Pennsylvania for three years, was wrested from the Keystone State by Ohio, whose representatives were extremely enthusiastic when the presentation was made by Rev. J. Z. Tyler of Cleveland. Then a poem, "The Army of Daybreak," by Rev. Ernest Warburton Shurtleff of Plymouth, Eng., was read.

The Churches Crowded. Christian Endeavorers crowded the Christian Endeavorers crowded the various churches, where meetings were to be held to-day. The topic of all these was the Christian Endeavor pledge, and the leaders were Rev. C. W. Finch, Cookshire, Quebec: Jiev. J. H. Barton, Caldwell, Idaho; Miss Tyler, Wilkinson Temple, Texas; Mr. John R. Gamer, Rushville, Ark.: Judge W. S. Dewey, Cairo, Ill.: Rev. D. W. Fahns, Independence. Iowa: A. G. Leffingwell, Appleton, Wis., and Rev. O. C. Sargent of Claremont, N.H.

The regulations of conventions were commenced simultaneously at the big pavilions at 9.30 o'clock. At Woodward's Pavilion President Clark presided and R. Powell Evans of San Francisco was musical director. After singing and devotional exercises, conducted by Rev. James McLean of Great Village, Nova Scotia, an address on the Senior Socety of Christian Endeavor was delivered by Barton W. Perry of San Leandre, Cal.

The next address was on "Christian Endeavor and the Sunday Evening Service," by Rev. Jacob W. Knapp of Richmond, Ind. He pointed out various methods by which the society may add to the evening meetings of the church. This was followed by the open par imment under the charge of W. B. Philput of Philadelphia.

HORRIBLE TRAGEDY.

A Lunatte Named Barry Killed His Mate With a Bedstead Slat and Then Beat Out His Own Brains.

Halifax, N. S., July 9.—There was a orrible tragedy in the Annapolis County Lunatic Asylum, at Bridgetown, this morning. An inmate named Walter Beveridge attacked his roommate, another unatic named, Jacob Bain, striking him nseless with one blow of a bedstead slat, and then beating out his brains. The murdered man belonged to Yarmouth and the murderer Annapolis.

Knew Shire Was Insane.

Pontiac, Mich., July 9.—Miss Orpha Ingoldsby committed suicide last night by hanging herself with a cloth fastened to the bedpost, at her home on Perry-street. On the dresser was a note, reading: "My Deanest Brother.—I fully realize that my mind is deranged. I cannot live to cause you trouble by my insamity. Good-bye, Your loving sister, Orpha." Her father, Daniel Ingoldsby, one of the best known traveling machine men in the state, died several weeks ago. She had been very nervous ever since, but showed no signs of insamity. After her mother died more than a year ago she assumed the care of the household. Since the father's death she has lived alone with her brother, who is carrying on the business. Miss Ingoldsby was highly respected.

The Alleged Sugar Combine. keep up the price of granulated sugar in the city, I have made some enquiries and find that extra standard granulated sugar can be purchased for 4½c.

"As I understand, this combine, which declares that it is working on ½c, is really extracting from the grocer considerably more. As this places the retail grocer of Toronto in the position that he is unable to compete with his competitors a few miles out of the city, where granulated is being sold to-day for 4½c. I have made arrangements, and am prepared to offer to your association extra standard granulated sugar in 25 barrel lots or more at 4½c; and my suggestion is that the association should distribute it among their members, according to their requirements,

Eyes of Citizens and Visitors Point to This Store

Store Open 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Success is wooed in various ways, but 'tis only won by honest purpose. With modest pride the eyes of the thousands of visitors now in our city, or on the way, may be directed to this store—a monument of twenty-five years of honest, substantial, solid purpose. We have very much to show every visitor, as citizens know we have to show them daily. We rest our case on the high quality of our goods. What Simpson says is so-is so. But the appeal to your interest is also full of price-force. We always sell lower than other stores, just as we are bigger and different in so many ways from other stores. Monday's sale of Silks, Dress Goods, Capes, Linens and other goods has an interest for everyone,
