any time Brown and McLean would have been hard to get on. He had an off night, and his listless clearing did not get him much sympathy when he failed altogether later in the evening.

This gives Toronto Canoe Club the city championship, and incidentally the Wilson Cup. All kinds of wise and otherwise sayings will be ventured to explain the result, but on the night, the best team won, and we're from Missoula.

First Half.—The game opened at 8.40 with both teams at full strength, but Rescor scored in 30 seconds with a shot of McKenzies skate. Gooch and Swan opened up several end-to-end rushes. Rescor got Addison napping again when he bulged the net with a long shot from the side. McLean replied Birrell. The paddlers exhibited some great shooting, and Addison was kept busy. The canoe boys began to come and broke away from their checks time after time. McLean was sent off by Birrell. Waugh was benched for tripping. McKenzies was benched for tripping. Birrell followed soon after for tripping. Brown, Dopp rushed up the side and passed to Gooch, who scored, making it 3 to 0, and things began to look black for T. R. & A. A. McLean replaced Birrell, but was sent to the fence early for putting Romeril over his knee. McKenzies followed his way to the goal mouth, but failed. T. R. & A. A. began to show signs of life, but the paddlers were equal to the occasion. McKenzies was sent off for tripping. Heffernan went up again, but Waugh saved a score by tripping him. The latter was benched. Birrell was hurt and Rescor went off to even up. The game was concluded with six men a side. McKenzies and Brown commanded again, and his time Brown secured a tally. Heffernan was sent off for tripping. Waugh and Swan battled in the puck while he was absent. Tommy secured the puck when Meeking missed a pass and the ice stood by and watched him score. Romeril worked so hard that they kept their opponents at bay long enough to allow them to return to the ice. Romeril shot from the side in seven minutes, and Addison let it slip thru between his skates. The shot was very easy. Meeking, after a prolonged rest, went up just before full-time, and added his name to the scoring column. Final score: T.C.C. 6, T.R. & A. 3.

The Teams.

Tecumsehs to Play New Glasgow in Boston

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., March 16.—Boston is to have a professional hockey series. The Tecumsehs of Toronto are to meet New Glasgow, N.S., at the Arena next Saturday, and the following Monday night for a purse stated as $2500. Tecumsehs are a member of the National Hockey Association, while the New Glasgow team is a product of the Maritime Hockey League. The Boston promoters witnessed a brace of the Canadian contests in New York early last week and scored them as being played too much on the "brotherly love" plan for reproduction in the Hub.

Sam Langford Wins

BRISBANE, Australia, March 17.—Sam Langford, the Boston heavyweight pugilist, today defeated Jim Barry of Chicago in the first round. This is the second time Barry has been beaten by Langford, their last fight occurring at Melbourne in May, 1912, when the men went 11 rounds.

Scotland Beats Ireland International Rugby

LONDON, March 16.—The Irish-Scottish international match at Dublin yesterday was keenly contested in a fight which Ireland did not deserve to lose. The Irish forwards played splendidly, continually attacking the Scottish goal, which McKnight endangered only ten minutes from the start. The Scottish defence began now to improve. Six minutes later Reid, completely outwitting the Irish backs, gave Scotland a lead before the interval. Reid's play was a masterpiece. McKnight aided another from corner. McKnight also scored for Ireland soon after. Fast play characterized the second half, when the Irishmen vainly made a desperate attempt to equalize. Rugby results:
Ireland.....5
Scotland.....5
Cheltenham.....5
Northern Union.....2
Barrow.....2
Bathurst.....2
Rochdale Hornets.....2
York.....2

NOTHING FOR ALL STARS.

BOSTON, March 15.—The Winnipeg All Stars were again defeated at the Boston Arena tonight, the Boston A.A. hockey seven shutting them out 5 to 0.

DISORDERLY WRESTLER GIBSON AT BOUT

Defeats Heavyweight Wrestler in Middleweight Final —Close of City Tournament.

The city wrestling championships were decided Saturday night mostly on close decisions. Only three of the grapplers were able to put down their men. Out of the eight bouts there were from falls and five won by decisions.

The first bout of the night was a semi-final in the 145-lb. class between Gibson of Kelo School and Brown of Brantford. It was a hard-fought battle, as both men were evenly matched and showed that they knew the game. They slipped from one bout to another, showing speed, and it was hard to say which man was the better. At the end of the time limit the referee could not give a decision and ordered an extra three minutes, at the end of which the decision was given to Gibson, as he had the most offensive work. This put Gibson into the final with Haynes of Varsity.

The great bout of the evening was in the 155-lb. class, between Lappanen of the Finnish Club and Rios of Buffalo. Both men were evenly matched, and Lappanen appeared to be the stronger of the two. Lappanen started with a rush, but the Buffalo boy was his equal. Time after time it seemed as if one or the other might be forced down, only to have them slip into another hold. Lappanen tried to get his favorite hold, the arm, but the Buffalo boy was too quick. Besides the two six-minute bouts and the three minutes, the men had to wrestle two extra periods of three minutes each, before a decision could be fairly given. Rios got the decision on having done the most offensive work. There is a possibility of Lappanen going to Buffalo when Buffalo Central Y.M.C.A. hold their tournament, and once more meeting the Buffalo man in a special match.

