"TEDDY" SHOWS WIND TO BLAME FOR DEFEAT

If Stimson Fails of Election as Governor, It Will Be Because of "Foul Treachery" in Republican Ranks — Contest Really Between Roosevelt and Dix.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—If the election next week in New York goes against Roosevelt and his candidate for governor, he is defeated, he has his answer ready, and it is going to be along this line:

There was arrayed against me every "crooked" corporation, every "malefactor of great wealth," every plunderer of the people, every corrupt financial interest that wants to continue corruptly to make money. In addition there was treachery among the thieves and grafters of my own party, who had thrown out of control and who went over to the enemy. I stood for the people and against the plunderers in that fight, and I am proud of it. I have at least succeeded in purifying the Republican party in the great State of New York.

This is the information that comes from a close friend of the colonel's, who has been in touch with him since his return to this country from Africa.
This man is authoritative for the statement that Col. Roosevelt went into this fight with his eyes open and fully aware of conditions, and that therefore, the developments have not surprised him.

Out of Politics?—Absurd.
That defeat here will put him out of politics, or even diminish his hold upon the people of the country, the colonel is said to regard as particularly absurd. He believes that if beaten, under the circumstances and the way in which he proposes to explain them, it will strengthen him tremendously with the masses, especially in the west, where the ferocity of his attacks upon the corporations and the "interests," and his appeal to the mob, strike the dead keynote that formed the basis of his popularity in that section of the country.

Mr. Roosevelt, his friends say, regarded the determination to make his fight in New York what on the first western trip the last part of August. It was on the train in Kansas that he made up his mind to accept the defiance of William B. Egan, Jr., and put on his war paint. At that time he is stated to have expressed absolute certainty of winning the fight for control of the Saragosa convention, the election of himself as temporary chairman and the nomination of the ticket. Of his power to defeat the Barnes-Sherman-Woodruff combination he had no doubt.

Didn't Expect to Win.
At the same time, however, he was not the view that he did not expect to win the ticket and to have forecast in private conversation the conditions that exist now, at this point.

Mr. Hearst is telling the readers of his newspaper that the reason so many New York newspapers that have usually supported the Republican candidate are just now arrayed against Mr.
Stimson is because Col. Roosevelt, who is Stimson's sponsor, has from time to time referred to the owners or editors of these newspapers as "liars," "unprincipled scoundrels," and the like.
Also because, he asserted, Mr. Roosevelt has been back of suits for libel against one or two of them, which have cost the defendants large sums of money to settle.

This was about the attitude of the colonel when he went into the fight. At that time he anticipated the nomination of Mayor Gaynor for governor by the Democrats. The selection of Mr. Dix, who while an excellent candidate, has not the strength of Gaynor, and the part played at the Rochester convention by Murphy, it is said, somewhat changed Mr. Roosevelt's views as to the hopelessness of the fight.

He is still far from confident of winning, but he sees a chance, and he is putting every ounce of steam he can into the campaign, stopping at nothing to gain votes for Stimson and "nitting the line" hard all the time.

Anything But This.
The only thing he could do to help Stimson that he has not done is to say that under no circumstances will he be a candidate for the presidency in 1912. Republicans say that an omnibus statement of this sort from him would simply take every breath of wind out of the sails of the opposition and insure the election of their candidate for governor.

Roosevelt is the whole issue on the Democratic side. Very little is being said about Stimson at all. The attack is concentrated upon the colonel, and the only real argument urged in the campaign against Stimson is that his election will help Roosevelt to regain the presidency, whereas his defeat will put the White House out of his reach forever.

The colonel, his friends say, does not believe the latter half of this argument even a little bit.

Flew Nearly 10,000 Feet Up in Air

RALPH JOHNSTONE,
Wright aviator, who reached an altitude of over 9000 feet at Belmont Park, making a new world record. To gain that height, his manoeuvres in the air lasted more than an hour, and he covered about 75 miles.

Y. M. C. A. COMMITTEE TO AID WORK IN INDIA

Will Finance Erection and Equipment of Building at Calcutta at Cost of $75,000.

