Seventh-Bay Adventist in Jail.

Mr. P. M. Howe, the Seventh-Day Adventist who was found guilty some time ago of working on Sunday, has been committed to Chatham jail to serve the term imposed by the magistrate who heard the case. It will be remembered the proceedings before the magistrate were reviewed by a judge of the High Court in Toronto, who upheld the magistrate's decision. Mr. Howe writes The World that he intends to serve his term out and will not pay a fine, as he believes that in no other way can he show the people of Canada that he and his religious brethren are being unjustly dealt with. He predicts that Chatham will yet come to be known as the Canadian Smithfield.

The good work goes on.

Here is some evidence of it, This is the kind of certificates that are at the back of Doan's Kidney Pills. Mr. W. F. Dick, Toronto, says: "I would say that I am convinced that Doan's Kidney Pills act quicker and more efficiently on the kidneys than any other, medicine that I ever tried.

"I have ordered three more boxes of them, which is the best evidence of my opinion of their efficiency for the cure of all kidney troubles."

Mr. J. H. Hoffman, 81 O'Hara-avenue, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have cured me of severe pain in the back, urinary difficulties, loss of appetite, etc.

"I procured a box of them at Austen's drug store, and certainly feel pleased that I did so, for they have not only cured the kidney trouble, etc., from which I suffered, but have braced me up, and made me feel like a

This and the prevention of further coinage of silver being accomplished, the reconstruction of our paper money system may be safely permitted to stand over until conditions are more favorable to a thorough, wise and final treatment of that branch of the money question. The great thing that now summons the country to a revival of confidence and activity is the fact that the silver heresy is at last placed under control and estined to extinction. This emancipation is not yet half estimated at its real practical value; it is to far-reaching to be taken in on first thought. Its fruits, however, must soon begin to ripen in all branches of business.
