such officer to appear before two or more Justices at a time and place to be set forth in the Summons, to answer such charge; and upon appearance of such officer, or in his absence, upon proof that the Summons was personally served upon him, or left at his last known place of abode, the Justices may hear and determine the matter in a summary way, and may adjust and declare the balance owing by such officer; and if it appear either upon confession of such officer, or upon evidence, or upon inspection of the account, that any moneys of the Company are in the hands of such officer, or owing by him to the Company, the Justices may order such officer to pay the same; and if he fail to pay the amount, it shall be lawful for such Justices to grant a Warrant to levy the same by distress, or in default thereof to commit the offender to gaol, there to remain without bail for a period not exceeding two months unless the same be sooner paid.

XLIX. And be it enacted, That if any such officer shall refuse to make out an account in writing, or to produce and deliver to the Justices the several vouchers and receipts relating thereto, or to deliver up all books, papers or writings, property, effects, moneys or things in his possession or power, belonging to the Company, the Justices may lawfully commit such officer to gaol, there to remain until he shall have delivered up all the vouchers and receipts, if any, in his possession or power, relating to such accounts, and have delivered up all books, papers, writings, property, effects, matters and things, (if any) in his possession or power, belonging to the Company; provided always, that if any Director or other person acting on behalf of the Company, shall make oath that he has good reason to believe, upon grounds to be stated in his deposition, and does believe that it is the intention of any such officer as aforesaid to abscond, it shall be lawful for the Justice before whom the complaint is made, instead of issuing his Summons, to issue his Warrant for the bringing such officer before two such Justices as aforesaid; but no person executing such Warrant shall keep such officer in custody longer than twenty-four hours before bringing him before some Justice, and it shall be lawful for the Justice before whom such officer may be brought, either to discharge such officer, if he think there is no sufficient ground for his detention, or to order such officer to be detained in custody, so as to be brought before two Justices at a time and place to be named in the order, unless such officer give bail to the satisfaction of the Justice for his appearance before the Justices, to answer the complaint of the Company.

L. And be it enacted, That no such proceeding against or dealing with any officer as aforesaid, shall deprive the Company of any remedy which they might otherwise have against such officer or any surety of such officer.
