DYKEMAN'S

People are telling us every day that we have the nicest assortment of

Ladies' Coats

that is being shown in St. John.

This has been told us so often that we are getting enthused with the fact and this enthusiasm coupled with the admiration of the customer makes easy selling. For the past three years we have not carried over one single coat. The garments that we are showing are of the newest styles, many of them are copies from French designers and while the copies are exclusive in style, they are not high priced.

From $20 to $25

The other prices run from $5.00 up and we carry a very large assortment, so we can fit any size person.

We also have an immense stock of Children's Coats, prices run from $2.00 to $13.00.

SETTLED OUT OF COURT

Northumberland County Lumber Case Was Before Courts For About Three Years

The case of J. B. Snowball Limited and Lawrence MacLaren vs Daniel Sullivan et al, which has been before the courts in various forms for about three years, came up before Chief Justice Barrer in the chancery division this morning when it was announced that a settlement had been made. The plaintiffs had a given land license entitling them to a considerable tract of land in Northumberland county. They assigned their license to the defendants who, in return, contracted to cut two million feet of lumber and sell it to the plaintiffs at market price. The dispute arose as to what was the market price, and no delivery of the logs was ever made.

The case was settled out of court. R. A. Lawlor, K. C., and Hon. L. J. Tweedie, K. C., appeared for the plaintiffs and Powell & Harrison and A. A. Davidson for the defendants.

Circuit Court

Hearing in the case of Robert Jones & Company vs Matthew and James Burgess was continued before Mr. Justice White and a jury this morning. J. Williams Jones continued in defence. This case is likely to last for several days.

DEAN OF DURHAM GIVES APPROVAL TO DIVORCE

Causes Sensation at Church of England Congress in Southampton, Eng.

Southampton, Oct. 2.—Very Rev. Herbert Hensley Henson, Dean of Durham, created a sensation at the Church of England congress last night by a speech in which he openly approved divorce.

He declared that the full significance of the growth of the movement in favor of divorce was not to be explained by a mere break of licentiousness. Its strength lay in the fact that it gave expression to the distinctly Christian factor of self-respect that was not to be acquiesced in.

It was an error, he said, to fasten attention on divorce statistics as if any considerable importance attached to them. What really mattered was the standard of personal purity.

The audience listened with some show of uneasiness to Dean Henson's views and were manifestly relieved when he concluded. Other delegates insisted that the church must maintain the doctrine of the permanence of marriages.

CARE OF OUR YOUNG GIRLS IS NEEDED

In view of what the Rev. said, it was decided to make this question of greater care of the children, especially young girls, one of the subjects for discussion at the annual meeting of the association to be held in the last week in October.

Last year the leading topic at the annual meeting of the Associated Charities was the need of a Child's Protection Act. Such an act has since been passed by the legislature. Last year also one of the subjects discussed at the annual meeting was the need of a prison farm. No action has been taken to provide such an institution, and the subject will therefore be discussed again at this year's annual meeting.

Still another subject, which will be introduced by the president, W. S. Fisher, will be the wider use of the school buildings for the benefit of boys and girls, and young men and women, who have left school. Mr. Fisher has studied this question in other cities, where there is such a wider use of school buildings, and is convinced that something more ought to be done in St. John to utilize the expensive plant provided for educational purposes.

Yesterday's meeting was the first meeting of the board since the summer vacation. A number of matters of interest were discussed, and the treasurer was able to report the funds at the present time in a healthy condition.

It was stated that there is very little unemployment in St. John at present, but that if reports published concerning other Canadian cities are true, and great numbers of men there will be idle next winter, it is probable some of them will drift to St. John in search of work. Indeed Rev. Mr. Scovill said that inquiries are being received from outside points from men asking what the prospects are for getting work in St. John during the winter. It was therefore felt that, while local conditions are healthy, there might be, as a result of outsiders coming in, looking for situations, considerable work for the Associated Charities during the winter season.

FINDS A NEW SPIRIT HERE

Rev. G. R. E. McDonald in City From California

FORMER TRINITY CURATE

Not The Same St. John He Knew Eight Years Ago—Is on Way To Attend Convention in New York

"The vast difference between St. John as it was eight years ago and as it is today has impressed me almost more than I can say," was the comment of Rev. G. R. E. McDonald, who has returned after an absence of that length of time.

Mr. McDonald was formerly curate of Trinity church in this city but left for California on account of his health. He found what he sought in the west and now is enjoying perfect health. Mr. McDonald is now settled in Fresno, Cal. as dean of St. James' Cathedral. He came east to attend the general convention of the Anglican church which will open in New York on October 8 and look advantage of the opportunity to visit his former friends in Fredericton and St. John. He arrived in the city on Tuesday and will leave tomorrow evening for New York. While here he is the guest of H. Russell Sturdee, 108 Hasen street.

