Causes for Discussion.

Upon the report of the Toronto rectory endowment committee, Mr. Blake askendowment committee, Mr. Blake ask-ed why the names of the rectors parti-cipating, and the amounts they received were not added. It was the right of the laity who provided the funds to know how they were administered. This call-ed forth some demur on the part of the rectors, but the chancellor supported Mr. Blake.

It contained a statement challenging the action of the executive committee in issuing debenexecutive committee in issuing debentures forming a mortgage on the incomes of the rectors of Toronto, and expressing an opinion that the transaction was irregular and probably illegal, and that the debentures so issued were not a valid and negotiable security, and ought not to be accepted by the synod. The report of the committee appointed to co-operate with the Prisoner's Aid Association was adopted. It mentioned the closing of the reformatory at Penetanguishene, the establishment of the parole system for youthful openders and deplored the loss to the cause of prison reform sustained thru the death of the late Mr. James Massie.

MassieHamilton Cassels, K.C., was the unanimous selection of the synod to represent the Toronto diocese of the Church of England on the commission ing, Chancellor Worrell advocated the lishing to enquire into existing prison mence which was an inducement to rich men to leave bequests to the church. This committee was finally appointed: Rev Dr Langtry, Rev G A Kuhring, Canon Cody, Revs W C Allen, J Pitt Lewis, Canon Dixon, Hon S H Blake, N W Hoyles, L H Baldwin, J R Roaf, W C Hall, Beverley Jones, William Ince, Capt Whish.

In presenting the report of the Episcopal Endowment Fund, Hon. Mr. Blake said the total balance now was $12,500. He thought the rural parishes should contribute more largely. Some of the clergy had only raised ten cents on the dollar on the amount allotted to them. Rev. L. H. Kirby of Aurora took exception and said that he had been told that further demands for missions would empty his church. Rev. E. C. Cayley believed the entire fund should be raised in Toronto. The old committee was re-elected.

representation of the lay members of the committee that no missionary clergyman should marry until he had been at least two years in orders. The report was unanimously adopted.

The report on the state of the church recommended the stipend of an ordained clergyman should be a minimum of $800, and that no appointment should be made unless the bishop has received satisfactory evidence that the parish is prepared to discharge its obligations. Hon. S. H. Blake suggested an increase in the archdiaconate. What was needed was live archdeacons and live rural deans. Their machinery was admirable, but they wanted new archdeacons live and active and able to do their work. The motion was carried.

Causes for Discussion.

Montreal, June 9.—At the Congregational union this morning, 'Rev. J. K. Unsworth, Hamilton, London, Ont., was elected chairman for 1905, and Rev. D. S. Hamilton, London, Ont., was elected chairman of the membership committee. Most of the forenoon session was taken up with the presentation of statistical statements on church work, which indicated a generally prosperous condition of affairs. Membership has increased, as well as Sunday school attendance, while church debts show a decrease.

CABINET APPOINTMENTS.

The Ontario cabinet yesterday made the following appointments:

the following appointments:

A. B. Spencer, to be special license commissioner for Collingwood, to assist Hugh Wright, inspector for West Simcoe, who, by reason of the large number of hotels in his district, is unable to devote sufficient time to Collingwood.

J. H. Burgar, to be police magistrate for Welland.

The motion of Mr. Hodgins, omitting the report to the executive committee, that these might be expunged, was carried. Rev. J. Pitt Lewis, chairman of the audit committee, said that if it were now affirmed that the executive committee could alter or withhold reports of other committees, he could no longer remain a member of the audit committee.

For Church Union.

The standing orders were suspended to allow Dr. Langtry to move the following resolutions:
That this synod offers its hearty control of the Dreshyte and Method Confer as to the insertion of a compensation clause.

That this synd offers its hearty congratulations to the Presbyterian, and stainment of the corporate union of the seed of the speedy at tainment of the corporate union of these three communions in one body.
