we are not considering that class at all tonight. We are considering the case of boys who have got into trouble, and I repeat that we want the public to give us money with which to buy a 'Boys' Farm,' where they can be trained to become good boys so that later they may become strong and useful Canadian citizens."

"Mr. J. S. Buchan, K. C., entered into some interesting details of the new proposal. The idea is to have a farm of sufficient size to give employment to a considerable number of boys. On this farm there would be the Training School, and the boys would live in cottages; each cottage, with from twenty to twenty-five boys, would be controlled by a superintendent would control the whole farm."

The Boys' Home in Montreal has been the United States.

Last year about 7,000 settled in the maritime provinces and about the same proportion was expected to remain this year.

A. R. Sutherland, of the employment department of the G. T. P. railway, with headquarters at Winnipeg, was also in the city. The Boys' Home in Montreal has been conducted for thirty-six years and a new building has been added at a cost of thirty thousand dollars. One hundred and seven boys were admitted last year. No sooner had the directors seen the new building completed and free from debt than they made an appeal for the funds to provide the farm and training school beyond the city limits. Thus by private beneficence much is attempted that should really be a charge upon society as a whole.

AN IMPORTANT BILL

The Ontario legislature is to discuss the necessity for the registration of all cases of tuberculosis. A bill has been introduced by a private member, which, says the Toronto News report, provides for The man who is always turning over a training school.

The testimony dragged through day after day with witnesses swearing to all sorts of things until the jury was beaten into a state of lethargy when the attorney for the "light o' love" widow began his address. He made a magnificent speech, reasonable and well-considered, and the held him up to the jury, with tangled curls, blue eyes, frightened, flushed. "And if you gentlemen do not give my client justice," said Mr. Johnson, "I call her and now upon the God of the widow and the fatherless to give this innocent child his rights in the estate of his acknowledged father."

Some of the jurors cried, some of them sneered and one of them laughed aloud, but vitriol into every mind that marked and understood him.

He tore the evidence with which Mr. Johnson had fortified his client's case to pieces, bit by bit, shred by shred and atom by atom. He did it with a cool irony that was somehow overwhelmingly convincing. But his logic did not seem to overcome the hysteria from the other's speech. When he had finished his smashing the evidence Mr. Delmas turned suddenly on the clearly unwon jury; leaning forward with his eyes blazing, he exclaimed as in a sudden fury:

"To what God does my learned friend, Mr. Johnson, appeal for justice in this case?

"To the God who thundered from Sinai,"Thou shalt not commit adukery.'"

The jury caught its breath—the bucket of cold water had done its work, and Mr. Delmas' client walked out of the courtroom a triumphant woman.