E. R. Wood entertained a couple of dozen delegates to the Y.M.C.A. convention at luncheon at the National Club yesterday noon for the purpose of meeting John R. Mott, New York, who has charge of the foreign department of the Y.M.C.A. work.
Mr. Mott is engaged upon an extensive movement that will require about $1,750,000. The great leader's optimism has so far captivated Y.M.C.A. supporters that nearly a million dollars of the required amount is in sight.
The scheme is so arranged that the committees of the Y.M.C.A. in different cities all over the continent are asked to assume a certain portion, to provide a building here, or equipment there.
The Toronto committee yesterday agreed to pledge itself to the erection and equipment of a central building in Calcutta, India, at a cost of $75,000.
While being the headquarters for India in all matters of Christian work, this building will also be designed as a central publishing bureau for all the Christian literature used in that country.

ONTARIO W. C. T. U. MEET AT OWEN SOUND

Substantial Reduction in Number of Licenses Noted—More Extensive Public School Campaign.

OWEN SOUND, Nov. 1.—(Special.)— About a hundred delegates are present at the annual convention of the Ontario Women's Christian Temperance Union, which is being held in Division Street Presbyterian Church.
The opening session commenced at 9 o'clock, with Mrs. S. G. E. McKee of Barrie, president, in the chair. Mrs.
M. Hyslop, provincial organizer, conducted a consecration service, after which the convention was called to order, with the roll call of officers and superintendents.

Mrs. Hyslop, in the absence of Mrs.
Blanche R. Johnston of Barrie, presented the report on evangelistic work, while Mrs. Culp of Toronto presented the report on railroad work, showing activity along the extensive contraction work, as well as amongst the organized bodies of railway employees.
Miss Hillborne of Toronto advocated more extensive distribution of literature at fairs and exhibitions.
Mrs. E. J. Owens of Toronto presented the report on law enforcement in which was shown a substantial reduction in the number of licenses.
The report also recommended that the provisions of the marriage laws be made more stringent.

Juvenile work was reported by Mrs. George Chrysler of Brantford, who advocated a more extensive campaign amongst the pupils of the public schools.
Andrew Beall, M.A., of the White Cross field worker, showing the number of schools and boys which he had addressed on purity of life. He advocated the appointment of a woman field worker, to take up similar work amongst girls of the public schools.

This evening addresses on various topics incident to the junior branch work were given.
A fact given prominence in to-day's work was that the first branch of the Ontario W.C.T.U. was organized in Owen Sound, and amongst those present at to-day's convention were five of the original members.

EXTORTING CONFESSIONS.

There is no doubt that the practice of extorting confessions from suspects as depicted in Charles Klein's play, "The Third Degree," has been in operation in many of the larger cities of the United States and Europe for many years, but fortunately here in Canada such proceedings are unknown in police circles, and it is to be hoped that they will always remain so.

JEWISH LIBERAL LEAVES PARTY IN DISGUST

Dr. John Shayne Will Now Ally Himself With Conservatives, Because, He Says, Men of His Race Are Ignored by Liberal Leaders at Local Functions.

"Those who know the Liberal party know that its doors are closed to the Jews. Its clubs have closed the door to every Jew. Nothing has been offered to Jews except positions in the postoffice at $1.25 per day, and after three of them were given work there, we were told that the postoffice was loaded up with Jews."

Dr. John Shayne so declared last night, in addressing a meeting of the Hebrew Conservative Association, in the Lyric Theatre on Agnes-street. The statement was explanatory of his presence and signaled the first serious defection from the Liberal organization in Centre Toronto. Those who know the circumstances of Dr. Shayne's exclusion from membership in the Ontario Club last spring, shortly after he had presided at the banquet to the workers on behalf of T. C. Robinette, Liberal candidate in Centre Toronto, at the Arlington Hotel, will not be surprised perhaps at the doctor's political metamorphosis.

In fact, it is stated in inner circles that the question of specific Jewish representation has agitated the minds of the local organizers for some time, and following the next redistribution in Toronto it is proposed to nominate candidates of that nationality to run independently unless the party organizations will recognize their presence in the community and arrange for a special candidate. This action will be supported by the knowledge that in no city of equal size on the continent have the Jews formed so large a part of the population as they without as little direct political influence as here, and this condition the Jews seek to overcome.

Joins "Party of the People." Dr. Shayne informed the large audience which filled the pit of the theatre, that he was prepared to "join the rank and file of the Conservative party, the party of the people," and the applause was hearty. When he rose to make a resolution of thanks to the address given by Hon. J. J. Foy, Edmund Bristol, M.P., and Claude Macdonell, M.P., certain abject sounds and groans mingled with the cheering, "I had heard that some were coming here loaded for me, but after my close connection with the Liberal party I am glad I am here to-night," he announced.

