CLOSING DAY AT HAMILTON.

Five Favorites in Front, But Pearl Was Disqualified.

Tokio, 5 to 1, and Nimrod, 4 to 1. Were the Longest Fells to Land—Black Jimmy Fell in Steeplechase and Donohue Broke His Leg.

Hamilton, June 4.—The attendance on the closing day of the Hamilton Jockey Club's spring meeting was the largest of the week, there being about 2500 present.

The card presented was a good one. Owing to the large number of entries in the first race it was split, making seven races.

There were only four starters in the second race, Miss Meade getting a good second and romping in. Amah had second place to the stretch, where she was beaten out by Weller, who was given a good ride.

The third race was a clash for the favorite, Stratford taking the lead after the first half of the turn, and was never headed, winning in an easy gallop.

Six horses faced the starter in the fourth race, the best being Donohue, who was shot off away first, but was soon overtaken. At the head of the stretch the favorite, Defender, came to the front and won all out.

The fifth race was between Prize, King Kenna and the favorite, Prince Mark, Prize having the lead nearly all the way to the stretch, where the favorite passed him and won handsily.

The sixth race was made from a good start, Pearl, the favorite, getting away and leading the race, but was overtaken by Nicholas at the end of the stretch.

In the seventh Nimrod took the lead and landed the money handsily. Amah being the first second, and Weller, who was the start being a good one.
