Felch Signs.
Chicago, Feb. 27.—Outfielder Happy Felch, who has been wintering in Milwaukee, today signed his contract with the Chicago Americans for 1920.

Diamond Sparkles.
Charley Mullen, who emerged from one retirement last season to manage the Seattle club, has retired again this time for good. He recently turned down an opportunity to manage the Vancouver club in the coming campaign.
Pitcher Gene Packard, who quit the Phils last year after a disagreement with Jack Coombs, is anxious to return and may be with the club again this season. He pitched in an Industrial League after leaving the Phils.
A fine of $5, which became effective automatically when a player disputed an umpire's decision in the Pacific Northwest League last season, will not be in force in the coming season.
Third Baseman Blackburn, who goes back to the Toronto club of the International League, has worn many a big league uniform since he got his first trial with the White Sox in 1910. He has been with the Reds, Braves and Phils.

Pitcher Bill James, whose departure from the majors was halted by the White Sox last summer, thereby winning Bill some world's series money, has been selected to the Minneapolis club of the American Association.

Bobby Roth and Val Pienich are among the Senators who recently returned their signed contracts to Manager Griffith. "Griff" declines to say what players are holding out on him.
President Jim Dunn of the Cleveland club has ordered the erection of a new pavilion along the third base side of the Indians' park, which will afford accommodations for approximately 3,500 more fans, and increase the seating capacity of the plant to about 20,000.

One of the eastern dopesmiths has discovered that Walter Johnson hurled the entire season of 1919, operating in thirty-nine combats, without being touched for a home run.

Something Refreshingly New, Though One of Our Oldest and Sweetest Historical Dramas

"Evangeline" Longfellow's Exquisite Story

When the first glimpse is given of the "forest primeval, the murmuring pines and the hemlocks."

When the little village of Grand-Pre is screened.

When Evangeline is first seen—"when she had passed it seemed like the ceasing of exquisite music."

When Evangeline and Gabriel plight their troth.

When the royal governor, Charles Lawrence, without authority from the king, decides to deport all Acadians.

When Evangeline, surrounded by pretty village maidens, decks herself for the wedding.

When the arrival of the soldiery checks the gaiety of the Acadians assembled for the wedding.

When the colonel reads the decree of exile for every man, woman and child in Acadia.

When Evangeline and Gabriel are separated as the actual deportation begins.

Dramatic Moments in a Story of Deep Emotions

When the village of Grand-Pre is burned.

When, without bell or book, they bury the father of Evangeline on the beach.

When Gabriel and his father find prosperity in the southern Savannas.

When Evangeline, ever-seeking, journeys here and there with other exiles in a never-faltering search for Gabriel.

When Evangeline refuses all suitors, saying "Whither my heart has gone, there follows my hand, and not elsewhere."

When Gabriel steals away from his Louisiana home to stifle his heart-break.

When Gabriel and emigrants in the wagon train are attacked by Indians.

When Evangeline becomes a Sister of Mercy.

When Evangeline and Gabriel at last are re-united in a pestilence hospital.

Golf for Everybody.
Border Cities Star—Victoria, B. C., is talking of a municipal golf course. A by-law recently submitted with that end in view failed of adoption, but the project is being revived by the Victoria Rotary Club and the Victoria Trades and Labor Council, with the result that it will probably carry the day when again placed before the electorate. A similar proposition has often been discussed in the Border Cities, and the Star sees no reason why the scheme cannot be preceded with. Various local organizations could be depended upon to back the project, and it is understood that the mayor and council look favorably upon it.

WHISKEY SMUGGLERS CAUGHT; 450 QUARTS SEIZED
Batter, Mont., Feb. 25.—It is announced that whiskey smuggled from Robarst, Sask., to Havre, Mont., has been broken up by the capture of the smugglers and the collection of three automobiles used by them and more than 450 quarts of liquor.

At one time snail racing was a great fad in Austria. Vienna had a fashionable snail racing club, where fortunes were frequently wagered on the ridiculous contests. Careful records of the time taken by the winning snails to crawl around the miniature snail race course were kept in order that contestants might be properly handicapped in subsequent matches.

CHARGE MADE AGAINST DEMPSEY

Warrants for Ring Champion and Manager Kearns

False Swearing in Returns Relative to the War Draft Is Alleged in Indictment Against Dempsey.

San Francisco, Feb. 27.—Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion of the world, and his manager, Jack Kearns, have been indicted by the federal grand jury on a charge of conspiring to have Dempsey avoid the selective draft, according to a responsible federal official here today.

Dempsey was charged with having falsely sworn that his father, mother, widowed sister and the latter's two children were dependent on him, that he had contributed $20 a month each to their support during 1917, and that they were receiving support from no other source.

Dempsey's statement to the draft board that his wife had lived with him for eighteen months previous to his appearance before the board and that his parents and widowed sister had made their home with him for years were false, according to the indictment.

A second indictment charging Dempsey with an actual evasion of the draft through falsification of his draft records also will be filed, this official said. Warrants will be sworn out after the jury reports and the men will be arrested upon their expected arrival from Los Angeles on Saturday.

Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 27.—Jack Kearns said today he was waiting to hear from his attorney in San Francisco before making any move concerning the indictments. He said he hoped it could be arranged for him and Dempsey to surrender to federal officials here.

D. R. A. Annual Meeting.
Ottawa, Feb. 27.—At the annual meeting of the Dominion Rifle Association here today officers were elected and the question came up for consideration as to the admission of other ranks of more than forty-five years of age to the Bisley team. It was left with a committee to report upon.

The officers elected include: Patron, His Excellency, The Governor-General; honorary president, Hon. Mr. Guthrie; president, Major-General Wilson, C.M.G.; Montreal, honorary vice-president, General Sir Arthur Currie; vice-presidents, Nova Scotia, Lieutenant-Colonel H. Flowers, Halifax; New Brunswick, Brigadier-General H. H. McLean; Prince Edward Island, Lieutenant-Colonel W. P. Frowe, Charlottetown.
