UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL.

THE OPINIONS OF PRESS.

This is a very useful monthly, containing reports of important law suses, and general information connected with the administration of causes, and goneral information connected with the administration of justice in Upper Canada. Although more particularly intended for the profession, yet every man of business may learn much from it that may be of real advantage to him. It has hither to been published in Harries, but will henceforth be in Toronto. We repole to see that Robert A. Harrieon, Esq. B. C. L., is to be connected with the journal. He is a young gentleman that has already highly distinguished humself in his profession, and with literary talents of no ordinary kind, he will prove to be of great advantage to the Law Journal.—Brampion Times.

We are pleased to notice that this able monthly is, for the future, to be edited and published in Toronto, and that Robert A. Harrison, Esq., B.U.L. is become a joint Editor. His accession to the editorial a all must R.U.L. is become a joint Relitor. His accession to the editorials all must prove to the profession to whom he is now so well known as the author of so many works in general use, no small gain. With Mr. Harrison is associated W D. Ardigh, Esq., who has for some time been favorably known as an Editor of the Journal. Notwithstanding the public caution of the Journal in Bartie, it has under the management of the Hon. James Patton acquired a very wide and extended circulation. Now that it is to be published in Toronto, it is reasonable to expect that its circulation will be increased. It is a paper which should be in the hands of every Judgo, Lawyer. Coroner, Magistrate, Clerk and Ballill in Upper Canada. We hope, however, that the conductors will see fit to widen the list of their exchanges and so increase the circle of their usefulness. It is a great mistake to suppose that Judges, Lawyers, Division Court Clerks, or Ballills are the sole persons interested in the administration of justice. The public at large have a deep interest in, and feel a lively synapathy with the sentiments of a writer who propounds measures of law reform calculated to advance the public good. No discussion however well attended upon subjects of legal interest, can be satisfactorily carried on by the lay press.

The public require by be informed not only as to the existence of an abuse which needs a remedy, but as to the nature of the remedy required. For such information the more proper and more predent course is to turn to the columns of a newspaper conducted by men whose whole lives and training peculiarly befit them for the expression of sound views. The number of the Journal before us which is that for August is replete with legal lore. The Editorial Department bears marked evidence of knowledge and ability.—Toronto Times.

Upper Canada Law Journal, edited by Messrs. Ardsgh and Harrison, The other of publication of the above excellent journal has been removed to Toronto. The Journal contains a variety of legal decisions and information interesting to schedure, conveyancers insurance spents, division court clerks and municipal offiers, which cannot be obtained elsewhere. Strafford Examiner.

We subjoin an article from the Law Journal, a legal periodical—indeed the only .no published in Uppper Canada—showing the immense pro-gress of the Dirision Courts.

This periodical, which is now published in Toronto, is conducted with much ability and is very useful to all having business in the Superior and Division Courts—Advance.

We have received the last three numbers of this able legal serial although from various causes we have laid them on one side. Neglect as not been the cause of this apparent indifference, but the very contrary. We wished for learned leisure to do them justice; and we have been favored with the assistance of a filted, abler than ourselves to give an opinion on the merits of a purely professional Journal From him we understand that the Journal is mainly chited by R. A. Harrison, Feq., B. C. L. Barrister-at-law, a gentleman whose name is a sufficient guarantee of its value and ability. He is well known as the joint compiler of Robinson's and Harrison's Direct, a work whose metits are familiarily known to all Canadian lawyers. His more recent work on the "Common Law and County Courts' Procedure Acts" will doubtless add to his professional reputation. fessional reputation.

The November number of the Law Journal contains some fereible observations on the present unsatisfactory condition of the Law of Dower. The remarks on the liability of Bank Shareholders are also deserving of attention—Ghourg Star.

The extensive usefulness of this Journal is not appreciated as generality as were desirable. It is not, as many omedie, useful alone to the lawyer and the Student. Men of business, bankers, the community will derive the greatest benefit from the persual of its pages. In a country such as ours where almost every individual we meet is either a plaintiff or de ours where almost every individual we meet is either a plaintiff or de fundant, it is a duty which a man owes to himself to learn something of the operation of the laws by which we abide and are governed. For this the Law Journal is of incalcuable service. To our young men we would especially recommend its careful and attentive sindy; and we undertake to warrant that after a few mentas they will obtain more business and legal knowledge than they could otherwise acquire from as many years study of the largest black letter tones. The Law Journal is presided over by Mr Harrison, of the Attorney General's Department—a gentleman of vailed and extensive erudition; and who i as thus far given evidence of a high order of ability which must rapidly command for him a foremest position in his profession. We wish the Law Journal every success.—Catholic Caticen.

