NEW YORK, May 17—According to Coroner Peter Acritelli, lawlessness has prevailed for months in the excavation which the O'Rourke Construction Co. is making for the new Grand Central station, and the Italian government has demanded an investigation, says the World. The coroner yesterday caused the arrest of John Eldredge, general superintendent of the O'Rourke Co. and held him in $1,000 bail on a charge of homicide. He issued subpoenas for the president of the corporation and all its general foremen.

"There has been an average of two deaths a day among the employes ever since I took office," said Coroner Acritehi last night. "The records will bear me out in this statement. Most of the deaths have been among the Italian employes.

"For two weeks I have been investigating at the recent of the Italian growth." "For two weeks I have been investigating at the request of the Italian government made through Consul General Count A. Reybaudi Massiglia. I have pretty good evidence in my possession that there has been a feud between the Irish and Italian laborers. It seems that an Italian did not know how to handle dynamite. It went off and killed an Irishman. Ever since then ledges of rock have had a way of falling upon Italians. Most of the drillers are Irishmen and the Italians do the laborers work.

"When I begin hearings next week I hall sit as a committing magistrate and end my findings to the district attorney "I ordered the arrest of Eldredge in onnection with the death of Angalo Bes-

FOUGHT DUEL TO DEATH ASTRIDE OF A CANOE

Fort William, Ont., May 17—(Special)—
As a result of a feud which had its inception in Nipigon, a small town sixty miles east of Fort Williams, W. A. Armstrong and Isadore Bouchard, formerly employed on the projected line of the transcontinental railway, are dead in Helen Lake on the North Shore of Lake Superfor.

Thompson and Bouchard were drowned last Tuesday and their deaths were, without exception, the most tragic that ever occurred in this district.

While in a canoe half a mile from the shore the men engaged in combat, capsizing the craft. Undaunted they climbed to the top of the upturned canoe and engaged in a hand to hand struggle, lasting nearly 30 minutes, when, their strength spent, they ellipped into the water and sank.

Some weeks ago Thompson and Bouchard was the first to go down. A minute later Thompson toppled from the canoe and disappeared from view. The bodies have to been recovered.

Thousands of women suffer untold miser-ies every day with aching backs that really siness to ache. A weman's back vasn't made to ache. Under ordinary conditions it ought to be strong and ready to help her bear the burdens of life.

"You, Felix? In the back?" Vigo looked at me, as if to demand again which side I was on.

"He lay on me throttling me," I explained. "I stabbed any way I could."

"I trow you are a dead man," Vigo told Grammont. "Natheless, here comes told Grammont. "Natheless, here comes to the knife."

"Screwed it out of Martin, Monsieur was gone."

"Gone out of Paris?" M. Etienne echoed blankly. To his eagerness it was as if M. le Duc were out of France.

"Aye. He meant to go tonight—Monsieur told Grammont. "Natheless, here comes

It is hard to do housework with an aching back. Hours of misery at leisure or at work. If women only knew the cause. Backache comes from sick kidneys, and what a lot of trouble sick kidneys cause in the world.

But they can't help it. If more work is put on them than they can stand it's not put on the stand it's not l, pointing to Lucas.
"He will die a worse death than you," Grammont looked from the one to the other of us, the sullen rage in his face fading to a puzzled helplessness. He said "Which—which is Etienne?"

He could no longer see us plain. M. le Comte came forward silently. Grammont struggled for breath in a way pitiable to see. I put my arm about him and helped the grandways to hold him straighter. the guardsman to hold him straighter He reached out his hand and caught at M. le Comte's sleeve. "Etienne-Etienne-pardon. It was wrong toward you-but I never had the pistols. He called me thief-the duke. I beseech—your—pardon."
M. le Comte was silent.
"It was all Lucas—Lucas did it," Grammont muttered with stiffening lips. "I
