

never forget how he taught us to understand the Scriptures; opened up to us their meaning, he has helped us to see the significance and importance of the Old Testament in its relation to the New; and, has thus shown us in the clearest light the revelation of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, in the Sacred Word. And hereafter, when in reading the Scriptures we come upon one passage and another, which were illustrated by his expositions we shall constantly remember him.

The address setting forth more fully the mind of the congregation and which was presented to Dr. Kellogg at the farewell meeting held in the church last September, will be found in another part of this year's report.

Owing to the completed arrangements for Dr. Kellogg and his family to leave Toronto at a certain date, it was found impossible for him to be present and take part in the opening meeting of the Pan-Presbyterian Council, which was held in our church on the 21st September—the first of a series of meetings in our city, which will be long remembered, and will doubtless be fruitful of great blessing.

And now, dear brethren, while for a time we are without an under-shepherd it behoves us not to be discouraged, having faith in God and in His promises concerning His church—the church for which the Saviour died—we may be sure that he who has led us in the past will be our shepherd still. Our duty is to be loyal to Christ—abiding in Him by faith and abounding in good works; loyal to one another also in advancing each other's good and in whatever makes for the peace and prosperity of Zion. Let not the love, then, of any wax cold, but by all the Lord has been to us be more united than ever—a people consecrated to the Lord, knit together in love.

The Session would like to assure the congregation that they have every confidence that the committee who have the matter in charge will spare no effort in obtaining the best possible supply for the pulpit during the

vacan
maner

Th
crisis
in its v a new

W
of men
lacking
work
classes
Societ
in the tokens
take a
as in
in con

It
with t
young
their c
“ the m
the nu
more

Th
financ
and f amoun
years,
efforts
devote spent

Du
earthl
all suc
no co
be ear
with a
occup