Toronto and Rochester Have Still Game To Win

Brooklyn Now Leads The National League

SAME SORROWFUL TALE LEAFS' FOURTH DEFEAT

Daily Story From Front—Pitchers Put Up Miserable Fight —A Beating.

Special to The Toronto World.

BALTIMORE, Md., May 1.—Toronto has still to win a game in the International League chase this season, the Orioles pushing the Leafs down this afternoon to the jingle of nine to four, which made the fourth straight defeat of the year for Joe Birmingham's aggregation. Lack of pitchers who are in condition to go thru a battle again proved the undoing of the visitors, who played bang-up and faultless ball thruout, their work being in sharp contrast to the fielding offered up by the Birds, who misued no less than six times. Lyons, Manning and Dye were all used, and, of the trio, the first named showed by far the best form. Had Manager Birmingham let the youngster stick to his guns a bit longer, the score might not have been quite as large as it was. Manning lasted less than a session, and Dye went into the box after the Birds were tired circling the base paths.

Oh, For Some Pitchers!

Altho the Leafs, including Business Manager Irwin, complain of not being in shape, the fact is they left little or nothing to be desired frfom a defensive standpoint. Their work with the willow lacked most of the time, but had Toronto had the pitchers, the story would have been considerably different. Martin and Blackburne displayed some particularly brilliant work, the former accepting his seven chances, while Blackburne took care of all of his ten.

Baltimore was the first to come thru with a counter; this being done in the second round. Lamar opened with a bingle to centre, and Fewster's screaming liner was taken care of by Blackburne. Ritter doubled to left, Lamar pulling up at third. McAvoy was purposely walked in the hope of getting a double-play. Lyons' chances for escaping looked good, when he fanned Sherman, but he became wobbly and walked Bates, forcing home Lamar. Kopf had a real opportunity, but he lifted to Brackett, who, after misjudging the ball, made a sensational one-hand grab.

The Birds pushed over another in the fifth on Kopf's single, his stolen base and two infield outs.

The Leafs had done nothing with Sherman's shoots during the first five rounds, except in the third session, when two singles and a hit batsman filled the bases, with one down. Brackett, however, popped to Twombly, and Graham hoisted to Miller.

The home folks were happy with a two-run lead when the sixth started, but the Canucks messed things up for the rooters by putting over a quartet of counters. Truesdale started the fun with a single to right. Brackett poked a one-baser to centre. Graham sacrificed the runners a base each, and they counted on Blackburne's single to centre. Miller threw to home to try and get Brackett. The ball struck the runner and bounded to the grand stand, Blackburne pulling up at third. Ritter pegged Layden's grounder badly, Blackburne tallying, Layden stole second, and, after Martin had popped to Fewster, he passed the counting station on Trout's rap to left. That ended Toronto's run-getting, altho three men perished on the sacks in the eighth.

Good-Night!

Baltimore's half of the sixth was a nightmare for the Birmingham aggregation. Lyons deflected Fewster's sharp rap towards Truesdale, who got the ball in time to first to beat the runner. Ritter and McAvoy singled, and both came home on Sherman's two-base smash to right. That was enough for Lyons, and Manning was trotted out. He walked Bates as a starter, Kopf popped to Blackburne, but Twombly singled past third, scoring Sherman. Miller's rap to centre sent home Bates, Twombly taking third and Miller second on the throw-in. Both scored on Lamar's bingle to right, Lamar taking second on the throw-in. He scored a minute later on Fewster's single to left, Fewster being killed off trying to reach second on the throw.

The day was very warm, and the best the Leafs have encountered this season.

Willard-Moran Fight Pictures

The first public exhibition of socalled prize fight pictures since the provincial anti-legislation occurred yesterday under the auspices of the Irish Battalion in the Gayety Theatre. If any one could file an objection his ideas must be considerably at variance with those who are keeping abreast of the stress of the times.