The other bouts were well contested. In the 125-lb. class Durnan and Sheldrake of Kelo School went the limit, Durnan getting the decision. The same with Walsh and Jacobs of C.Y.M.C.A. in the 135-lb. class. Both men were evenly matched, but failed to get a fall, although Walsh did his best to down Jacobs. The decision was given to Walsh.

In the 145-lb. class between Lappanen and Gibson of Kelo School, in the 145-lb. class, was quickly settled. Haynes started with a rush, and he had a hard bout in the semi-final, which, no doubt, handicapped him somewhat. In the heavyweight bout, between Lappanen and Sherwood of Buffalo, Lappanen came back strong, after his hard bout in the 135-lb. class, and seemed to have left no effect on him. He went after the big shot in great style. Both men were evenly matched, but put up a good bout. It was a hard bout while it lasted, but the referee decided in favor of Lappanen, and his shoulders were forced down. Time, 3 minutes 15 seconds.

The bout between Kaiser, C.Y.M.C.A., and McIntyre of W.E.Y.M.C.A. in the 165-lb. class, was soon ended by McIntyre, who was too strong for McIntyre and secured a fall in 1 minute 42 seconds.

Dube, the crowd buster, of C.Y.M.C.A., and Duguid of C.Y.M.C.A. went the limit. They provided much amusement to the spectators by their comic actions. Hood did most of the offensive work and won the decision.

Who will report direct to Macon are: Bradley, Shaw, Graham, Herbert, Kubat and Heame.

Kelley would not make any statement this afternoon concerning what action would be taken to fill Tim Jordan's shoes, but all important question will have to be dealt with thru the Toronto office.

105 lbs.—Kaiser, C.Y.M.C.A.; McIntyre, W.E.Y.M.C.A.; 2: Rymal, W.E.Y.M.C.A.

115 lbs.—R. M. Hood, C.Y.M.C.A.; 1: Duguid, C.Y.M.C.A.; 2: Post, Evans.

125 lbs.—A. Durnan, Kelo School; 1: Sheldrake, Kelo School; 2: Callum, unaffiliated.

135 lbs.—M. Walsh, C.Y.M.C.A.; 1: Jacobs, C.Y.M.C.A.; 2: Thomson, C.Y.M.C.A.

145 lbs.—Haynes, Varsity; 1: Gibson, Kelo School; 2: H. Adam, W. End; 3: 155 lbs.—Lappanen, Kelo School; 2: Rios, C.Y.M.C.A.; 3: Heavy—Lappanen, 1; Sherwood, Buffalo, 2.

WORLD WINS THREE IN UTILITIES LEAGUE

Double-Header Decided in Business Men's League—Templin Gossip.

In the Utilities League, at the Toronto Bowling Club Saturday night, The World won all three games from Toronto Typewriter, the leaders. Billy Beer whaled the pins for a 578 total, putting over 300 counts in his last two games, while Maurice Byrne of Typewriter, however, went the palm of the evening for individual work, the "Little Swede" attaining them for a 615 total, with twin counts of 202 in his first and second games, while this was topped off with a 211 count in the last encounter. Brydon was the only other big cluster, however, for the Lombard street team, with 555, while George Phillips and Harry Williams, for World, followed in order, with 546 and 538.

The Irish and Scotch will roll their own curling match at the Toronto Bowling Club tonight. Music, song and speech are also down on the bill.

There was a double-header rolled in the curling circle at the Toronto Bowling Club Saturday night, Estonia winning two out of three games from Northampton, 2 to 1. The curling also won the odd game from Swift Canadian Company. On the double-bill, Harry Williams, for World, won the first game, with 552, also annexing high single with a 224 count in the last game. Andy McIntyre of Lombard street, was second, with 550, while Jerry Dolan, for St. Charles, and another Indian of Irish descent, put over the third best cluster for the night, with 555. Nap Shaw, for Pointville, also rolled well in the last two games, putting in counts over the 500 mark and being robbed of a big total by a bad first game.

Labor Day—Ottawa at Peterboro; Guelph at Hamilton; St. Thomas at London; Berlin at Brantford.
Each club plays 101 games, but not the same number at home as abroad, owing to the difference in the population of the cities. With the teams pooling ten per cent of all gate receipts, the league expects this difference in the number of games at home is at least partially equalized.

The following umpires have been appointed: Jocko Halligan, Buffalo, last year with the Canadian, and formerly with the International; J. M. Daly, Rochester, a strongly recommended by Six O'Loughlin; R. McLoughlin, Buffalo, last year with the O. & P. R. M. Black, Camden, N.J., an old International League umpire.

Well, Sir Tom got in on a good lot of white paper, even if New York Yacht Club did not take kindly to the conditions of his challenge. Anyway, there has been a considerable movement in the general Irish knight over till it's time for the next deft.
