SYMPATHY FOR POLES
German Methods of Waging War Strongly Denounced in Duma

There has been few changes, M. Sazonoff said, in international relations since his last address to the duma. Then, combined action by the separate states had not been well organized, but now the forces of each state were being employed to the best advantage in striving for a common end. Sazonoff referred amid cheering to the participation of Italy in the war.

"These people," he said, "long have wished to free their fellow-countrymen from the foreign yoke. If the example of Italy had been followed by the other states it would have contributed to the speedy conclusion of the war."

Good Swedish Relations. "Recently there has been much talk of the state of mind of Sweden. Our sincere desire to maintain with her the best of neighborly relations is well known to need any confirmation from me. At the same time we are aware of the inevitable embarrassment caused to Swedish commerce through the country being situated in the midst of the belligerents. I content myself with placing on record the correctness with which the Swedish Government maintains her neutrality while safeguarding its national interests."

Anglo-Swedish Negotiations. "The Anglo-Swedish negotiations which are proceeding at Stockholm, while they are confined to business matters, have given proof of the undoubted desire on both sides to find a basis for agreement, and sincerely hope a successful conclusion will soon be reached."

Constantinople's Fall Near. Speaking of the situation on the Gallipoli peninsula, M. Sazonoff said: "The allies, with unshakable tenacity, see the approach of the longed-for moment when a close and direct bond will be established between the Turks, scattering the approaching storm, have overwhelmed the Christian peoples still in their power with the assistance of its co-religionists, which, however, have not broken their spirit for the Armenian volunteers are fighting with us."

"Persecutions no less terrible suffered by the local Greek populations cannot but excite the indignation of the Hellenic people and government. The latter will have to solve the question of the assistance of its co-religionists in Asia Minor without joining the powers who are fighting for right and justice. I do not doubt that in other countries will neutral, the government will be found fully in accord with their aspirations, their vital interests and their past."

The enthusiastic work already carried on by this regiment augurs well for the success of tonight's meeting, and a program has been arranged calculated to put life and patriotism and energy and willingness to go into the great crowd of young men who are expected to attend.

Dr. J. H. Gilmour, Dr. Forbes Godfrey, M.L.A., Captain Tom Wallace, M.P., and Dr. Tracey are among the prominent speakers to be heard. A good musical program will not be wanting. Donald MacGregor is in charge.

Recruiting sergeants will busy themselves everywhere, and Colonel Nichol and Hon. Col. Fraser will direct the work.

sity is joined with the general strategic situation."

Terrible Slaughter of Foes. GENEVA, Switzerland, Aug. 2, via Paris, 8.10 p.m.—The Geneva Tribune has published a despatch from its correspondent at Innsbruck, Austria, who says that to the east of Warsaw the Germans have ceased their attack but to the northwest the terrible fighting is still going on. The Russians are seeking to kill as many of their enemies as possible.

To the north of Lublin, since July 31, the Russians have been fighting a powerful rearward action. In this vicinity the Austrians have lost no fewer than 40,000 men during the past 48 hours. To the south of Chelm, the correspondent goes on to say, there have been constant counter-attacks and the Austrians have not advanced in this sector since last Saturday. To the east of Ivanograd the Austro-Germans have advanced a distance of 40 miles in the last four days.

Russians Not Defeated. LONDON, Aug. 2.—It is impossible to state exactly what is happening on the eastern front, as obscurity is the most pressing need of the Russian army, says the Petrograd correspondent of The Daily Mail, in regrouping and shifting its positions. The re-arrangement of forces is in the hands of Gen. Yamshnevic, chief of Grand Duke Nicholas's staff.

The capture of Warsaw has not yet been accomplished, according to The Telegraph, and the deliberate Russian withdrawal is an encouraging feature of the situation.

"The Russians have not yet been defeated, nor anything like it," says The Chronicle, which adds that the Russians are inflicting fearful losses on the attacking Germans.

Warsaw Half Deserted. WARSAW, July 31, via Petrograd and London, Aug. 2.—The intimation that the Vistula line was to be abandoned by the Russians, and the beginning of the removal of factories, government institutions and hospitals, are causing a panic among the Polish classes of the population of the Polish capital.

It was feared that the military authorities might deem the evacuation of the city by the inhabitants a military necessity, and would destroy a street in order to prevent its use by the Germans in case they should return.

Many wealthy residents left for the interior, and many of those who have remained in the city are fleeing out during the past fortnight. Stations and trains are overcrowded to discomfort, the number of passengers is increasing by the necessity of military precautions. The streets which generally are thronged, became deserted. The restaurants and hotels are empty. The French and Belgian consuls left the capital in the early days of their flight, turning over their affairs to the American consul.

