

CONTENTS OF VOL. I.

PREFACE	Page vii
-------------------	----------

CHAPTER I.

The Atlantic Steamer—Leaving the Mersey—Anecdote of Jullien and a New York Audience—Captain West—Civility of American Officers—Refined Maize Flour—Church Service on Board—The Captain's Account of the Building of his Ship—Passengers' Amusements—Electro-Biology—Last Dinner on Board	1
--	---

CHAPTER II.

First Sight of the New World—Long Island—Superb View on entering New York Harbour—Shipping—Picturesque Appearance of New York—Landing—Custom House—The St. Nicholas Hotel—Search for Rooms—Curious Scene on entering Hotel—Magnificent Furniture and scanty Comfort—Intense Heat and Abundance of Ice—Luxurious Breakfast—Ample Supply of Provisions—Dinner Arrangements—Broadway—Sunday in New York—Various Classes of the Population—Police—Company at Dinner—Brilliant Appearance of Restaurants	17
---	----