There are curves in every line of business and when you are "onto the curves," you know enough about that business to be a success at it.

There are curves in the hat business.

After you had studied the hat business as long as Dineens have you would know where to go in England, United States and Italy to buy good hats for import.

$2 $2.50 $3

These are the ordinary prices, but Dineens' hats at these figures are far and away ahead of the ordinary.

of non-commissioned officer and four soldiers is posted. These men, in addition to exercising a general supervision over their section of the road, render first aid when necessary, until the arrival of medical assistance. Ambulances with military surgeons, nurses and a supply of stretchers are established every five miles. The route is kept clear by police, assisted by a battalion of infantry, two squadrons of cavalry, and one of gendarmes.

The especial desire of the whole American team, who lead in the total of events won to date, was to win the Marathon race. In 1896 it was won by Louis, a native Greek. In 1900, in Paris, the race was won by Théodore Michal, a Frenchman. In 1904 at St. Louis, with practically all American contestants, the race was won by an American, T. J. Hicks of Boston.

Hamilton Born and Bred.
Sherring is a thorough Hamiltonian. He was born in that city on Sept. 19, 1878, and has lived there since his birth. In yesterday's big race he was up against all the great long distance runners in the world, including Mike Spring, winner of last year's Hamilton Herald race and the Boston Marathon of 1904; Joe Forsyth, winner of the St. Louis Marathon race of 1905, and all the famous distance men of England and other European countries. He generally weighs 115 pounds, but in racing form, but yesterday the barrier weighing only 112 pounds.

He has been running since 1897, when he made his debut in a five-mile event at Bartonville fair and finished fourth. He ran in several shorter distance events, but the first time he became prominent was in the Herald race of 1897, when he finished third in a big field of starters. After that he began to be looked upon as a comer.

One of the greatest races that Sherring ever ran was in the Herald race in 1899. That year Jack Caffery, owing to his performance of the year before, was a slight favorite over Sherring, but the latter won after a desperate struggle, beating Caffery by a minute and 17 seconds. He was twice beaten by Jack Caffery, in 1900, in the Boston Marathon Sherring was in the lead for 18 miles, but apparently shot his bolt, for he fell in a semi-conscious condition on the roadside and five men passed him, but he put up a game struggle and finished second to Caffery.

Sherring won the Herald race in 1903, being just five seconds behind Caffery's record. That was the last long distance race in which he competed until yesterday. He carried the colors of St. Patrick's A. C.

Sherring was probably the smallest starter in the race. He stands only five feet seven inches, and is inclined to be slim. He does any man that tries to pass so that his opponent is glad to drop behind a little so as to escape Sherring's tantalizing.

What makes Sherring's victory all the greater is the fact that he went to a trainer without the assistance of a trainer. He traveled the entire journey alone and trained without the assistance of any one. All the other athletes had a good staff of trainers along.

Only Canadian Running.
He was selected to represent Canada at St. Louis, but owing to injury he was unable to run.

Sherring was the only Canadian representative in the big event, Hughes of Toronto not being able to start. England was represented by J. N. Cormack and J. J. Daley. The competitors were driven to Marathon at night, and slept there so as to be in first-class condition.

Sherring's performance is another example of what the Herald race has

CHURCH'S GREAT ENEMY IS PROFESSIONAL PIETY

The address given by Rev. Dr. Kilpatrick of Knox College at Victoria College convocation last night was full of practical, helpful advice to graduates, who, with their university careers left behind them, were about to enter upon ministerial endeavor. In direct and forceful way he pointed out errors to avoid, and means of escaping pitfalls peculiar to the work.

Chancellor Burwash presided, and in addition to the faculty there were present, among others, Prof. Hume, University College; Rev. Dr. Germain, Rev. A. B. Chambers, Rev. S. D. Chown and C. W. Kerr.

Speaking on the temptations to which ministers were peculiarly subjected, Rev. Dr. Kilpatrick sounded a warning against morbid self-consciousness, leading to undue desire for applause, to posing, factitiousness and other ills.

Another pitfall was to be found in treating the ministry as a profession with a certain round of work to be got thru for a remuneration. An outgrowth of this was professional piety. Religion was given its set time and place. Sermons preached were merely the reciting of the thoughts of others and didn't arise from personal experience. Nothing had done so much harm to the church as dualism, spiritually being on one side and secularism on the other.