"When the Liberals give a reception, how many Jews are there?" he propound to himself, and answered, "None. When a cabinet minister comes to the Ontario Club, how many Jews are there? None. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier came to Toronto how many Jews were present? None. The Liberals never give the Jew a chance, but set into libelous, calumnious and slandering attacks. None of the Liberal party claims to be the party for all the people and the Conservative clubs are for all the people."

Beware of Reciprocity.
Hon. J. J. Foy, the first speaker introduced by the chairman, Jacob Cohen, J.P., was hailed with acclaim. He reviewed the progress of the hydroelectric policy and declared that its benefits would be felt by all the people. He also touched upon the reduction in the price of school books.
"Beware of reciprocity with the United States," was the keynote of addressed by Mr. Bristol and Mr. Macdonell and A. H. Birmingham, local Conservative organizer. They held that it would be the opening wedge for a movement that would flood Canada with cheaply manufactured goods from the United States and would paralyze Canadian industries and throw Canadian workmen out of employment.

E. W. J. Owens, who seconded Dr.
Shayne's resolution, asserted that the Conservative party was eminently the friend of the Jew.
Mayor Geary's Tribute.
Mayor Geary, after the applause had died away, declared that his elevation to the mayor's chair had been helped by the Jewish vote. There was no class of citizens of whom there was more reason to be proud. Jews sometimes appeared in court for violation of unimportant bylaws, but in real class gave so little trouble.
Ald. McBride announced that his police was to do as much for the Jew as for the Gentile, but no more. He would not sanction breaking the bylaws. He had been asked sometimes to do so, and had refused, and had been "turned down." Thomas Hook and others spoke briefly.

A rumor was afloat that the meeting would disclose an agitation factory of allowing Jews to keep their votes open on Sunday, but nothing of this nature happened.

LITTLE GRAIN MOVING.

PORT ARTHUR, Nov. 1.—(Special.)— It looks as if the elevators at the head of the lakes would be filled to the brim with grain when the season of navigation closes. Also over a month of shipping has gone by, the percentage of grain going out has been very small.
Vessels are having a difficult time curving charts, and many remain in the harbor for three or four days before they can secure cargo enough to clear. It is said that the principal reason for this is the price asked by western farmers.

REVOLUTION IN MADRID SAYS A PARIS RUMOR

There Does Not Seem, However, to Be Much Ground for Credence of the Report.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—A despatch from Paris to The Daily Telegraph says a rumor is current that a revolution has broken out in Madrid.
No confirmation of this rumor has reached London.

While the suddenness with which the revolution in Portugal became an accomplished fact, would attach more credence to the above despatch than it might otherwise receive, still there does not seem to be any substantial reasons for expecting an upheaval in Spain just now.

Less than a fortnight ago, Senor Jose Canales, premier of Spain, interviewed by a special correspondent of the London Chronicle, who was fresh from Lisbon and the scene of the revolt, said:
"I will answer with my head that events in Lisbon are not repeated in Madrid, or in any other part of Spain." He emphasized his words by tapping his heel on the ground.

"The late Portuguese Government must have been living in a fool's paradise! Everyone outside Portugal appears to have known what was about to happen. We, in Spain, were not surprised at the upheaval, but we did not look for it so soon."
"No, I do not think that the republican success in Portugal, and the repercussion in Spain, have terrified us. They have a perfect right to freedom of speech and liberty of action so long as these are legal and constitutional."

"You ask me if the republicans have succeeded in undermining the loyalty of the army, as they did in Portugal.
My answer is, emphatically no. The day they attempt it they will pay the penalty prescribed by the existing law of the land."
Discussing his reform program, Senor Canales declared that the present government would do its best to carry it through to the end. The government, he declared, had put its shoulder to the wheel of reform, and would not be defeated in its task either by the dissenters of the church on the one hand or by the fury of revolutionary socialists on the other hand.

POLICE RODE THEM DOWN

Striking Garment Workers Paraded Without a Permit.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—Mounted police in the business district here rode into a crowd that had been gathered there afternoon by a group of striking garment workers, who were attempting to parade without a permit. Many persons were knocked down and more than a dozen injured, including two girls and two children, none, however, seriously.
The injured persons were said to have been a society woman, who was acting as a picket for the strikers.
Several other disturbances led to riot calls for the police. Two factories were stoned and many windows broken.

