Dublin.

With deep regret we aunounce this week the death of the Rev. John King, O.M.I., which occurred at the House of Retreat, Inchicore, on May 26th. Among the Catholic community generally, as well as the Order, regret at his demise will be universal. His services in connection with the Gloncreo Reformatory were beyond estimation. The Oblate Fathers have lust in him one who was an honor to their Order and an energetic laborer in the work of the Church.

A cable dispatch received in Dublin, on May 30th, from New Zealand contained the sad news of the death of Most Rev. Dr. Moran, Bishop of Dunedin, Otago. The deceased Prelate had been ailing for over two years, but the late exchanges seemed to indicate that his health was improving. The two years, but the late exchanges seemed to indicate that his health was improving. The and news put an end to the hopes that were entertained of his recovery. By his death the Church in New Zealand loses a characteristically zealous Irish Prelate. He was devoted heart and soul to the work of the church organization, and was one of the staunchest upholders in the colony of the Catholic case in education. Every effort of the Irishmen of New Zealand to assist the Irish National cause also had his heartiest support and sympathy.
