St. Pats Beat Canadiens Until They Cried-Eight Goals.

Montreal, Feb. 18.—Completely disor-ganized and playing far below their usual form, Canadiens fell victims to ganized and playing far below their usual form, Canadiens fell victims to Toronto St. Patricks tonight here to the tune of 8 to 2. From the start of the game the St. Pats were conspicuous by their victorious play, but altho they scored a two-goal lead in the first period, the Canadiens were by no means out of it, and before the end of that period had reduced the lead by one goal. It was in the second period that Canadiens played and looked like a beaten team. Only Vezina's sterling work in goal saved a hig score from being, piled up. However, two more were put on by Toronto, and thereafter the game was little more than a farce, with Canadiens making continual changes to stave off defeat. Lalonde was taken ill in the third period, and the play became uninteresting, the visitors being content to rest on their laurals and save themselves for their game Saturday with Ottawa.

Berlinquette, however, added a tally for the Frenchmen. Practically every Berlinquette, however, added a tally for the Frenchmen. Practically every player or the Pats' team took a hand in acoting, Predgers turning the intitrick and Wilson scoring two, while Nobie, Dennenay and Roach scored one apiece.

St. Patricks started with a rush, Randall stopped Arbour as he was about to shoot, Randall proke away and carried the puck up the fee. Corbeau checked Randall, but as he was checked, Randall passed to Noble, who scored, putting St. Patricks in the lead. Canadiens were ragged in their play, and missed numerous chances. Prodgers, Noble and Wilson checked back, like fiends. From a face-off near St. Patricks' nets, Prodgers secured possession and carried the pick up the fee. He got inside the local defence and passed to Dennenay, who had replaced Wilson. Dennenay went in close and scored Toronto's second goal, making the score, St. Patricks 2, Canadiens 0.

Starting the second period. Wilson was back at centre. Canadiens opened on the offersive. St. Patricks attacked and outplayed Canadiens. Randall went the length of the lee and scored. Wilson research with the length of the lee and scored. Wilson sentered from the face-off unassisted. Prodgers started a play, and grassed to Wilson, who went in and scored. Wilson started another play, and grassed to Wilson, who went in and scored. Wilson started another play, and grassed to Wilson, who went in and scored. Wilson started another play, and carried the puck near his own goal and went straight to Canadiens' nets. He forced his way between Lalonde and Pitre and scored. Roach, who had been sent on to rest Noble, added another just as the period finished, making it 8 to 1.

Not ratisfied with their already long lead, St. Patricks opened the third on the rebound Berlinquette scored, making it 8 to 2.

The plan for this game goes on sale at the Arena to-morrow normals. morrow morning.

No professional game this season has attracted as much attention as Satur-attracted as much attention as Saturday night's contest here between the Senators and St. Patricks is causing. There are many old scores to be settled with Ottawa for things that happened in that last game there. The plan goes on sale at the Arena at 10 o'clock this morning. With Lockhart to guard the nets, Mitchell's absence should not be felt.

KERR WANTS MORE.

"Rabbit" Maranville, star shortstop of the Boston National League Baseball Club, will continue to play in a Braves uniform this season, George W. Grant, president of the club, said yesterday. It had been rumored that Maranville was to be traded.

Dick Kerr. who bitched the Chicago Americans to two victories in the world's series last fell, has returned his contract for 1920 unsigned, it was learned yesterday, with a demand for more money.

The Blythwood girls from the Blythwood rink, away up Yonge street, left last night for Ottawa, where they play a game of hockey tonight, with the Alert Ladies' Hockey Club team.

of the National League, said that the question of raising prices came up, but it was voted down.

Fultz reported to the league on the meeting held in Chicago between the minor league committee and the majors. While draft was discussed only intormally, he said that the league still was unfavorably inclined to the restoration of the draft.

The schedule adopted will comprise 154 games. The different teams will open on April 21, as follows:

Toronto at Reading; Akron at Jersey City; Buffalo at Baltimore; Rochester at Syracuse. Return games will be played on May 5.

An increase in the waiver price from $500 to $1000 was also adopted, and the board of directors received.

Ottawa, Feb. 18.—Ottawas kept abreast of St. Patricks of Toronto by defeating Quebec here tonight by the score of 9 to 3. The game was only a workout for the Senators, whose lend was never threatened. Only in the second period did Quebec show any signs of winning. Ottawas were without Broadlent, and Carey was absent from Quebec. The playing of McCarthy featured the work of the visitors. Cy Dennenay was the star for Ottawa, and nemay was the star for Ottawa, and scored three goals.