Sir James Gives Reply Courteous

Ontario's Premier Is Not Meddling in Quebec By-election, The Appreciating Montreal Journalist.

The intention of The Montreal Herald seems to be to divide the Conservative party on the Drummond and Arthabaska by-election.
Sir James Whitney, along with other prominent Conservatives through Canada, has received the following telegram from The Herald: "Please give us an answer to question: How do you advise Conservatives to vote in Arthabaska election?" Sir James' reply reads:
"Your telegrams have just been brought to my notice. The anxiety displayed by you as to the probable course of Arthabaska Conservatives at this by-election and the broad-minded generosity of spirit which evidently prompted such anxiety receive my hearty appreciation. One would have thought that the Liberals are likely to vote on the occasion referred to."

"The Conservatives of Arthabaska have not asked my advice, and I am asked. It will be a great satisfaction to me, however, to realize that the Conservatives of Arthabaska are not likely to suffer from my abstention.
The circumstances, therefore, under which I abstain in the sunlight of the unbounded generosity which prompts this editorial to take action fearing lest they may go astray."
(Signed) J. P. Whitney."

R. L. Borden's answer from Ottawa to a similar query was:
"I have just this minute returned to Ottawa, after a three weeks' absence in the mountains of Virginia, and I know nothing as to the situation in the Drummond-Arthabaska contest. Under the circumstances, therefore, as the present time all I can say is that I should advise the electors to vote according to the dictates of their own consciences."

WORKS DEPT. ENQUIRY SEEMS TO BE FIZZLING

Only Two Additional Complaints Have Been Received For Resumed Session Before the Judge.

What has become of the promised legion of complaints against the way in which City Engineer Rust handles the works department?
The investigation was to have started three weeks ago, but Corporation Counsel Drayton had only in stock three or four minor charges by citizens, and, after Mr. Rust had given a general explanation of the workings of the department, the proceedings would come to the public being invited to tell all they knew or suspected.
In only two cases has advantage been taken of the offer since then, and nothing serious in the air yet nor at all likely to shake the civic pit to its foundations.
The enquiry re-opens on Thursday.

FOREIGN IMMIGRANTS MUST LEARN ENGLISH

Danger That in Decade Half the Population Will Not Be Able to Speak National Tongue.

That unless some definite policy is adopted for teaching the foreigners that are so rapidly coming amongst us, in ten years there will not be 50 per cent. of the people of this country able to speak the English language, was the warning last night of Dr. Roberts of New York, immigration secretary of the Y.M.C.A., addressing a public meeting in Cooke's Church. He also considered it the duty of every Canadian to in some way instill into these people the real idea of Canadian civilization.

An excellent address was also given by Christian Philites of Geneva, Switzerland, secretary of the World's Alliance, on the work being carried on by the Y.M.C.A. in helping the immigrants that come to America. Mr.
Philites, who has traveled widely, told of the conditions in which these people live in their native lands, and showed plainly why it was that, at the rate of over a million a year, these people are coming to our shores, that they may dwell in a land where liberty of religion is permitted, and also where they may be able to bring up their families as they could not in their own countries.

He stated that 75 per cent. of the foreigners coming to the United States and Canada were of the Roman or Greek Catholic Church, and that between 50 and 60 per cent. of them could neither read or write. He spoke of the "ex-immigrants," who had come to Canada and later returned to their native lands across the water. Their minds had been enlightened and many had embraced the Christian faith. In this way they were of great assistance in the furthering of the work of the Canadian church in their own country.

BORROWED GUN, DISAPPEARED

Said He Would Willingly Hang If He Could Kill Men Who Bounced Him.

FORT WILLIAM, Nov. 1.—(Special.)— A few days after he had told his boyhood friend, W. C. Murphy, of the firm of Murphy & Adliff, owners of a lumber camp northwest of here for whom he was working, that he would willingly hang if he could kill three men who had bounced him out of a fortune, Charles Thompson, forty-six years of age, borrowed a revolver from the camp cook and disappeared in the dense forest. He is thought to have succeeded.
News of the man's disappearance nearly two weeks ago was brought to the city to-day by Mr. Murphy, who has since had his own private view of Thompson had neither had nor could and could scarcely have reached civilization, as he was without provisions.
Thompson was once a prosperous business man of Pembroke.