"I have become accustomed to the western spirit," said Mr. McDonald this morning "and I was afraid that my impression of St. John would suffer by comparison when I returned but my experience has been the reverse of this. You seem to have adopted the progressive methods of securing results, which are supposed to be typical of the west, and I was even more impressed with the new spirit shown by the people here than by the material results which have been achieved as a result of this change."

"One would hardly recognize Prince William street with new buildings going up from end to the other, the old buildings made modern and everywhere the signs of a great increase in the amount of business being carried on."

"King Square also shows the results of the new spirit of progress and a vast improvement has been made there. It seems to be the same almost everywhere in the city. I find new factory buildings, new dwellings to accommodate the additional workers and other incomes and, by no means the least, the great improvements which are being made in both the main harbor and in Courtenay Bay to keep pace with the business of the port."

"In the suburbs also I found the city growing and developing to an extent that I could hardly realize. The street car lines have been pushing out beyond their old limits but, apparently, hardly fast enough to meet the demands of the city which are growing so rapidly."

Rev. Mr. McDonald has been busy during the last day or two renewing old friendships and has been warmly welcomed by his former parishioners and many other friends as well.

FATHER CONWAY IS GOING TO CHIPMAN IN CHARGE OF PARISH

Cathedral Is Losing an Eloquent Preacher and an Active Worker

It will be learned with regret, especially by the members of the Cathedral congregation that Rev. E. J. Conway is to leave the city. He has been appointed to the charge of Chipman parish, Queens county, which includes Minto, Newcastle and Young's Cove, and he will leave next week to take up his new work.

Father Conway succeeds Father Hanigan, who, in turn, succeeds Father Poirier at St. Martin's; Father Poirier going to St. Mary's, Kent.

Father Conway, whose home is in Hampton, was ordained to the priesthood six years ago. Four of the intervening years he has spent as curate in Moncton and for the last two years he has been stationed at the Cathedral. He is an eloquent and forceful preacher, very active in good works, and deeply interested especially in guiding the young men. In this connection his work as spiritual adviser of the Young Men's Society of St. Joseph has been very effective. Throughout the city he is held in high esteem and he will be followed with all good wishes to his new field of labor.

VARDON AND RAY VS. QUIMET AND TRAVERS

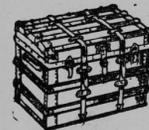

New York, Oct. 2.—Harry Vardon and Edward Ray, English professional golfers, will have another chance to meet Francis Quimet, national open champion in the course of another month. It is announced that the Englishmen have arranged for a match with Quimet and Jerome D. Travers, national amateur, at Wykagyl, early in November.

CANADIAN OFFICERS TO LEAVE ON SATURDAY

Quebec, Oct. 2.—The following despatch was received yesterday afternoon from London: "Hon. Sam Hughes, minister of militia, was tendered a complimentary dinner by the officers on Monday. Among the guests were Lord Brooke, Sir Frederick William Taylor, Norton Griffiths, M. P., and Mr. Hichens of the Cammell Laird Co. "Colonel Hughes was thanked by all for the excellent and elaborate arrangements made for the contingent. Part of the contingent will sail on Saturday, the minister, Colonel Biggar, and other officers, later."

Investigation Will Prove That We Give the most for the Money in Men's Clothing

Each season hundreds of men find out that they can buy clothing to better advantage at Oak Hall than anywhere else in St. John.

Twenty-five years of this finding-out process have brought us the largest clothing business in the city, and each year our leadership becomes more pronounced. Now it will be perfectly clear to any man who gives the matter the least thought, that such remarkable success could result only from remarkable inducements.

Competition is too keen and rivalry too strong among clothing merchants to allow such unequalled success under any other conditions.

We've had to give more for the money, and we do.

We sell you clothing with but one profit added to the cost of making.

In any other store you have to pay two profits—the maker's and the retailer's.

This is why the same grade of merchandise costs in the stores 25 per cent. to 33 1-3 per cent. more than our prices.

But even this great saving in price wouldn't account for the wonderful growth of our business if our clothing failed to reach the highest standard of style and quality.

Investigation has proved these facts to many men, and always to their advantage.

Investigation will prove it to you.

Why not investigate at once.

FURS! FURS!

These cool days should make every one think of colder days to come and FURS. We have never shown such a variety of styles of Furs and Fur Garments as this year and certainly our values cannot be bettered.

The Stoles and Scarfs this year are trimmed with heads and tails in many cases, but we also have plain articles in a large variety.

The Large Square Muff, some plain, some with head and tail trimming will be very popular.

The Coats are made with Semi-fitting or Box Back as preferred, the latter predominating with Shawl Collar.

We invite you to our Fur Show Room to see the newest styles.
