T. & D.—Halliwell, Dobson, Dierden, Hamilton, Carroll, Herring, G. Lindsay, Lowe, Crawley, Forsythe, Jackson.

Provincial—Smith, Campbell, Buchan, Acourt, Turney, Brown, Anderson, A. Walker, Lonie, S. Walker, Howson.

Referee—W. Murchie,
Linesmen—Mitchener and Sterling.

The District men played strongly at the commencement and forced the Provincial to play on the defensive. Howson had a great chance to open up the scoring in front of goal, but kicked wildly over the bar. A long period of even play followed until Lonie obtained possession and scored the first goal for the Provincials, the ball being placed in the far end of the net. Halliwell had no chance to save. The strong wind made defensive play very difficult and it occasioned no surprise when Howson added a second goal with a fast, low shot. Up to the interval neither side could claim any advantage, and when the whistle sounded the Provincials led by two clear could be a strong wind against them.

Farr singled to short, and Dodd's drove a liner over second. - These hits, along with a passed ball and Bird's high toss. yielded a trio of tallies. Both teams used substitutes, Gee and Clarke of the Park Nine figuring in the Wellingtons' line-up on account of the absence of Thorne, Nye and Murphy thru illness, while Farr was used by the Athenaeums when Hunt was taken sick in the dressing room. Both Graham and Smith were unsteady, but the former kept the hits scattered in all but two innings.
