

Ottawa, January 13, 1941.

Dear Sir:

I have to refer to your letter of July 16, 1940, authorizing the employment of Mr. Ian MacRae, Barrister of Strathroy, Ontario, to defend Samuel Dodge, an Indian of the Caldwell Band, charged with murder.

In September, 1940, Mr. MacRae withdrew from the case, for reasons set forth in a letter to you, dated September 25, which you forwarded to me, in duplicate, on September 25. For your information I am attaching hereto a copy of this letter.

An account amounting to $240.41 has now been received from Mr. MacRae, which I am enclosing herewith for taxation and return.

Yours very truly,

Alvins
Director.
