STOLE MANICURE SETS.

Two Young Men Caught Red-Handed-Sold $10 Pieces For 50 Cents.

While in the act of prosecuting a sytematic plunder which had been going on for several days, Albert Weston, living on Claremont-street, and David Duncan, 536 Givins-street, were arrested by Acting Detective Armstrong of No. 1 station yesterday afternoon. He later recovered five valuable manicure sets which the former prisoner admitted he had stolen from the warehouse of the Burgess-Powell Drug

Both young men have been employed at Gourlay, Winter & Leeming's, on West King-street, and chose the hour of 1 p.m., when all was quiet around the Burgess-Powell establishment, to do their pilfering. Duncan was in the habit of standing guard while Weston stole the goods, and it was in these respective attitudes that Detective Armstrong apprehended them.

The sets were mounted in silver and ebony and valued at $10 each. Three
