START WITH BIG RUSH

No Falling Off in Students. Teaching started with a big rush this week in the local conservatory, musical departments of colleges and private school course, unconsciously the knowledge that "art is long."

Mis. Thomas M. Theriault, Grand Anse, N. B., writes: "My three children were very sick with Summer Complaint during the hot days last Summer. I thought one day that they would die, and I didn't know what to do to cure them. I happened to have one "your almanacs in the house, and found by reading about Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry that it was a good remedy. I at once got two bottles, and they perfectly cured them. I recommend everybody to use this wonderful remedy."

The music box is proving an important factor in the molding of taste. Its value as a guide to students is becoming more generally understood. For years professional musicians have been in the hubit of going into music stores to hear records of works as presented by great artists before giving them in public themselves. Students (in the sense that they are receiving instruction) are seek-ing this help in preparing their lessons. After the tedious process of mastering, measure by measure, one hand at a time, and phrase by phrase, section by section, the glamor of a number is restored by turning a crank and hearing it played by an artist of understanding.

Just as no two writers treat a subject in exactly the same way, so no two artists will interpret a musical work in exactly the same manner. The work should be performed. Moreover, it raises a standard towards which to strive.

"Honestly, if it hadn't been for Tanlac, I might have lost my job that I have held now for eighteen years, and my wife is so delighted over my improvement that she has started taking Tanlac, too," declared George Shields, a long-time employee of the Grand, Trunk Rallway, and residing at 41 High street, London, the other day.

"When I came down with that spell of typhoid fever some time ago," he continued, "I wasn't able to do a lick of work for six months. My appetite left me, and I just had to force down enough to keep alive, and it looked like I never would get back my strength, Anything but the lightest kind of diet would tear me all to pieces and make me miserable all day. Itself Still More Firmly. The London Organists' Club, which will enter upon its second year in October, is to achieve the dignity of a constitution in the near future. A committee was appointed at the last meeting before the summer holidays to undering last week, and guest of Mrs. J. W. McIntosh, King street. Though she has been living in California a number of years, Mrs. Stone still retains a keen interest in the Woman's Music Club, and its progress. A ladies' orchestra was a feature of the club under her presidency. Miss Elizabeth Walker, sister of Mrs. Stone, and who is new living in Toronto, was for a number of years one of the most enthusiastic and energetic members of the executive of the club.

These Men Will Help You Decide

Are you liable to be selected for service under the Military Service Act?

The answer to this question is being made readily available for you. Remember that the first class to be called includes only men between the ages of 20 and 34, both inclusive, who are unmarried or widowers without children, those married after July 6, 1917, being deemed single for the purposes of the Act.

Medical Boards are now being established throughout Canada. These Boards will examine, free of charge and obligation, all men who wish to be examined as to their physical fitness for military service. They will tell you in a very short time whether your physical condition absolves you from the call or makes you liable for selection.

It is important that you obtain this information as soon as possible. A certificate of unfitness from a Medical Board will secure for you freedom from responsibility under the Military Service Act from any Exemption Tribunal. A certificate of fitness will not preclude an appeal for exemption on any ground.

In order that you may be able to plan your future with certainty, visit a Medical Board as soon as possible and find out if you are liable to be selected. Your family and your employer are interested as well as yourself.