Chancellor Burwash, in closing, referred to the number of divinity graduates as less than last year, but expressed satisfaction with their scholastic attainments. The registration for the year of 101 students was the largest on record.

The Honors Given.
The ceremony of conferring the degree of doctor of divinity brought forth from Rev. Robert Newton Burns, B.A., Brampton, introduced by Dr. Wallace, and Rev. Sidney J. Shorey, Oshawa, introduced by Dr. Reynar, Degrass were also conferred in absentia on Rev. J. H. Ridell, principal of Alberta College, Edmonton, introduced by Prof. McLaughlin, and Rev. Wilford J. Spruell, principal of Columbia College, New Westminster, introduced by Dr. John Burwash.

Rev. Dr. Wallace presented the following to receive the degree of bachelor of divinity: David Roblin, B.A., Selwyn; William Jay Mills, B.A., Frankford; Thomas Green, B.A., Toronto; George William Wesley, B.A., B.A., Morpeth; Edward Wilson Wallace, B.A., Toronto.

E. W. Wallace, B.A., was presented with the Sanford gold medal by Rev. Dr. Reynar. The other awards were given by Chancellor Burwash as follows: Bursary prize (New Testament History), F. W. J. M. Craig, B.A. Wall bridge prize (New Testament Exegesis), E. W. Wallace, B.A.; Cox bursary (New Testament Theology), D. A. Walker, B.A.; the Bede prize (church history), A. M. Ozawa; Robert Wallace prize (New Testament Introduction), W. A. For, B.A.; Massey bursary (English Bible), first, W. E. Honey; Massey bursary (English Bible), second, Miss A. Chubb; Michael Fawcett bursary (scripture), F. W. Langford, B.A.; Regent's prize (educational sermon), first, E. W. Wallace, B.A.; Regent's prize (educational sermon), second, H. H. Craig; Regent's prize (Christian didactics), first, F. W. Langford, B.A.; Regent's prize (Christian didactics), second, E. W. Wallace, B.A.

MINIMUM SALARIES FIXED BY PUBLIC SCHOOLS BILL

Hon. Dr. Fyne's public schools bill will be amended so as to clear up the clause fixing the minimum salaries of teachers. Several members of the opposition confessed to being completely befogged by the wording of the measure.

The new proposal of Dr. Fyne provides for a minimum salary of $500 for a sole teacher, or headmaster, and $300 for an assistant teacher. The scheme works out this way. In townships where the assessment of property is $200,000 for each section, the township must raise for every sole teacher $300, and for every assistant $200.

Mr. Graham contended that there should be a premium on experience. There might be a special grant to cover such cases.

Mr. Ross confessed to being mystified by the bill. He would support any reasonable proposal to increase salaries, but the minister should give some information showing how much this special grant would amount to, and also how many teachers would benefit by the increase. The average salary for males was $385, and for females $234. How many were below these figures? They were doing the right thing, but they were not going about it right.

The Collector's Tribute.
Colonel G. T. Denison, police magistrate, who at the request of the president, Noel Marshall, proposed the health of the guest, spoke in feeling terms of the splendid work Mr. Curry had done as crown attorney. As police magistrate of the city of Toronto he had found Mr. Curry a source of strength, reliable, honest, industrious, capable in every way, and felt that his departure would be a serious loss to him. It was an important office. Last year in Ontario there were 4701 criminal cases, out of which 1644 had been tried in Toronto, or practically one-third of the criminal business in the province. In the position which he filled, Noel Marshall, proposed depended upon the man being smart, bold, astute and able to face all kinds of influences. Never did he, on any occasion, neglect to do his duty. He was an ideal crown attorney. Mr. Corley had a hard man to follow, for Curry had been a remarkable crown attorney.

suggested several members of the opposition; but the premier affected not to hear.

Not an Authority.
R. L. Borden said that Mr. Foster's resolution was entirely correct, in saying that these contracts had been made without the knowledge or consent of parliament. The appropriations from year to year, for purposes of immigration, could not be cited as an authority, for a contract extending over years and involving a possible expenditure of one million dollars.

Mr. Borden insisted that the immigrants came from the continent to Canada, not because of this act in July. He recalled the fact that in June, 1905, Mr. Oliver had stated that this company, as he understood it, was a steamship company, but that all the facts steadily declared to the contrary. He recalled the fact that in June, 1905, Mr. Oliver had stated that this company, as he understood it, was a steamship company, but that all the facts steadily declared to the contrary. He recalled the fact that in June, 1905, Mr. Oliver had stated that this company, as he understood it, was a steamship company, but that all the facts steadily declared to the contrary.

