

THREE NATIVES OF NEW BRUNSWICK

Are Members of Maine Legislature from Aroostook Region.

(Frederick Gleason)

Of the seventeen delegates from Aroostook County, Me., to the eighty-first legislature of the State of Maine, three are former New Brunswickers, who have taken up their residence in Maine. The members and a short sketch of each is as follows:

Whitfield B. Hallett, of Ashland, was born in Perth, N. B., fifty-six years ago. He is a Republican, a Congregationalist, a widower, and a farmer. He was educated in Andover, N. B., was town treasurer of Ashland for four years; selectman twenty-one years, and eighteen years postmaster. He is a member of the F. & A. M., Royal Arch Chapter, Knights Templar and Shrine, Oddfellows.

Herbert W. Kitchen, of Presque Isle, was born in Carleton County. He is forty-four years old, is a Republican, Congregationalist, married, and a farmer. He was educated in the common schools and Shaw Business College, was a selectman for three years, director Aroostook Co-operative Co., director of Presque Isle National Bank, member of F. & A. M., and twice master Marysville Chapter, Grange No. 183.

Albert M. Smith, of Lido, Me., was born in Kings County, N. B., fifty-five years ago. He was educated in the schools of New Brunswick and Houlton, and is a Republican. He was six years on board of selectmen, town clerk, superintendent of schools and a member of executive committee, Aroostook Farm Bureau, and a member of the House in 1921.

When the X-ray was first invented, it required 20 minutes to get a photograph while the present one requires 100th of a second.

Try these Bakers' Raisin Pies

—save baking at home

THERE are luscious raisin pies just around the corner, at your grocer's or a bake shop.

Baked to a turn—a flaky crust filled with tender, tempting raisins, the rich juice forming a delicious sauce.

Once try these pies that master bakers bake fresh daily in your city and you'll never take the trouble afterwards to make raisin pies at home.

Get a pie now and let your men folk taste it.

Made with tender, thin-skinned, meaty, seeded Sun-Maid Raisins. Raisins furnish 1560 calories of energizing nutriment per pound in practically predigested form.

Also a fine content of food-iron—good food for the blood.

Use raisins frequently, therefore, which are both good and good for you, in puddings, cakes, cookies, etc.

You may be offered other brands that you know less well than Sun-Maids, but the kind you want is the kind you know is good. Insist, therefore, on Sun-Maid brand. They cost no more than ordinary raisins.

Mail coupon for free book of tested Sun-Maid recipes. Learn what you can do with luscious raisins.

LOCAL NEWS

The Sunshine Club of the Charlotte Street Baptist Church met at the home of Miss Evelyn Denning, Champlain street, last evening, with the president, Miss Ethel Urquhart, in the chair. Arrangements were made for holding skating and other parties during the season.

Twenty members of the St. Luke's Tuxis boys and lady friends held a theatre party last evening in place of the sleigh drive which has to be abandoned on account of the storm. After attending the theatre they went to the school room of the church where refreshments were served. A pleasant evening was spent.

George A. Elliott had a finger of his left hand jammed in the elevator at the post office building yesterday afternoon. The injured member was dressed by a doctor and the injured man went to his home in Celebration street. Mr. Elliott is employed at the post office as an engineer. It is expected he will be kept from his work for several days.

The St. John chapter of the Graduate Nurses' Association met last night in the Victorian Order Home in Carleton street with the president, Miss Brophy, in the chair. General business was transacted and plans were made for a tea to be held next month in aid of the National Memorial for Nurses. Social enjoyment followed the business of the meeting.

Miss Jessie Jamieson, teacher in Victoria school, slipped and fell last night as she was about to enter the General Public Hospital. She was taken into the hospital and it is feared that her right leg is broken. An X-ray examination will be taken today as it could not be ascertained last night whether her leg was broken or merely bruised. Miss Jamieson had the misfortune to break the same leg last winter.

The members of the adult Bible class, together with the officers and teachers of St. Mary's church, gathered at the home of the rector, Rev. R. Taylor McKim, last night and tendered him a surprise party. J. M. Rogers presented to Mr. McKim a purse and Mr. McKim thanked the people for their kind gift. The evening was spent in music and games, after which refreshments were served.

Officers installed for Union Lodge of Portland, F. & A. M., last evening are as follows: W. M., L. M. Farquhar; L. P. M., Farris S. Sawaya; S. W., R. R. Cummings; J. W., DeWitt Cairns; chaplain, Rev. Canon R. A. Armstrong; treasurer, W. B. Wallace; secretary, J. T. Hart; S. D., Robert Irving; J. D., A. E. Cox; S. S., H. E. Hunt; J. S.