Somewhere it has been said that to know a people thoroughly, it is necessary to study their laws—to ascertain how life and property are protected. This ably conducted Journal tells us how the laws enacted by government are administered in Upper Canda. It tells us—what everybody knows—that law is expensive, and it adds that cheap justice is a curse, the expense of the law being the price of liberty. Both assertions are certainly truisms, yet a litigious and quarrelsome spirit is not invariably the result of that combativeness which belongs to such not invariably the result of that combativeness which belongs to such men as those who, under any circumstances, and at whatever cost, will assert their rights. It is not our burpose to review the Journal, but to praise it; seeing that praise is deserved. The articles are well written, the reports of cases are interesting, and the general information is such, that the Journal ought not only to be read, but tudied by the members of the bar, the magletracy, the learned professions generally, and by the present by the merchant.

by the merchant. The Law Journal is beautifully printed on excellent paper, and, in-deed, equals in its typographical approximate, the legal record published in the metropolis of the United Kingdom. $4 a year is a very inconsiderable sum for so much valuable information as the Law Journal contains.—Part Hope Atlas.

We have to return our thanks to the conductors (or publishers, we do not know which, of this valuable publication for the present January number, together with an ample index for, and list of cases reported and cited in the second volume of these reports for the year 1856.

The ability with which this highly important and useful periodical is conducted by W. D. Ardugh and Robert A. Harrison, B. C. L., Esquires, Barristers at Law, reflects the greatest credit upon these gentlemen, and shows that the esteem in which they are held by their professional concrets and the public, is deservedly merited and nothing more than thay are ontitled to. We have much pleasure in earnestly recummending the members of the har for this section of the Province to support the Upper Canada Law Journal, by their subscriptions,—taking leave to assure them that it is well worthy of it, and that they will find it a valuable sequisition to their libraries as a legal work of reference and high auctionity. It is printed and published by Messra, blacker, Thomas & Co., of 16 King Street East, Toronto, and the typographical portion is very creditable to that firm.—Quebec Mercury.

The Upper Canada Law Jaurnal, and Local Carts Guette, is a publication of which the legal profession of the Province need not be ashamed. The Journal has greatly improved since the removal of the office of publication to Toronto. It is edited with ability by W.D. Ardagh, and it Alarrison, B.C. L., Barristersat Law. The January number, which is the first of the fourth volume, appears in a considerably enlarged form. Tha fourth volume will contain at least one-third more reading matter than its predecessor. A very important question, "Shall we have a Bankruptey Law" is discussed at length in a well written editorial in the January issue, to which we shall refer on a future occasion, "Liconse of Counsel," is an original article which probes barristers in many tender spots. The Law Journal's circulation should not be confined entirely to the legal profession—the Merchast, and general busness man would find it a very useful work. The price is $4 a year in advance, or $5 otherwise. Now is the time to send in orders.—Fort Hope Guide.

In its first number of the fourth volume this interesting and valuable publication comes to us highly improved in appearance. With a much wider range of editorial matter than formerly The Journal has entered upon a broader career of utility, grappling with the higher brauches of Liw, and lending the strength of a full, fresh intelligence, to the candication of some very grave wants in our civil code. The necessity of an equable and efficient "Bankruptcy L w" is discussed in an able article, instinct with a state and profound thought, coupled with much clear, subtle level discrimination.

instituct with astute and profound thought, coupled with much clear, subtie, legal discrimination.

It is the intention of the Proprietors to institute in the pages of the Journal a "Magnetar's Manual:"—provided that that body meet the project in the proper spi it, and contribute an adequate subscription list to warrant the undertaking. To prosecute the contemplation, could not fail to be productive of incalcuable advantage, as well to the community as to the Magistracy. We sincerely hope that his latter body will bestow a generous patronage, where so laudable an effort is made for their advantage. their advantage.

The Law Journal is presided over by W. D. Ardagh, and R. A. Harrison, B. C. L., Barristers at Law — It is a periodical that can proudly compare with any legal publication on this Continent. We wish it every success.

This Journal which is published monthly, appears this week much improved in sire, appearance and matter. It was formerly published in larrie, but has for some numbers tack been published in Toronto and has acquired aid in the edutorial staff by the addition of Mr. Harrison, who is well known in the profession from his numerous publications on legal subjects. Under the management of Mr. Anlagh and Mr. Harrison, legal subjects. Under the management of Mr. Anlagh and Mr. Harrison, this Journal promises fair to become an important publication, not merely to the legal profession, but to other important classes of the community, as particular attention is given to Municipal affairs, County Courts and Division Courts; Magiatrates duties also recrive a considerable share of consideration. It will contain original treatises and essays on law subjects, written expressly for the Journal, besides reports from the Superior Courts of Common Law and the Court of Chancery. Proper selections will also be made from English periodiculs. To the profession the reports from Chambers of decisions under the Common Law Procedure Acts, and the general practice, are of particular interest. These the Journal supplies, being formerly reported by Mr. P. Moore benson, and latterly by Mr. C. E. English, M. A. We would advise all municipal officers, Division Courts officers, Magistrates, and particularly the profession, to patronize this publication, as it cannot be sustained without their aid. The subscription is only $4 a year in advance.—

Louler.

The January number of this valuable Journal has come to hand, and is as usual replies with legal decisions, articles on connected law, &c., &c. We republish from this number, an able article on the subject of a Bankrupt Law for Canada.—Canadi:n Merchants' Magazine.