VISCOUNT MORLEY TO RESIGN

Earl of Crews Mentioned as Successor in Indian Secretaryship.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The resignation of Viscount Morley, Secretary of State for India is practically certain. The Earl of Crews is mentioned as a probable successor. Either Right Hon. Augustin Birel, Sir Vernon Harcourt or Co. Seely may be offered the colonial secretaryship.
Churchill's resignation has been accepted. Viscount Morley is in his 72nd year, and it is known that he has for some time desired to vacate his post because of his advanced years and ill-health.

NEW POLITICAL PARTY BEING FORMED

To Represent the Protestant People of the Dominion — An Outcome of the Eucharistic Congress—Hon. Clifford Sifton's Name Mentioned for Leader.

OTTAWA, Nov. 1.—(Special.)—It leaked out to-day that there is a proposal on foot to establish a new political party in Canada, which will represent the Protestant people of the Dominion.
The mainpring of the idea is stated to be in the Province of Quebec, and that it is gaining strength, because of the determined attitude towards Roman Catholicism assumed by the Protestant clergy of the province, since the recent eucharistic congress in Montreal taught them without a shadow of a doubt that the last stand of the Church of Rome would be in Canada, and that it would be a fight to a finish.

Reports reaching here are to the effect that the weekly appeals of the Protestant clergy to their adherents to be up and doing are having a strong influence. The present government, on the one hand, and the Nationalists on the other, have shown them that they can expect no quarter. The recent flux of Roman Catholic clergy from France has made the situation more acute, and the statistics of the census are awaited with anxiety.

It is stated that during the next session of parliament the party will be organized, and that it will include men of prominence on both sides of the house. Hon. Clifford Sifton's name is mentioned as one of those likely to be at the head of the party. It is well known that he has not been on the best of terms with the government for some years, and it will be remembered that he resigned his portfolio because of the autonomy bill. However, there are political developments pending which may upset this scheme. The Drummond-Arthabaska election may or may not clear the air a little.

A MURDER MYSTERY

Chinaman's Body Found on the Shores Near Olcott Beach.

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y., Nov. 1.— The badly decomposed body of a Chinaman washed up on the shores of Lake Ontario at the farm of Peter Lander, six miles east of Olcott Beach, under the name of "John," which is just what the police of New York State, and they have asked the police of all the large cities on the border to aid them in solving the mystery. They have also appealed to the police of the Canadian ports on Lake Ontario, in the hope that they may materialize and bring in bringing the guilty persons to justice.

That the man was first murdered and his body then thrown into the water is a certainty, proven by the post mortem examination. The throat was terribly swollen and the tongue protruded from the mouth. When an effort was made to turn the body over between the teeth, blood oozed forth.
This led the coroner to believe that the man had been strangled. The left eye had been gouged out, and there was a bad discoloration on the side of the face. The eye ball hung by a small cord and lay on the face when the body was found. There were no bruises on the right side of the face, while the physicians and coroner declared were ante-mortem marks of violence.

BILINGUAL SCHOOL ENQUIRY

Dr. T. W. Merchant Has Been Instructed to Make One.

As a result of the agitation over the teaching of French in bilingual schools, Sir James Whitney announced yesterday that Dr. T. W. Merchant, chief inspector of public schools in the province, had been instructed to visit the schools of Essex and Kent, as well as every other locality in the province where bilingual schools existed, make an examination and report to the government upon the situation.
It is understood that Dr. Merchant will receive a letter of instruction, by which he will be able to proceed along specific and definite lines in his investigation. When these instructions are drawn up they may be made public.

A DOUBLE PLAY

Eloping Husband and Wife Traded by Wife and Husband.

Mrs. Clara Grate and Lewis Frishinsky, both of New York, were arrested yesterday by Detectives Cronin and Mitchell, charged with vagrancy upon warrants issued by the husband of the Grate woman and the wife of Frishinsky. The couple fled together from New York, bringing with them Mrs.
Grate's 11-year-old son. She is 36 years old, and he is 28. The other half of each couple had followed them to this city.

NEARLY WINTER NOW.

We are on the high road to winter now, and it is a question of winter caps and furs for the season. This is the right time for any man to buy his fur or fur-lined coat, because summer prices prevail and the cost of muskrat, other skins and mink is steadily going up. The Dineen Company have some splendid lines of fur-lined coats, either at sixty dollars, with coats, either or Persian lamb collars and lapels. Best beaver cloth outside.
When you are in the store ask for the new fur catalogue, or write for it.