The films are clear thruout and easily display Jess Willard's superiority over Frank Moran. It is hard to pick out a round that went against the champion.

Willard displays wonderful skill thruout, not only in his short, quick jabs and Joits, but in footwork more like a bantamweight. The big fellow towers so over Moran that most of his punches are necessarily chops to get down to the level of a mere six footer, Jess' stature being 6 feet 7 inches.

An expert who had never seen Willard in action before could easily conclude that it will be fully a generation before the championship again changes hands. Willard broke a bone in his right hand in the third, thus forcing him to defend the title the balance of the ten with his left, and this he does with the utmost ease and abandon.

Frank Moran sure displayed gameness thruout. He always came back for more, and Willard was never stingy in dealing out castigation.

PETERSON TO BE TRIED ON CHARGE OF PERJURY

Magistrate Intimated That Prima Facie Case Had Been Made Out.

REGINA, Sask., May 1.—In the police court this morning before Magistrate J. J. McCarthy, Clayton Peterson was arraigned on a charge of perjury in connection with his evidence before the Sutherland Commission of the Legislature. When the hearing closed Magistrate McCarthy stated a prima facie case had been made out and intimated he would commit Peterson for trial, but adjourned the court until Thursday morning.

HUSBAND AND WIFE.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Gaynor, 3 Shirley street, was terribly burned about the hands, face and body last night, when a coal oil stove on which she was cooking exploded and ignited her clothing. In trying to extinguish the flames with his hands, her husband, Bernard Gaynor, sustained a number of severe injuries. Dr. McConnell, 555 Dundas street, was called, and after rendering first aid he ordered their removal to St. Michael's Hospital in the police ambulance. Mrs. Gaynor's condition is critical.

DODGERS HEAD HEAP BRAVES ARE COMING

Brooklyn Hands Giants' Their Eighth Defeat—Truesdale Gets First Hit.

"Robbies" Dodgers now head the National League. Stengel supplied a homer with two on base to beat the Giants.

Richmond pounded two Montreal pitchers hard and had a two-run margin over the Royals at the finish.

The Detroit Tigers only got two hits off Stanley Coveleskie in five innings. Rain fell early in the sixth round, and the Naps were winners, 3 to 0.

Billiard gave the Bisons three hits, and the Grays were winners after 11 innings.

Eight defeats in a row for John McGraw. The little Napoleon must be a pleasant gent to room with these balmy spring days.

It is a good job for Joe Birmingham that Rochester is in the League. A win for the Hustlers yesterday would have left the Leafs the only team in three leagues without a victory.

Russell, the former Oriole, found the dispised Athletics tough nuts. The Mackmen bunched hits in the first inning and beat the Yankees, 4 to 2.

Newark remained at the top with the Grays by driving in four runs in the sixth against Rochester.

The Leafs played errorless bal lin the field, but the pitchers failed as usual.

Dicky Rudolph pitched the Braves to a nice win over the Phillies. Moran's men got four hits and a whitewash dose. It was Boston's first win over Philadelphia this season.

Martin, the new shortstop that the Leafs signed after the Giants had turned him adrift, showed some sparkling fielding yesterday.

Babe Ruth let the Senators out in front in the American race. The Red Sox pitcher was wild and passed nine men, and this let Washington win, 5 to 3.

"My kingdom for one good pitcher."—Touching ballad by Handsome Joe Birmingham.

Mitchell pitched sterling ball for the Reds, and kept the Pirates' six hits so Washington and one out Ruth passed Rondeau, Williams and Morgan. Leonard appeared, and Henry greeted him with a two base hit, which cleared the bases. Score:

This European War Has Wonderful Record

NEW YORK, May 1.—Albert Badoud, welterweight champion of Europe, is the latest foreigner to invade these shores in quest of a world's title. Badoud recently arrived here, having been brought over by Dan McKetrick, and will start his campaign against the American welterweights at the Stadium A.C., the management of which has signed Badoud for three contests.