CONTRACTOR KELLY LOSES LEGAL FIGHT

He Must Appear Before Commission if He Returns to Manitoba

VIRTUALLY FUGITIVE
Effort to Prove Mathers Board Unconstitutional Has Failed

WINNIPEG, Aug. 2.—The court of appeal at 2 o'clock this afternoon denied the motion by Edward Anderson, K.C., to reverse the decision of Judge Frenckenaag.

This means that Contractor Kelly must still remain away from Manitoba, or subject himself, if he returns, to forcible appearance before the Mathers Commission.

It means that Thomas Kelly in his fight to prove that the Mathers Commission is unconstitutional, has lost out in the two courts. He has one chance left—the privy council. Until that time Kelly will be practically a fugitive.

Edward Anderson, K.C., counsel for Kelly, stated that he would take the case to the privy council.

Powers to General. Judge Richards dissented in the verdict.

Chief Justice Howell, in reading the decision, said that the royal commission had power to compel witnesses to give evidence under oath, to compel witnesses to produce documents, to compel the revelation of all matters appertaining between the contractor and the government.

He said the Manitoba Inquiries Act was a strong act and gave ample powers. The chief justice said he did not see why any commission should be formed, unless it could compel witnesses to talk.

"If a commission cannot do this," he said, "the appointing of a commission is futile."

Three judges concurred in this decision—Chief Justice Howell, Judge Cameron and Justice Ferdue.

GERMAN LIBERALS WANT VIGOR IN WAR

Strong Censure of Kaiser's Government for Lack of Naval Activity

SEEK MILITARY PUNCH
Complaint of Suppressing Utterances for Force Devoid of All Sentiment

Special Cable to The Toronto World. ZURICH, Aug. 2.—Disappointed German Socialists no longer have a monopoly of attack on the government. The National Liberal party which has just held a meeting at Cologne criticizes the government in vigorous terms, but for absolutely opposite reasons to those which inspire the Socialists. The National Liberals declare that not enough energy is being spent on the war. A deputy, Bassermann, in a violent speech contended that the government showed a lack of confidence that is calculated to cause astonishment and anxiety.

He attacked Count Monts and Admiral Von Truppel because they had proposed an accord with America and expressed indignation that such proposals were approved in certain official circles. The distrust that this party felt was increased by the fact that leaders of the Socialist party had declared that they were supporters of the chancellor and his policy and had not been repudiated by him.

Want Vigorous Naval Policy. Bassermann expressed satisfaction at the collaboration of four great economic associations in Germany, two agricultural organizations and one agrarian party, declaring that the last named had shown great understanding of the needs of commerce and industry.

Other speakers demanded that military and naval operations be carried out on a still greater scale.

Deputy Bassermann, chief of the party, declared that this was not the time for reform of the Prussian electoral system. The spirit of Bismarck pervading the German people he declared to be wanting in certain spheres. The government which he said gives free rein to democratic sentiment and proposals for peace was suppressing utterances of the nationalists who demanded a policy of force, devoid of all sentiment.

Sensation Caused. As the National Liberal party is that of the wealthy industrial classes the not one of the peace government party, this violent attack on the chancellor's policy has caused a sensation and is proof that the Von Tirpitz partisans are getting the upper hand. As the party is against any concessions to the contractor and the government.

He said the Manitoba Inquiries Act was a strong act and gave ample powers. The chief justice said he did not see why any commission should be formed, unless it could compel witnesses to talk.

"If a commission cannot do this," he said, "the appointing of a commission is futile."

It was the biggest day this season for the ferries. If the weather for the earlier part of the summer has not been conducive to big numbers, the heat of the past few days is making up for the dull times. Yesterday was no exception, and it was an opportunity not to be missed by the thousands of citizens seeking a short water ride with the promise of splendid entertainment on arrival.

AMERICA ON THE SUBMARINE WARFARE

Its hostility to the government's policy will probably have considerable influence.

The Voestische Zeitung has published an article which is probably a footnote to the article which the government would not reply for some time to President Wilson's note, but the submarine warfare would be continued with increased energies.

May Not Reply. Professor Meyer, the well-known historian, writes that Germany has no need by any action of hers to strengthen President Wilson's position and need not trouble about what America thinks.

The Morgen Post declares that this attitude in itself constitutes a reply. The United Neueste Nachrichten maintains that the American note does not prohibit a reply, but need not necessarily receive one. Nevertheless the German Government may have something to propose. In any case, it is desirable that discussion in the press should continue. The Neueste Nachrichten thinks it would be well to reply in any case in order to rebut such of President Wilson's affirmations as are considered erroneous since silence might mean an admission that they were just.