The ostensible reason assigned by Mr. Oliver was the company had sent over the maximum number of immigrants from Galicia and similar countries, while the number of immigrants from Norway, Sweden and Finland had steadily decreased. "To quote the prime minister's favorite phrase," commented Mr. Borden, "I will say that there is not one word of truth in it." The return brought down by the department of the interior showed the reverse of this to be true. He challenged either the first minister for the minister at the time of his resignation, or the cabinet in the nine months of this fiscal year, ending March 31, 1906, there were 920 immigrants from Norway, Sweden and Finland with the exception of a and kindred countries they only amounted to 821.

street care were not running, the result being to give the usually busy boulevards a singular aspect of desolation. Enormous crowds of curious persons fill the streets. The opera and other state theatres are open, the opera having two squadrons of cuirassiers in the courtyard while Felix Weingartner is conducting a Beethoven and Berlioz festival in the auditorium. Ten of the leading theatres closed on account of the exceptional order of the day. The boxes were closed throughout the day. At 10 o'clock to-night dragoons still guarded the streets surrounding the theatre and the other great financial establishments.

Workmen Threaten.
The temper of the workmen to-night is threatening. The police acted brutally and cite many incidents of innocent people being beaten and arrested. They declare that today was only the beginning of the movement.

Reports from the provinces show that there were violent demonstrations at Marseilles, Brest, Bordeaux, St. Etienne, Lyons, Rouen and Orléans.

At Marseilles processions carrying red flags and creating violent disorder came in collision with the troops and a number of persons were injured.

FAREWELL TO MR. CURRY IS GIVEN A LOVING CUP

Not the least successful of Toronto's many social functions was the farewell dinner given by the National Club to the late crown attorney, J. Walter Curry, K.C. Although tendered by the club in honor of one of its most popular members, it was also a striking tribute to an official who for 17 years had performed onerous and important duties to the entire satisfaction and benefit of the general community.

After the banquet, Noel Marshall, president and chairman, presented the guest of the evening with a beautiful silver loving cup, which was passed round the large and representative gathering, and from which all drank in good spirit. F. W. Gaillet, J. E. Irving, R. W. Eyre, G. C. Gale, G. T. Irving, H. A. Wilson, W. H. Ferguson, Arthur Blight, J. S. MacMaster, D. E. Thompson, W. Davis, James Curry, S. G. that Col. Denison had been a light in his path. When taking the position of crown attorney he had determined to perform his duties in a manner that no blame for the working of the court would reflect on the police magistrate. He had endeavored to hand out fair and honest treatment—had tried to see that innocent men went free and the guilty convicted. He wished to emphasize the fact that since the Whitney government came in power he had received every help, and his path had been made easy. He hoped Mr. Corley would find a friend in Colonel Denison.

In closing, Mr. Curry thanked the club for their kindness and referred to Nicholas Murphy, K.C., who he said was a good and true friend. He had pointed out to him his faults and line of duty, "and no Irish heart ever beat truer."

How few realize that 20 per cent. of all disease has its origin in some interference with the function of elimination.

The whole body exists by reason of the transmission of fluids through its component parts.

Up to a certain point the body has power to object to destructive elements, but this power is limited. Beyond a certain time, the body is laden with wastes and poisons which it can't eliminate, fermentation, decay and germ life run riot through the blood.

Serious illness is the result unless nature is assisted by a cleansing tonic like Dr. Hamilton's Mandrake and Buttermilk Pills.

The greatest assurance to every man and woman of good health is the use of Dr. Hamilton's Pills, which are purely vegetable, contain no mercury, no bismuth, no injurious metallic ingredients of any kind.

Grand results are achieved by this world-famous remedy, as the following letter conclusively proves:

From Newfoundland, Miss Lillian Anthony of Upper Guilles, Conception Bay, writes: "In praise of Dr. Hamilton's Pills I must say that I have used them with grand success for three years. They never fail to cure me of indigestion or constipation. Formerly my face was full of pimples, but now my complexion is clear and ruddy. In more ways than I care to mention have Dr. Hamilton's Pills helped me; they would be good for every woman to use."