Badoud is known thruout Europe as the "Knockout King." He has the most wonderful knockout record of any boxer in the world today. He has fought sixty contests and has scored forty-five knockouts, giving him a "batting" average of .750 per cent., a record never equaled in the history of the prize ring.

Since Badoud's arrival, the American colony of promoters, managers and boxers who have been abroad all predict that Badoud will be a sensation here. He is of the aggressive type, with a terrific punch in either hand. He is the same type of fighter as the late Stanley Ketchel, and such great judges of boxers as Joe Jeanette, Young Ahearn, Willie Lewis, Frank Moran, Kid McCoy, George Engle, George Considine and George Munroe are all unanimous in declaring that Badoud will be the same sensation as was Ketchel.

George Munroe, in talking of Badoud, said: "I have seen Badoud in several fights, and I fought Terry McGovern 20 rounds, and this fellow is a large edition of Terrible Terry.' Badoud will be remembered by Americans as the boxer who knocked out Young Ahearn when the latter first went abroad."

Most of Badoud's contests have been scheduled for 20 rounds, but his record shows that only 15 of his opponents went the limit with him, and among those 15 are included some of the contests he had as an amateur boxer. Incidentally he left the amateur ranks as featherweight champion, having won this title twice. His first amateur championship Badoud won when he was 15 years old. He won it again the following year and then turned professional.

Badoud is a Franco-Swiss, having been born in Geneva, Switzerland, which is on the French border. His parents were French. He is 22 years old. Previous to the great war he won the welterweight championship of Switzerland, Belgium and France. All these countries have a board of control. The championships are fought under the direction and auspices of these bodies. Having been declared champion of France, Switzerland and Belgium, Badoud next turned his attention to Johnny Basham, who held the welterweight championship of Great Britain, and the Lord Lonsdale belt, emblematic of that title. Several months ago Badoud and Basham were matched for the championship of Europe.

The contest created no en dof interest despite war conditions, for they played to one of the biggest houses on record. Badoud continued his sensational fighting and knocked out Basham in nine rounds, winning the belt, emblematic of the European title.

Indoor Athletic Season Closes at the Central

The indoor athletic season ended Saturday night at Central Y.M.C.A. when four events were run off, and the competition was very keen, as on the handicappers' and judges' decisions hung the season's championship. Winfield and Glover, who have been fighting it out for athletic honors, finished up a tie, so that shows the closeness of the events.

Corp. Hill, W. Jackson and C. Mertens were all within a point of one another in the walks events, so here also hung the finish of last night's events. The former surprised even himself when after getting a 34 second handicap he walked the mile in 7.16, thereby winning first place, with W. Windfield second and Jackson third.

The standing broad jump was well handicapped, but both the leading men were at their best, leaping inches farther than at any time this season, Glover doing 10' 1½". Winfield with a 16" handicap tied him up.

The 220-yard dash was a hummer. Macey, the scratch man, clipped off the distance in 28 seconds, but the handicaps pulled him down to third. H. Fitchett, with 18 yards, getting first with 27 3-5 secs. Windfield and Burton, with 2 yards, were just outside the money.

In the mile run, Moyle surprised all by setting the pace nearly all the way and by finishing with a fine sprint in the good time of 5.37 2-5, and with his handicaps, succeeded in holding first with Milliken, who ran a well-judged race, second, and Gallom, a new boy, third.

The results:

220 yards dash—1, H. Fitchett; 2, E. Chamberlain; 3, A. C. Macey. Time 27 3-5 sec.

Standing broad jump—1, G. E. Glover; 2, W. Windfield; 3, H. Fitchett. Distance 10' 1½".

One mile walk—1, D. Windfield; 2, H. Hill; 3, W. Jackson. Time 6.52.

One mile run—1, C. T. Moyle; 2, H. Milliken; 3, N. Gallom. Time 5.27.

A special meeting is being arranged during the next week when the prizes won by all the athletes last summer and this season are to be presented, and the summer program discussed.
